JANUARY 26, 1963

It's rare in our industry to hear of an independent label celebrating its Silver Anniversary. But the consistently successful Blue Note firm formed in January of 1939 should soon be turning the trick as it begins its 25th year as a leading company in the Jazz field. Formed by Alfred Lion (second from left) and run today by Lion and Francis Wolff (left) the diskery has been responsible for introducing many of today's jazz greats on records, including Horace Silver (right) who has been with the label for the past ten years. The gentlemen are seen above with Silver's new "Tokyo Blues" LP inspired by the artist's recent tour of Japan. The company began with traditionalist Sidney Bechet and has since furthered the careers of such names as Art Hodes, Sidney De Paris, Thelonious Monk, Milt Jackson, Lou Donaldson, Art Blakey, Jimmy Smith, the Three Sounds and an endless list that reads like a varitable Who's Who of the jazz world. There are now over 200 LP's in the Blue Note catalog.

STANDARDS

Standards continue to be one of the main arteries pumping life into the music business. In the area of LP's they are priceless. It's difficult or almost impossible to imagine an LP field without standards.

But in the singles field their importance is equally great since they are frequently the vehicles with which many of our new artists attain recognition. New material that's different, inventive and commercial is not as easy to find as one might imagine. It may be around but is difficult for most new artists to find. And it's frequently a matter of being in the right place at the right time to get a perfect marriage of an artist with a new piece of material.

Standards, however, offer the world of new performers an endless wealth of pre-tested songs to which they can give up-to-date, original interpretations, in a sense creating "new" songs for a new teenage public.

The current best seller list is a good example of this: Bob B. Soxx and the Blue Jeans created what can almost be considered a new song with their version of "Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah" as did Johnny Thunder with "Loop De Loop." "Release Me" has made Esther Philips a star and "Fly Me To The Moon" will undoubtedly make a big name of Joe Harnell.

Standards are also an outstanding vehicle for a hot artist who may not be able to find a sufficiently strong new piece of material with which to follow-up a hit. This is especially important on the highly competitive singles scene in which improper timing of follow-up releases can often be fatal.

Ray Charles, who made it to the big time with standards and used standards to offer one top selling LP after another, also used the evergreens to keep his singles activity hopping through all of 1962. Even now his chart seller is the oldie "You Are My Sunshine."

Every week there are at least a half-dozen and often more than a dozen standards on the charts. "Everybody Loves A Lover" by the Shirelles, Lavern Baker's "See See Rider," and Frank Ifield's "Lovesick Blues" round out the current picture.

Because they're always around, standards are often taken for granted. But they are a vital part of the industry. They're always available for anyone to toy with and are probably the most potent single producer of "new" releases.

New Smash LP Program Takes Lead From Fall Local Radio Spot Deal

NEW YORK—"Operation Airwaves" is the tag for new Jan. album release (13) and sales plan at Smash Records.

New plan is designed to follow in the successful footsteps of the label's fall sales plan, which stressed local radio advertising.

Features of the new plan—involving eight new Smash LP's and five new Fontana albums, is a 10% discount on new and catalog product, deferred billing and a functional rebate on a Bill Justis albums (see album listing below).

Plan also provides each distrib with a radio ad budget, with an additional contribution from Smash based on a percentage of distrib orders.

Label topper Charlie Fach said that Smash expects to do as much LP business during the life of the plan, which expires Mar. 15, as it did in all of 1962.

Smash's regional sales force got wind of the plan at an all-day meet in Chicago on Jan. 11, which included attendance by Irv Green, head of Mercury Records, parent company of Smash, and Irwin Steinberg, Mercury's exec veep. Sales force present included Doug Moody, east; Jay Swint, west; and Alan Mink, midwest.

The Smash staffers also went over plans for increasing Smash's 1963 sales figures 50% over last year.

The new Smash release includes: "Bill Justis Plays 12 more Instrumental Hits," including "Telstar," "Desafinado" and Justis' big hit of 1957, "Raunchy"; Mother Maybelle Carter, who currently has a big selling country LP, with "Mother Maybelle Carter and Her Autoharp"; Jerry Kennedy with "Guitars and Strings Play The Golden Standards"; Billy Mitchell, tenor sax player, with "This Is Billy Mitchell"; Eddie Baccus, showing off his 'dry organ' sound with "Feel Real"; Charles Trent playing "The Sound of A 5-String Banjo"; three top tenor sax stars, Tubby Hayes, Roland Kirk and James Moody, presenting their own inventive instrumentations on "Tubby's Back in Town"; and George Wein's All Stars with "Midnight Concert in Paris," recorded by the Newport Jazz Festival stars at the Olympia Theatre in Paris.

Heading the new Fontana release is "A Night With Nicole," with Parisian Nicole Bergere speaking of love against a musical background. Also included are "The Passionate Music of The Gypsy Caravan," played by a father-and-sons Gypsy orchestra; "Dutch Barrel Organ Music," featuring de Arabier, a European barrel organ that has toured the world; "Echoes of Ireland" by Irish tenor Peter Tomelty, who sings both classic Irish airs and melodies of today; and "Serenade In Paraguay" with Los Indios, South Americal vocal and instrumental group.

Laurie Tags Feb. As Dion Month

NEW YORK—Feb. will be Dion month at Laurie Records, which will make the songster's catalog of LP's available under a plan offering "substantial" discounts for quantity purchases in addition to the normal discount policy. All retailers, racks, one-stops and other retail purchasers are asked to contact their local Laurie distrib for further details on the plan, which will include various sales tools. Dion, now a Columbia Records' artist, cut for the label both as the lead singer of The Belmonts and as a solo attraction.

WB Names New Distribs In U.S., Latin-America

BURBANK—Warner Bros. Records has announced new distributor moves in the U.S. and Latin-America.

In the U.S. Oklahoma Record & Supply Co. will now handle WB products in the Oklahoma City area, replacing Sonart Dist.

WB has terminated previous agreements with RCA for distribution in Argentina, Chile & Uruguay, and has named the following new distribs: Argentina: Industrias Electricas y Musicales Odeon S.A.I.C., Buenos Aires; Chile: Industrias Electricas Y Musicales Odeon S.A., Santiago; Uruguay: Palicio de la Musica, Montevideo.

"Operation Clean-Up" At Roulette, 19 New Albums Bow Under Plan

NEW YORK—Roulette Records has started "Operation Clean-Up" as part of a Jan.-Feb. program that also sees the release of 19 new albums.

Label's distribs got word of the plan via a distrib, salesmen, promotional personnel meet at New York's Plaza Hotel Jan. 4-6.

According to general sales manager Bud Katzel, orders written at the meet for new releases as well as catalog items will make Jan. the biggest sales month in the history of the label, and the overall program should prove the label's most successful one yet.

The program works in the following manner: for every $5 worth of Roulette, Roost, Tico or Gee LP merchandise that is purchased, the distrib may return $1 worth of any record label he desires. The purchase is made at the distrib's cost and the return is handled at distrib's cost.

Extending the program to the dealer level, it works again in the same manner at the dealer's cost for purchases and returns. The program, says the label, is aimed at allowing the distribs and dealers to alleviate their inventory of "worthless, obsolete stock while at the same time purchasing new, fresh, key merchandise from both the new Jan. album releases as well as the entire catalog."

Also, as part of the program, the label is offering deferred billing on initial orders placed on new releases as well as catalog. A special salesmen's incentive bonus on the sale of all Roulette album merchandise during the period of the plan is also made part of this program.

The general sales meeting on Saturday, January 5th began with an introduction by Katzel of all the Roulette personnel responsible for both the creative as well as operational functions at the company. Following this, Katzel introduced Morris Levy, president of Roulette.

Levy's address made a point of the fact that Roulette would next month celebrate its sixth anniversary and that the label expected the next six years to be an even greater growth period than the first six years.

A fifty minute slide and stereo tape presentation of the nineteen new albums for January was next on the meetings agenda. The presentation was highlighted by a live-in-person demonstration of the new album, "How To Belly Dance For Your Husband" by belly dancer, Little Egypt. The album is a sequel to Roulette's "How To Strip For Your Husband."

Along with the belly dance album, the new releases consist of: "Back To The Blues," Dinah Washington; "All About Good Little Girls And Bad Little Boys," Pearl Bailey; a new Joey Dee LP; "Folk Songs," Jimmie Rodgers; "The Low-Down Back Porch Blues," Louisiana Red; "The Funniest New Comic Since The Last New Comic," Dave Turner; and a new comedy entitled "Tapped Wires," starring mimic, comedian Will Jordan and Rhoda Brown. The Roulette Birdland Jazz Series includes "Maynard '63," Maynard Ferguson; "The Explosive Side Of Sarah Vaughan," Sarah Vaughan; "Back To Basie And The Blues," which re-united Joe Williams with Count Basie & His Orchestra; "The Best Of Birdland" which features John Coltrane; "Skin Burns," with percussionist Roy Burns.

The Roost label bows in Jan. with "The Greatest Of Getz" with Stan Getz and "Johnny Smith Plays The Jimmy Van Heusen Song Book." Tico Records has four new LPs that include "Puente In Puerto Rico," Tito Puente; "Machito's Variedades" with Machito & His Orchestra and two new artists, Mauricio Smith "Fluta Nova" and Pupi Legarreta, "Salsa Nova."

Following the presentation, Katzel outlined the details of the sales program and an open discussion period followed this until the luncheon which closed the general sales meeting. The remaining time on Sat. and all day Sun., Jan. 6 was devoted to scheduled, private, in-person meetings with each distributor.

The entire Roulette album release has already been shipped so that the important selling days in Jan. will not be lost. According to Roulette, "Operation Clean-Up" will run until February 25th.

Liberty Pin-Points One-Stop Contact, Fead Heads OS Dept.

NEW YORK—In an effort to cover every possible area of sales potential with maximum exploitation and contact, Don Bohanan, national sales director of Liberty Records, has appointed a special One Stop director in Bob Fead, whose sole objective will be to maintain a close liaison with one stops throughout the nation.

Bohanan felt this move was necessary because of the increased importance of the one stop and the fact that most one stops are today primary suppliers of merchandise to smaller retailers.

Fead, who joined Liberty a few months ago, is currently completing his first swing around the country and is presently covering the East, meeting with one stops in every important record market. He has already covered the South and Midwest and now will visit one stops in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Washington, Buffalo and Rochester.

In conjunction with this increased effort, Liberty has instituted a special mailing service to one stops so that they will receive all new singles releases simultaneous with their arrival at radio stations in the various cities. OS singles will be housed in a special sleeve and will include flyers, brochures and complete information about activities at Liberty. LP samples will also be serviced to one stops. In addition to personal visits, Fead will be in touch with one stops regularly thru phone contact and special OS mailings to determine the status of Liberty product in any given area. Fead will also be in touch with the Liberty promotion force each week throughout the U.S. to relay his findings.

The diskery will also increase the promotion of its "All Time Hits" special operator singles and plans to issue a new set of these disks, supplying title strips and header cards to one stops.

Fead, who will operate out of Liberty's West Coast office, expects to visit one stops three or four times a year.

List NARM Award Nominees, Special Salute To Meader LP

NEW YORK — In announcing its nominees for best disk product and performers for '62, NARM, the rack-jobber association, has put Vaughn Meader's "First Family" LP in a class by itself.

With an estimated total sales of 4 million copies of the Cadence comedy LP, NARM executive secretary Jules Malamud announced last week that NARM members were responsible for the sale of 1,253,000 Meader albums in their more than 20,000 retail outlets in supermarkets, drug & variety store chains, department stores and discount houses, PX's, etc.

As a result, NARM's awards committee, headed by Lou J. Kustas of Toy House of Hudson Valley, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., has decided that two separate awards will be presented to Meader as the "Best Selling Comedy Recording Artist of All-Time, Via Record Merchandisers Outlets" and to Cadence for the "Best Selling LP Album of All-Time Via Record Merchandisers Outlets." Victor's "Our Man" Promotion Tied-In With Artists' Personal Appearances

NEW YORK — RCA Victor Records has launched a strong p.a. tie-in advertising and promotion campaign designed to stimulate nationwide enthusiasm for its January "Our Man In" series of albums.

Highlighting the promotion will be a "power house" display of talent, as seven of Victor's top recording stars —The Limeliters, Al Hirt, Arthur Fiedler, Chet Atkins, Eddy Arnold, Henry Mancini and Sergio Franchi— each represented by an LP in the "Our Man In" release, make personal appearances from coast to coast, promoting their albums.

Specially arranged "Our Man In" days featuring on-location appearances by the artist involved have been scheduled throughout this month, at Sherman-Clay in San Francisco (The Limeliters), at Maison Blanche in New Orleans (Hirt), at Jordan Marsh in Boston (Fieldler), at Harvey's in Nashville (Atkins), at Kresge in Atlanta (Arnold), at Music City in Los Angeles (Mancini) and at Wannamaker's in Philadelphia (Franchi). Each appearance will be backed by point of sale material, radio-TV spots and visiting dignitaries. Selling booths will be set up at each location with ample space for display, point of sale, and artist autographing. Local advertisements have also been prepared for placement by each of the locations.

Additional solid support for the promotion will come on Victor's regularly scheduled "Our Man In" TV commercial on "Wonderful World of Color," Jan. 27, on which mention will be made of the appearance of the artist at the location cooperating in the "Our Man In" day, in each of the "Our Man In" cities. (Expected here are the days for The Limeliters and Arthur Fiedler, both of which will have taken place prior to the TV commercial.)

Also highlighting the campaign will be a contest open to all distributors, based on sales and promotion performance on the "Our Man In" series. The contest, details of which have already been furnished to distribs, runs from Jan. 1 through March 1, 1963. Prizes will be: Four $500 gift certificates, two $250 certificates and two $100 certificates.

Victor will spotlight the entire "Our Man In" release in all distrib areas with special point-of-sale material, including mounted album covers, giant blanket streamers featuring artist photos and albums, and a deluxe "Our Man In" 12-bin rotating display rack which holds 120 LP's. Ad mats covering all of the Jan. product have been made available to distributors. A disk jockey highlighter LP, including tracks from 12 albums, will be made available to over 2,500 radio stations throughout the country.

The "Our Man In" advertising program, already launched, is a most extensive one and includes two-page, full-page and column and full-page advertisements in such consumer publications as Playboy, Cosmopolitan, TV Guide, Holiday, The New Yorker, Show, Modern Romance, Modern Screen, Down Beat, American Girl and The New York Times Magazine.

C-P UNDERWAY WITH NEW SUBSID—PAGEANT

NEW YORK—Cameo-Parkway Records has come-up with a new label tagged Pageant.

Diskery will be a wholly independent subsid of the C-P organization, with sales and promotion under the direction of newly-named national sales head Herman Kaplan.

Pageant will follow prexy Bernie Lowe's policy of building and developing the individual artists, and will therefore bring-in only new performers.

Three singles were recently released by the diskery. Included are Johnny Greco's "Rocket Ride" and "Why Don't You Love Me"; pianist Dave Stephens "Claire de Lune" and "The Shining Stars"; and The Persians' (a vocal group) "Get a Hold of Yourself" and "Steady Kind."

Argo Adds 2 LP's To January Releases

CHICAGO — Argo Records will bow two more jazz LP's this month in adidtion to two others announced in Dec.

They are: tenor & alto saxist Sonny Stitt's "Rearin' Back," with Ron Mathews, piano; Arthur Harper, bass, and Lex Humphries, drums; and "Blue on the Other Side," Mike Mainieri, vibes.

Previously announced were "Soul Cookin'" by Thornel Schwartz; and "Break Through" with Gene Shaw.

Albums-to-come, according to Esmond Edwards, jazz A&R head, are "Night Song" with Al Grey, due in about a month, and an Ahmad Jamal LP with an orchestra.

WB 1st B'way Cast LP: "Hot Spot" With Judy Holliday

BURBANK, CALIF.—Warner Bros. Records will have its first original-cast LP with the release of "Hot Spot," the new Judy Holliday musical due for a Broadway bow this spring, according to WB prexy Mike Maitland, who announced the label's acquisition of the show.

With music by Mary Rodgers, daughter of Richard Rodgers, the musical will be produced & directed by Morton DaCosta. Mary Rodgers was last represented on B'way with "Once Upon a Mattress," which came to the main-stem after an Off-B'way run. DaCosta was the director of "Music Man," among other musicals.

Plans for the merchandising and promotion of the LP are presently being made, Maitland said.

UA's Kiddie Line Tops 1 Million Sales Mark, Expansion Due In '63

NEW YORK — United Artists Records has sold more than 1 million of its new Tale Spinners for Children disks since the line made its bow last July, which no doubt helped the label decide to expand the line in 1963.

Initial release, which consisted of 10 Tale Spinners titles, with a retail price of 99-cents each, has been augmented by five new titles which are a part of the current '63 Jamboree sales program. The new albums include "Red Riding Hood," "Treasure Island," "Pinocchio," "Robinson Crusoe," and "Nursery Rhymes." Each album features the Famous Theatre Company, name actors and actresses and the Hollywood Studio Orchestra.

In addition, UA is building its kiddie line with a series of releases by Frank Luther, a kiddie-market vet. The initial album by Luther, titled "Macaroni, The Little Pony," was released shortly before Christmas. Other albums by Luther are now in preparation and will be released through 1963, Talmadge stated.

Merchandising of the Tale Spinners For Children Series has been one of the major factors in its initial success, the label feels, with special displays, both floor and counter, being utilized widely to expose the entire line to the public, not only through regular outlets, but through such secondary sales points as cigar stores, gasoline stations, etc.

New floor rack, containing 100 Tale Spinner albums, will be shipped to distributors within a few weeks. The new display is similar to the original piece, but is more compact and features a special permanent base to protect the unit from customer traffic wear and tear.

The albums which are produced by Luther are not merchandised as a part of the Tale Spinner Series, but rather are a part of the regular UA catalog line.

Fabor Sets New Ned Miller LP, Single

NEW YORK — Fabor Records is currently preparing an album release by Ned Miller, who's making big country-pop with his disking of "From a Jack to a King." A new single is due within two weeks, says topper Fabor Robinson.

LIBERTY TO OPEN OWN N.Y. BRANCH

NEW YORK — Liberty Records expects to have its own New York branch setup in operation by Mar. 1, Cash Box has learned.

Move, which will see an amicable parting with Malverne Dist., the label's current distrib in Gotham, was decided upon, a Liberty exec noted, because the label felt it needed its own outlet in a city that's the "showcase for the entire entertainment world." General expansion of the diskery also called for it, it was explained.

The label is currently negotiating for space from which the branch will operate. Personnel to man the branch has not been selected yet, but a number of possible choices are being interviewd.

Liberty's initial wholly-owned branch made its debut in Chicago last year.

Avnet Declares Regular Quarterly Dividend

LOS ANGELES—The board of directors of Avnet Electronics Corp., parent company of Liberty Records, met here last week (15) and declared a regular quarterly dividend of 10¢ a share on common stock, payable Feb. 18 to shareholders of record as of Jan. 26.

Meet marked the first gathering of the board in the city where two of the firm's principal subsids, Liberty & Hamilton Electro, are located.

Lester Avnet, president, also announced that the Board of Directors had approved Avnet's acquisition of working control of Production Technologies, Inc., Jamaica, N.Y. (a privately owned company) by purchasing 50% of its stock and an option to acquire the remaining shares for an undisclosed amount of cash.

Production Technologies, Anvet said, owns a patented method which substantially reduces the manufacturing time for making stamping, cutting and piercing dies for sheet metal. He emphasized that the acquisition of the Production Technologies die stamping process "complements the Avnet-Shaw Process which is being used so effectively for die sinking work in the production of forging dies, die-casting dies, plastic molds, glass molds and extrusion dies. As a result, Avnet can now license manufacturers and die shops with processes which will enable them to produce a wide variety of the die sinking and stamping tools needed by American industry. These processes are uniquely efficient, low in cost and substantially reduce load time."

Production Technologies, Inc., will be operated as an affiliate of Avnet-Shaw Corporation and issue its own licenses. It is moving its plant to Avnet-Shaw headquarters at Plainview, L. I., New York.

Tony Martin Joins Horne, Grant On Charter

HOLLYWOOD—Dick Pierce's new Charter label has inked its third established singer in a period of two weeks—vet vocalist Tony Martin.

Martin, last heard on Dot Records, is set to begin cutting his first album for the label this week.

Label's two other pactees are Lena Horne and Gogi Grant. Latter lark will bow the label on the market with a single tagged "Joanie's Shadow" and "Here Comes Heartaches." Lena Horne is scheduled to record her first album by Feb. 15.

Pick of the Week

"ALICE IN WONDERLAND" (2:30) [Aldon BMI—Sedaka, Greenfield]
"CIRCULATE" (2:41) [Aldon BMI—Sedaka, Greenfield]

NEIL SEDAKA (RCA Victor 8137)

Sedaka's long chain of hits should soon see the addition of a powerful sales link in "Alice In Wonderland." Side's an extremely pretty, multi-tracked cha cha beat romancer that Neil and the Alan Lorber ork-chorus put across with telling effect. The refreshing swinger, "Circulate," can also land a heavy share of the airplay.

"WHAT DOES A GIRL DO" (2:16) [Ametrop BMI—Hoffman, Klein]
"HOW CAN I TELL HIM?" (1:57) [Ametrop BMI—Mure]

MARCIE BLANE (Seville 123)

The teenage lark can have back-to-back smashes in this follow-up to "Bobby's Girl." Side's a bright, bouncy romantic twist'er, labeled "What Does A Girl Do," that Marcie and the Billy Mure knock out in ultra-commercial fashion. Should zoom up the hit ladder in no time flat. However, dont overlook the captivating, folk-styled weeper lilter, "How Can I Tell Him."

"LET'S TURKEY TROT" (2:30) [Aldon BMI—Goffin, King]
"DOWN HOME" (2:59) [Aldon BMI—Goffin, Keller]

LITTLE EVA (Dimension 1006)

Little Eva's a cinch to have her third-smash-in-a-row with this follow up to "Loco-Motion" and "Keep Your Hands Off My Baby." This one, tagged "Let's Turkey Trot," should start the kids off on another dance craze-as the tag implies. Sparkling choral and instrumental showcase on a lid that can go all the way. Easy-goin' sentimental coupler's from her 'Locomotion" LP bow.

"GLOBETROTTIN'" (2:40) [Leeds ASCAP—Meek]
"LIKE LOCOMOTION" (2:08) [Ivy Ltd. ASCAP—Lawrence]
THE TORNADOES (London 9579)

"RIDIN' THE WIND" (2:42) [Ivy Ltd. ASCAP—Bellamy]
"THE BREEZE AND I" (2:13)
[E. B. Marks BMI—Lecuona, Camarata, Stillman]

THE TORNADOES (London 9581)

The Tornadoes, who are still in a sales-orbit with their "Telstar" chart-topper, are the subject of a simultaneous singles release this release. Side's to watch "Globetrottin'," an up tempo delighter with an ear-arresting melody (from the "Telstar" school) and sans lyric choral chants, and "Ridin' The Wind," a fast moving entry with another fascinating melody. Former stand couples a catchy teen beat, loco-motion-styled ditty with some lyrics along the way while the latter pairs up with a high-speed version of the great oldie. The "Wind"—"Breeze" duo was culled from their "Telstar" LP bow-due to deejay-distrib demand.

"BUTTERFLY BABY" (2:15) [Kalmann ASCAP—Mann, Appell]
"LOVE IS BLIND" (2:32) [Bojaf BMI—Sheldon, Leon]

BOBBY RYDELL (Cameo 242)

Rydell, whose most recent Cameo offering, "The Cha Cha Cha," made big chart news, should easily add another pair of chart triumphs to his large collection. One end's a jumpin', mashed potatoes delighter tabbed "Butterfly Baby," while the other's a soft beat cha cha charmer labeled "Love Is Blind." Grade "A" vocal and instrumental support rounds out both winners.

"IN DREAMS" (2:46) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison]
"SHAHDAROBA" (2:33) [Combine BMI—Walker]

ROY ORBISON (Monument 806)

Orbison, who has a solid hit way with the two-siders, comes up with another pairing that has the hit ingredients notched into every groove. One end is a lovely, Joe Tanner ork-choral supported cha cha beat opus tagged "In Dreams." The other is a haunting, Near East-flavored affair, labeled "Shahdaroba"—which means the future's much better than the past. Bob Moore takes ork-choral credits here. It's a toss-up.

"I REALLY DON'T WANT TO KNOW" [Hill & Range BMI—Robertson, Barnes]
"AM I THAT EASY TO FORGET" [Four Star Sales BMI—Belew, Stevenson]

"LITTLE ESTHER" PHILLIPS (Lenox 5560)

The lark, whose 'big break' finally came with her superb revival of the country oldie, "Release Me," can have a double-barreled follow-up here. Both the up tempo shuffler, "I Really Don't Want To Know," and the lazy beat-ballad "Am I That Easy To Forget," country oldies that Esther and the Cliff Parman ork-chorus up-date in stellar style.

LITTLE JOE (Reprise 20,142)

(B+) "PEANUTS" (2:22) [Cranford BMI—Cook] Little Joe & The Thrillers have made a new version of the years-back novelty hit on the Epic label. Sounds here are capable of attracting lots of teen attention. Tune can make the chart rounds once again.

(B) "NO, NO, I CAN'T STOP" (2:02) [J. Little/Chapter BMI—Cook] Happy gospel-type blueser.

BILLY DUKE (Capitol 4907)

(B+) "MILLIONAIRE" (2:17) [Ludix BMI—McCoy, Dixon] Songster deftly offers the teen trade a rhythmic item about a guy who feels he would be a millionaire if he had a dime for all the times he misses his loved-one. Highlighting the ork setting are original brass remarks. Reliable teen fare.

(B+) "GOODBYE STRANGER" (2:06) [Trio BMI—Glick, McCoy] Beltin' rock stuff from the songster and his setting companionship.

NAPPY BROWN (Savoy 1616)

(B+) "DIDN'T YOU KNOW" [Savoy BMI—Mendelsohn, Herman] Nappy Brown displays a commercial wind-range vocal delivery on this extremely slow-moving blues lament with some effective soul-based overtones. A nice showing.

(B) "I'VE HAD MY FUN" [Savoy BMI—Brown] Raunchy, low-down blueser sold with plenty of authority by Brown.

VARETTA (Brent 7040)

(B+) "FLY BY NIGHT" (2:26) [Brent BMI—Bernstein, McCoy] Backed by a good pounding beat, lark hands-in a polished upbeat blues warble that tells the story of a fly-by-night romance. Kids will get the rock-blues picture.

(B) "BREAKING HEARTS" (2:25) [Brent BMI—Dillard, Thomas] Format here is much the same.

JOHHNY CARL (Nelber 101)

(B+) "LET'S GO" (2:25) [Gorjay & Exchange BMI—Epay, Evans] Solid twist-time romp from the vocalist and his combo-chorus friends. The New York-based label has come-up with a take well-worth hoptime spins.

(B) "THE WRONG GAL" (2:14) [Gorjay & Exchange BMI—Epay, Evans] More rock beltin' that merits teen attention.

CLIFF PARMAN (Lenox 5559)

(B+) "RUMORS" [Aldon BMI—Greenfield, Miller] The Cliff Parman ork-chorus serves up two most appealing versions of recent teen hits. This one's the tantalizing, cha cha beat winner for Johnny Crawford.

(B+) "LEAH" [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison] On this end it's the moving Roy Orbison triumph done in a "Quiet Village"-like setting. Great change-of-pace programming on both ends.

IKE CLANTON (Mercury 72084)

(B+) "JUDY'S IN LOVE" (2:02) [Gleam ASCAP — Ram] Charming love-found theme is very pleasantly handled by the songster and his fine back-up sound, which consists of a brisk combo-femme chorus affair. Worth eyeing.

(B) "ADORABLE" (2:40) [Panther ASCAP—Ram] Here's a teen-market oldie that merits this inviting revival.

VALJEAN (Carlton 586)

(B+) "HUNGARIAN HASH" (1:56) [David Jones BMI—Jones] Familiar melody from Brahms' Hungarian Rhapsody is the vehicle for this rockin' date by the pianist and his back-up sound. Might catch-on.

(B) "FOR THE BIRDS" (1:55) [David Jones BMI—Jones] Much the same go for Mendellsohn's "Spring Song." Both tracks stem from an LP of teen-market treatments of long-hair melodies.

KIP WALTON (Glad-Hamp 2014)

(B+) "GIN & TONIC" (1:55) [Glad-Hamp ASCAP — Walton] Breezy combo swinger with ivory artist Walton heading the show with jazz finesse. Hip jocks will take to the deck's sunny nature.

(B) "BYE BYE BLUES" (2:21) [Bourne ASCAP—Hamm, Bennett, Lown, Gray] Busy Bossa Nova reading of the durable.

GIA MAIONE (Capitol 4906)

(B+) "SUNDAY LOVER" (1:56) [Roosevelt BMI—Rogers, Farrell, Colacral] Louis Prima's new lead vocalist heads a bright calypso date, with Prima, Sam Butera and The Witnesses providing the colorful (with strings) setting. Catchy side that could have a chart ride.

(B) "LITTLE GIRL BLUES" (2:48) [Roosevelt BMI—Elgin, Rogers, Farrell, Singleton] Teen listeners are also sought for this pretty wistful portion.

JAY & TOMMY SCOTT (Fidelity 4060)

(B+) "ANGELA" (2:25) [Poser BMI—J & T Scott] Teeners will be touched by this tender name-song blend by the vocal duo. Merits teen-time spins. Label which works out of Wichita Falls, Texas, leased the master from England's London-Decca.

(B) "DID YOU" (1:52) [Poser BMI—J & T Scott] Boys offer a brighter ballad blend here.

EDDIE HOLLAND (Motown 1036)

(B+) "DARLING I HUM OUR SONG" (2:42) [Jobete BMI—Holland, Dozier] Holland delivers a good blues romantic much in the manner of Sam Cooke. He's backed by a persuasive keyboard-led combo stand.

(B+) "JUST A FEW MORE DAYS" (2:21) [Jobete BMI—Holland] This cut displays the performer on the upbeat.

THE CHALLENGERS (Vault 900)

(B+) "TORQUAY" (2:29) [Dundee BMI—Tomsco] The years-back rock instrumental hit is still exciting teen fare as portrayed by the strong combo attraction. Could be a click revival of the number for the Los Angeles-based label.

(B) "BULLDOG" (1:15) [Dundee BMI—Tomsco] Somewhat similar-sounding chore.

GAR FINN (Assault 1853)

(B) "TAKE ME TO HEAVEN" (2:25) [NT BMI—Gallo] Off-beat stint whereby Finn offers a sentimental narrative against an attractive string and softly chanting male chorus setting. Diskery is a New York outfit.

(B) "LONESOME" (2:30) [NT BMI—Johnson, Gallo] Dramatic singing expression from Finn, who is backed by a feelingful teen sound from the musicians and chorus.

Pick of the Week

"SAVE ME, BABY" (2:10) [Kalmann ASCAP—Mann, Appell]
"YOU CAN'T RUN AWAY FROM YOURSELF" (2:20)
[Woodcrest BMI—Borisoff, Gross]
THE DOVELLS (Parkway 861)

"Save Me, Baby" is a good bet to give the Dovells their next big chart-rider. The handclapping romantic pleader's from the stomp dept. and it's loaded with those teen-appealing vocal and instrumental tricks. The feelingful flipdeck, "You Can't Run Away From Yourself," is from the cha cha-hully gully category.

"WHY DO LOVERS BREAK EACH OTHER'S HEART?" (2:30)
[January BMI—Spector, Greenwich, Powers]
"DR. KAPLAN'S OFFICE" (2:08) [Mother Bertha BMI—Spector]
BOB B. SOXX & BLUE JEANS (Philles 110)

This should be hit #2 for Bob B. Soxx & the Blue Jeans, who made the Top 10 grade with their infectious up-dating of "Zip-A-Dee-Do-Dah." The crew's latest Philles deck is a newcomer, tabbed "Why Do Lovers Break Each Other's Heart?" that moves along at dandy jump tempo. Also eye the rousing, all-instrumental rhythm coupler. It could sneak thru.

"MEDITATION (MEDITACAO)" (2:40)
[Duchess BMI—Jobin, Mendonca, Gimbel]
"DAYS OF WINE AND ROSES" (2:37)
[M. Witmark & Sons ASCAP—Mercer, Mancini]
PAT BOONE (Dot 16439)

"MEDITATION (MEDITACAO)" (2:39)
[Duchess BMI—Jobin, Mendonca]
"RELEASE ME" (2:26) [4 Star BMI—Miller, Williams, Yount]
BILLY VAUGHN (Dot 16436)

Two of Dot's top guns, Pat Boone and Billy Vaughn, hop on "Meditation (Meditacao)," Charlie Byrd's bossa nova instrumental that's starting to make noise and it looks like a 3-way battle for chart honors. Both Boone's English lyric and Vaughn's ork versions are most attractive performances. Backing of Pat's deck is an ear-pleasing, oh-so-smooth performance of the Johnny Mercer-Henry Mancini flick theme, "Days Of Wine And Roses," while Vaughn has a fine ork and choral cover of the Little Esther smash revival, "Release Me."

"HI-LILI, HI-LO" (2:35) [Robbins ASCAP—Kaper, Deutsch]
"ALL I HAVE TO DO IS DREAM" (2:27) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant]
RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN (MGM 13121)

TV's "Dr. Kildare" sang the lovely waltzer, "Hi Lili, Hi-Lo," from the old flick "Lili," on one of his recent shows, and his reading of the opus on disk should prove his third successive Top 100 stand (the others were the show's TV theme and "Love Me Tender"). Flip is the years-back Everly Bros. hit. Both tracks stem from his debut LP, "Richard Chamberlain Sings."

"LITTLE THINGS" (2:26)
[Tree BMI—Riley, Singleton]

"MR. BLUES (FOUND A HOME WITH ME)"
[Saturday, Bit O' Honey BMI—Crewe, Bass]

DAMITA JO (Mercury 72086)

This looks (and sounds) like the lark's strongest outing in the past few releases. It's a powerful double-header that couples a heartfelt, beat-ballad romancer. "Little Things," with a sensational, "Stagger Lee"-like driver, tagged "Mr. Blues." Top calibre Jerry Kennedy ork and Merry Melody Singers support for Damita's outstanding styling. Take your pick here. Both ends have the goods.

"DON'T LET ME CROSS OVER" (2:37)
[Troy Martin BMI—Jay]

"RAIN FROM THE SKIES" (2:45)
[Colpix ASCAP—Bacharach, David]

ADAM WADE (Epic 9566)

Wade can have a double-header in his new Epic stand. On one end he turns in a potent pop cover of the Carl Butler #1 country item, "Don't Let Me Cross Over." Side's a heartbreaking waltzer that Adam and the Alan Lorber-led sing-a-long chorus wax with loads of feeling. The other side is a tearful, cha cha beat romancer, tagged "Rain From The Skies," that sports a fine Burt Bacharach instrumental showcase. Either end, or both, can make the grade.

Both Faron Young's Mercury bow, "The Yellow Bandana," and Ferlin Husky's Capitol newie "You Hurt Me," look like pop-country powerhouses. See country reviews.

THE ARABIAN KNIGHTS
(Colpix 674)

(B+) "THE VOICE OF THE GUNS —Part 1" (2:20) [Boosey & Hawkes ASCAP—Alford] The instrumental outfit comes through with a properly colorful reading of a lusty march opus from the acclaimed flick "Lawrence of Arabia." Marching band enthusiasts have a winning side.

(B+) "THE VOICE OF THE GUNS —Part 2" (2:20) [Boosey & Hawkes ASCAP—Alford] Exciting sound is continued here, with some references made to the flick's main-title.

BERT CONROY & THE MISFITS
(Deb-Co 1000)

(B) "DEBBIE" (2:48) [Swartz BMI—Conroy] Conroy and his chanting fellow warblers pay tribute to gal named Debbie in this nice easy-go teen affectionate. Label is a Jersey City, N. J. outfit.

(C) "THAT OLD GANG OF MINE (Wedding Bells)" (1:56) [Pytyoc ASCAP—Kahal, Raskin, Fain] Twistin' format for the oldie.

ANN KIRK (Dot 16430)

(B+) "TELL ME, TELL ME" (2:15) [Plaza BMI—Venson, Allen] Good speedy blueser about a gal who lost her guy, who is now walking-down-the aisle to marry another. Lots of effective rock excitement.

(B) "IT KINDA PICKS ME UP" (2:32) [Talmont BMI—Montgomery] This milder sound is also a good effort. With this storyline a gal hears that her love who went astray has gotten the gate from his new flame.

DARWIN (Dore 659)

(B) "THERE OUGHTA BE A DANCE" (2:20) [Meadowlark ASCAP—Lamm, Hunter] A bright rock attack in which a guy wishes for a teen dance that will enable couples to hold each other. With this sound, of course, the guy must still hope for such a dance.

(B) "SHE KNOWS" (2:12) [Meadowlark ASCAP — O'Neil, Fazio] Nice medium-beat rock-a-cha about a fella who's in love with a gal who is not being treated kindly by her present boyfriend.

CHRIS CROSBY
(Warner Bros. 5338)

(B+) "SOMEDAY AFTER FOREVER" (2:28) [Duches BMI —Knight] Crosby, with an easy-going Dean Martin-like pose, nicely handles an attractive country-styled plaintive. Pretty ork backing in the Nashville manner.

(B) "SOMETHING SPECIAL" (2:08) [Duchess BMI—Knight] Snappy rock item about happier romantic circumstances.

PAT HERVEY (RCA Victor 8135)

(B+) "TEARS OF MISERY" (2:09) [Sea-Lark BMI—Rose] Teen opus with lots of built-in teen know-how is presented with a pro multi-tracked delivery from the thrush. Also hip to teen sounds is the bright ork-chorus display. Can get around.

(B) "BROTHER, CAN YOU SPARE A DIME" (2:28) [Harms ASCAP-Harburg, Gorney] Moving vocal on the great Depression song.

ELMER BERNSTEIN ORCH.
(Ava 113)

(B+) "(Love Song from) MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY (Follow Me)" (2:17 [Miller ASCAP—Kaper, Webster] Conductor-cleffer Bernstein directs a lush reading of the oft-cut flock theme, with a strong bolero sound heard throughout. Interesting version of the theme.

(B) "(Theme from) GIRL NAMED TAMIKO" (2:18) [Famous ASCAP—Bernstein] Bernstein's own main-title gets a concerto-like rendition.

ALLEN & ROSSI
(ABC-Paramount 10393)

(B) "HELLO DERE" (1:46) [Francon ASCAP — Davis, Murry] Popular cleff team's trademark expression is used as the basis for a happy ditty. They're backed by a sunny, rock-inclined combo. Good for those wake-up programming segments.

(B) "LITTLE SIR ECHO" (2:25) [B.V.C. ASCAP — Smith, Fearis, Girard, Marsala] The "Hello Dere" tag is also employed in this rockin' treatment of the oldie.

CHARLIE FLENER
(Tempwood 1040)

(B+) "SO IN LOVE WITH HIM" (2:05) [Painted Desert BMI—Kilgore] Although the theme, as the title indicates, isn't a happy one, date is bright and infectious. The warbler and the Jay-Gee Records'-handled label could have a chart success here.

(B) "KEEP AWAY FROM CINDY" (2:30) [De La Vee BMI—Flener] Snappy stint about a gal who's not to be trusted if you're thinking of a lasting relationship.

CHUCK GALLEGOS &
THE FABULOUS CYCLONES
(C.B.G. 104)

(B) "LITTLE BOSSA NOVA" (1:30) [Gallegos ASCAP—Gallegos] Cute-sounding Bossa Nova-rock reading by the sax-led instrumental outfit. Worth airtime. Diskery is located in Hollywood.

(C+) "I'VE FOUND THE GIRL I LOVE" (2:20) [Gallegos ASCAP—Gallegos] This end includes a light-beat vocal.

DON GANT (Colpix 675)

(B) "HELLO MRS. BROWN" (2:42) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant, Bryant] Gant has a proper wistful manner as he essays a story-line about a guy who calls the home of his girl friend after a tiff with her. Kids will appreciate the tenderness here.

(B) "ONLY ON WEEKENDS" (2:30) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant, Bryant] Likeable ditty is nicely presented by the performer.

WINK MARTINDALE (Dot 16435)

(B+) "VISION AT THE PEACE TABLE" (2:41) [Sure-Fire BMI—Ripley] Performer, remembered for his "Deck of Cards" narrative, offers another religious spoken-word item. This one concerns the world's attempt to negotiate a lasting peace and the need for religion to be at the conference table. A Nashville-type combo sound supports.

(B) "I SAW ME" (2:58) [Glad & Mixer BMI—Davis, Jones] Here, Martindale sings a plaintive Nashville sounding number.

"I WANT TO DO IT" (2:02)
[Roosevelt BMI—Goldstein, Feldman, Gottehrer]
BOBBY COMSTOCK (Lawn 202)

Comstock, who's had previous chart experience, can cash in with his top money-maker via this bow on the Lawn label—which is nationally distributed by Swan. Side, already moving out in the sales dept., is a "What'd I Say"-styled handclapping sizzler. The thumpin' "I Want To Do It" also has a solid chart outlook.

"I'LL MAKE IT ALRIGHT" (2:10) [Kags BMI—Womack]
"DARLING, COME HOME BACK" (2:26) [Kags BMI—Womack]
THE VALENTINOS (Sar 137)

This looks like another chart-maker for the Valentinos (The Lovers) who scored in both the pop and r&b marts with "Looking For A Love." Side's an exciting gospel-flavored twist'er, tabbed "I'll Make It Alright," that sports a terrific Rene Hall arrangement. Artists smoothly shuffle thru a feelingful rock-a-cha-cha ballad on the flip.

"LOOKOUT CHATTANOOGA" [Cedarwood BMI—Wilkin, Burch]
"AFTER MY LAUGHTER CAME TEARS" (2:41) [Cromwell ASCAP—Turk, Tobias]

The newcomer's a bright bouncer while the evergreen, "After The Laughter Came Tears," takes a warm, slow beat-ballad ride. Top notch ork-choral support on both lids.

Pick of the Week
Newcomers

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"WHITE LEVIS" (2:12) [House Of Fortune BMI—Page, Matola]
"PLEASE COME BACK" (2:06) [House Of Fortune BMI—S. & R. Page]
THE MAJORETTES (Troy 1000)

The Hollywood-based Troy label has been kicking up loads of attention with this one that bows the Majorettes. It's a delectable rock-a-cha-cha-like stomp'er, dubbed "White Levis (Tennis Shoes-Surfin' Hat And Big Plain Pendleton Shirt)," that the crew spins in happy-go-lucky fashion. A sure-fire entry. Coupler's a pretty, soft Latin beat lilter.

"I BELIEVE" (2:19) [Cromwell, Graham, Shirl, Stillman]
"WITHOUT YOU" (2:20) [House Of Fortune BMI—Page, Motola]
DICK STEWART (Ava 117)

It's the years-back inspirational triumph, "I Believe," that the chorus-backed San Francisco platter spinner Dick Stewart delivers with telling effect. Side's already breaking on the west coast. The tearful coupler takes an appealing cha cha beat ride.

"BECAUSE OF YOU" (2:10) [Gower BMI—Hammerstein, Wilkinson]
"LITTLE GIRL" (2:25) [Cousins BMI—Trancynger, Dreamers]
THE DREAMERS (May 133)

The Dreamers can have a wide-awake hit on their vocal hands as they bow on the Colpix affiliate with a sock, teen beat up-dating of the years-back Tony Bennett success, "Because Of You." Tune, this time, takes a thumpin' twist beat ride with "Blue Moon"-type gimmicks along the way. Complete change-of-pace on the pretty beat-ballad undercut.

"TWINKLE TWINKLE LITTLE STAR" (1:56)
[Central Songs BMI—Howard]
"FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE" (2:42)
[Moss Rose BMI—Anderson, Carpenter]
JIMMY JAY (Philips 40087)

Jimmy Jay and his backing do a nifty up-beat Nashville-styled job on a tune, "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star," that has the pop-country chart goods. There's a real attention-getting sound in the tale that of a gal, who seemingly forgot her flame when she went on to Hollywood stardom. Coupler's another sad story and the sound reflects a romance that didn't work out.

THE CALS (Loadstone 1500)

(B+) "COUNTRY GAL" (2:25) [Loadstone BMI—Stone, Allair] Lively rockin' blueser about a guy who declares that he took his gal out of the country, but he can't get the country out of the gal. JACKIE JOHNSON (Tulane 107)

JOHNNY NASH (Warner Bros. 5336)

● "CIGAREETS, WHUSKY AND WILD, WILD WOMEN" (2:50) [Hill & Range BMI—Spencer] The classic country opus can put Nash back up in Top 100 territory. Stan Applebaum's choral-ork rock-a-waltz setting is top drawer for Johnny's heartfelt performance. Could be a big one.

● "I'M MOVIN' ON" (2:17) [Hill & Range BMI—Snow] This end features a sensational rock-a-twist up-dating of the Hank Snow hit. Either end, or both, can step way out.

THE SENSATIONS (Junior 1005)

● "YOU MADE A FOOL OF ME" (2:23) [Kae Williams BMI—Eady, Baker] The group, featuring Yvonne in the lead, can have another "Let Me In" chartrider in this bow on the Jamie/Guyden affiliate. It's similarly-styled quick beat ditty that they knock out in bright manner.

(B+) "THAT'S WHAT YOU GOTTA DO" (2:14) [Kae Williams BMI—Howell] This end's another solid jump'er that can also step out. Swinging musical assists on both stands.

THE VALADIERS (Gordy 7013)

● "I FOUND A GIRL" (2:39) [Jobete BMI—Paul, Coleman] Fella has finally come-up with a true-love in this strong Latin-rock display from the team's lead, fellow warblers and the combo, which plays a particularly effective part in putting over the portion. Could happen.

(B) "YOU'LL BE SORRY" (2:39) [Jobete BMI—Brianbert, Coleman] Same lead offers a semi-dramatic teen tale about a gal who did a fella wrong. Tune's opening notes seem to be taken from a familiar tune from Greig's "Peer Gynt."

BOBBY DAY (RCA Victor 8133)

● "KNOW IT ALL" (2:19) [Little Darlin' BMI—Cooper] Day, who figured in a big hit some years ago with "Rockin' Robbin" on the Class label, starts his Victor career with a potent handling of an emotional number. Backing his convincing stand is a strong string-included ork-chorus setting. Watch it.

● "ANOTHER COUNTRY, ANOTHER WORLD" (2:30) [Rumbalero BMI—Spector, Pomus] The artist can also go places with this big-sounding romantic. Once more there's a standout back-up sound.

FRANK CHACKSFIELD ORCH. (London 9580)

● "LAWRENCE OF ARABIA" (2:50) [Gower BMI—Jarre] The mystery and grandeur of the big flick's main-title is impressively conveyed by the famed English maestro's large orchestra. It's one of many versions of the tune, and one of the most commanding.

(B) "THE PARAKEETS OF PARAGUAY" (2:38) [Medway ASCAP—Dumont] Vibes help carry the listeners genially to the Latin land. Parakeet sounds are part of the scoring.

THE STARR BROTHERS (Cortland 104)

● "DON JUAN" (1:15) [Venetia BMI—Jenkins] The Chi based label can have a dual-mart, pop-r&b biggie with this enticing, hip-swinging beat-ballad romancer served up by the Starr Brothers. Catchy vocal play should make the platter spinners and teeners sit up and take notice. Potent Ted Sieber arrangement.

(B) "DOWN ON MY KNEES" (2:12) [Venetia BMI—Colbert] Intriguing, Latin beat, string-filled weeper also rates attention.

GAYLE HARRIS (Carlton 584)

● "HERE COME THE HURT" (2:18) [Pambill & Odin ASCAP—St. John] Distinctive,, unhurried display of a haunting romantic by the lark and her string-filled ork-chorus backing. Youngsters will be moved by the proceedings, and, with enough exposure, side could land a Top 100 berth.

(B) "DON'T YOU LOVE ME NO MORE" (2:00) [Pambill & Odin ASCAP—St. John] Pretty number is invitingly essayed by the performer.

JIMMY ELLEDGE (RCA Victor 8136)

● "I MISS YOU ALREADY" (2:28) [Tree BMI — Rainwater, Young] An awhile-back country click by Faron Young with lots of all-market appeal gets a fine pop go from the songster and his first-rate full ork-chorus backing. Side can score.

(B) "YOU CAN HAVE HER" (1:53) [Dickbilly BMI—Cook] Roy Hamilton made the charts in a big way with this item sometime ago, This new reading is done in a similar, infectious manner as the original Hamilton disking.

BOB BROOKMEYER (Verve 10282)

● "MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY" (2:02) [Miller ASCAP—Kaper] This is a winning Bossa Nova treatment of the lovely flick title song. Besides Brookmeyer's deft trombone work, there's fine comments from vibes. Also effective is a now-and-then back-lash sound. Side, from an LP called "Trombone Jazz Samba," should be eyed.

(B) "A FELICIDADE" (3:12) [Jungnickel (Ross) ASCAP—Jobim] Smooth BN sound for a pretty tune. Also from the LP.

NICK NOBLE (Liberty 55534)

● "CLOSER TO HEAVEN" (2:06) [Knollwood ASCAP—Wayne, Edwards] The vocalist, who recently made chart noise with an item called "Hello Out There," and his backdrop sound—a full ork-chorus affair—offer an inspirational-like tribute to a guy's dream gal. Can pick-up important coin.

(B) "(I'd be) A LEGEND IN MY TIME" (2:06) [Acuff—Rose BMI—Gibson] Artist and his accompaniment move to the Nashville-sound area.

Best Bets

RONNIE & HI-LITES (Raven 8000)

● "VALARIE" (2:27) [Fast BMI—Starlites] Name-song is done with teen understanding by the lead voice, who is accompanied by an effectively busy stint by his fellow warblers and musicians. Kids will find the sound familiar, but commanding. Label is part of the Blast Records set-up in New York.

(B) "THE FACT OF THE MATTER" (:230) [Jidana ASCAP—Weiss] Boys offer an infectious item.

AMOS MILBURN, JR (Shalimar 105)

● "GLORIA" (2:07) [LeBill BMI—Milburn] The vet blues performer has a good chance of grabbing some quick loot with this interesting, hand-clappin' chorus affair with some contagious, danceable gospel chords. Arlen distributes the deck nationally.

(B) "LOOK AT A FOOL" (2:32) [LeBill BMI—Darch] This time out the songster dishes up a slow-shufflin' tradition-oriented r&b lament.

DR FEELGOOD AND THE INTERNS (Okeh 7167)

● "BALD-HEADED LENA" (2:12) [Cigma BMI—Perryman, Sneed] Dr. Feelgood and crew could have one of their biggest stands in quite a while with this rousing, catchy funky blueser with a contagious teen-oriented riff. Side seems a natural to score with the spinners.

● "MY GAL JO" (1:56) [Cramart BMI—Perryman] More fine blues sound. On this end the gang offers a medium-paced rhythmic affair in a traditional r&b vein.

THE MAR-KEYS (Stax 133)

● "BO-TIME" (2:40) [East BMI—Cropper] The instrumentalists come thru with another one of their earthy blues stands that could ring up a "Last Night" sale. This one's a slow bouncer with an intriguing repeating riff.

(B+) "THE DRIBBLE" (2:20) [East BMI—Cropper, Axton, Collins, Grimes] There are jazz overtones to this exciting, fast-moving session. Watch it too.

THE FRENCHMEN (Liberty 55535)

(B) "SOUR GRAPES" (2:04) [Metric BMI—Gates] Organ bounce is the big rock-sound factor here.

FRANKIE YANKOVIC (Columbia 42680)

(B) "THE OLD FAMILY ALBUM (2:07) [Leeds ASCAP—Altschuler, Mersey] Another sunny polka portion.

HERBIE MANN (Atlantic 5026)

● "IT MUST BE LOVE-BOSSA NOVA" (2:25) [de Moraes] Ace pop-jazz flutist Herbie Mann seems sure to make some noise with this happy, free-flowing, authentic bossa nova stanza. The side culled from Mann's new Atlantic LP. Plenty of airplay potential here.

ROLF HARRIS (Epic 9567)

● "SUN ARISE" (2:22) [Ardmore ASCAP — Harris, Butler] Striking folk hammer-song is doing chart business in Australia and England, and could continue its winning ways in the U.S. With the success of "Walk Right In," the catchy folk smash, this cut could come-through in a big way.

HARMONICA FATS (Darcey 5000)

● "TORE UP" (2:34) [Lois BMI—Ballard] The new Hollywood] based label can get off the ground in solid sales style with this dual-mart, pop-r&b deck that bows the enticing, gravely-voice style of Harmonica Fats. Pulsating, steady driving shuffle rhythm affair with a 'one more time' closer. Can bust thru.

(B) "I GET SO TIRED" (2:19) [House Of Sound, Bilya-Bah BMI—Blackstone] More up tempo stuff on this rhythm & blueser.

THT PYRAMIDS (Best 13001)

● "PYRAMID'S STOMP" (2:05) [Dorothy ASCAP — Mercier] Solid hot rock stuff is dished out by the instrumental crew, which has an exciting guitar section. Also a teen attention-getter is the percussionist's work. Romp is on a label that's a member of the London Group. Could score.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Rooftop Singers

The Rooftop Singers, who are currently riding the Top 100 in the #2 slot with "Walk Right In" on Vanguard, consist of Erik Darling, Lynne Taylor and Bill Svanoe.

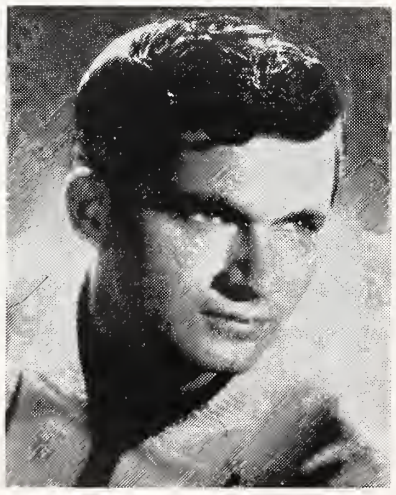
Darling, no newcomer to the folk trade, balladeer, guitarist and banjoist, is equally well-known as member and organizer of several popular folk-singing groups. In 1956 he organized a quartet which was later transformed into the Tarriers. Darling also served a stint with the Weavers.

Lynne Taylor has appeared extensively as a vocalist in leading Miami Beach and New York clubs (Blue Angel, Versailles and 28 straight weeks at the Village Vanguard, to name just a few). She was with the Benny Goodman band for one year and has been featured on top radio and TV programs.

Bill Svanoe, a graduate of Oberlin College and the University of Minnesota, has been playing the guitar for seven years and has worked and sung his way across the U.S. and Europe.

The group's first album, tagged after the single, was released last week.

Dick Dale



Dick Dale and his band the Del-Tones are presently one of the hottest and most popular bands on the west coast. Dale's versatility in playing many instruments and professional singing style has made him an important new artist.

For two solid years Dale has been packing in over 4,000 teenagers nightly at one of the largest ballrooms in southern California. He is still a big favorite on the California ballroom circuit.

Dick is currently riding the Top 100 with "Peppermint Man" (#91 on this week's chart) on Del-Tone and is making noise with another release tagged "Misirlou." He also has an album out in "Surfer's Choice."

The artist and his band were recently inked to a movie contract with Bengal International Pictures. His first flick, "A Swinging Affair," will be released in February.

Cash Box PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

WXYZ-Detroit listeners will be given an opportunity to spread sunshine while trying to win an all-expense—paid Florida vacation for two. The station will ask its listeners to predict the total number of hours of sunshine for the Detroit area between January 14 and February 16. The contest period coincides with a five-week advertising campaign for the Sunshine Biscuit Co. Grand prize for the person whose entry comes closest to predicting the actual number of hours of Sunshine as verified by the U.S. Weather Bureau, will be an all-expense-paid week's vacation in Florida. Runnerup prizes will be a portable stereophonic record player and free tickets to first-run motion pictures at downtown theatres . . . . Dick Osgood whose beat on WXYZ is the world of entertainment is on a one-man tour of the area's 14 different new idea homes. Osgood will visit each new sample home and comment on its features and modern living conveniences. His comments will be recorded from the telephone and broadcast on the outlet throughout the weekend.

Lin Renfrew of the Armed Forces Radio in New York interviewed Henry Mancini last week and was told by the famous cleffer-maestro that his Victor disking of "Days Of Wine And Roses," from the flick of the same name, has sold more copies in its first two weeks than his smash, "Moon River," did in a similar period. Lin wanted to know if Mancini planned to cut bossa nova dates. Mancini's response was that he preferred leaving the bassa nova sound to jazz artists for the time being. He added his hopes of seeing jazz performers making the bossa nova a big pop success. With the bossa nova established in the pop field, Mancini felt it was then appropriate for him to cite bossa nova material.

Ken Gaughran, deejay-program director on WWCO-Waterbury, Connecticut has been appointed to a 3-year term on the Miss Connecticut Management Committee and made an officer of the group. He has been associated with preliminary Miss America Pageants since 1959.

WCAO-Baltimore recently scored a major public service triumph. Listeners sent one million trading stamps to the outlet in five week's time. The campaign was conducted in co-operation with the Salvation Army. Listeners were asked to send any and all trading stamps to the station to be donated to the local Salvation Army. The stamps would provide necessities for needy children. The campaign brought over a million trading stamps to WCAO and the Salvation Army, thus providing a year around service to the people of Maryland.

WLOL-Minneapolis program director Dan Allan has been named a regional chairman for the National Brotherhood Week Radio Committee. Dan will coordinate radio activities for Brotherhood Week, February 17-23, in Minnesota and both Dakotas.

Jack Sharp, program director of KFJZ-Fort Worth, reports news of an interesting school spirit contest which the station just completed. To win, schools had to submit the most signatures on petitions to the outlet. The winning school turned in 856,000 signatures. KFJZ will toss the school a free record hop on January 25 featuring Claude King, Dickie Lee, Jill and Ray, plus ten other artists. The contest also set a world's record for the longest petition ever submitted . . . . a continuous paper roll 39 feet long containing the names of the entire student body of L. D. Bell High School. The more than 500 pounds of paper turned in was sent to the Salvation Army.

WINS-New York's October-November-December 1962 billings were the highest in the history of the station. According to Arthur Harrison, sales manager, the station exceeded billings of previous fourth quarters, even before additional business, resulting from the newspaper strike, was tabulated.

WCOP-Boston sends along word of the successful completion of its Christmas Food Crusade. The station invited listeners to visit its studios with food packages which were later turned over to neighborhood settlements houses and underprivileged families. United Fund volunteers helped to inventory the foods and provided labor and transportation for pickup and delivery. A number of cash donations were received which also were turned over to the United Fund agency.

Bill Jay, president of Texas Associated Press Broadcasters, infos word that KAYC-Beaumont was awarded the January TAPBA Key Station Award, one of Texas broadcasting's most coveted awards, for the best coverage of a single news story during the month. The award was presented to KAYC as a result of what the association citation termed "the tremendous effort on behalf of fellow A.P. stations throughout the state in providing factual, accurate, intelligent and prompt reports with new developments in a local murder trial.

Charlie Van, who spins 'em on KONO-San Antonio, has found one answer to combat the drop-off in the popularity of teen record hops: adult hops. For the past few weeks, Charlie, along with the help of a local operator who furnishes live r&r bands, has been hosting a series hops for oldsters. The spinner sez that the initial response has been nothing short of sensational, with SRO business every night.

The United Nations Ambassador from Uganda recently visited Salt Lake City as a guest of KALL announcer Wil Lucas. Ambassador Apollo K. Kironde accepted Lucas' invitation to participate in America's first hippopotamus banquet which was held at the Hotel Utah. The banquet of hippo meat was attended by state, community leaders and the press. Lucas's hippotamus banquet and his promo of the meat was designed to help the central African nation promote its export trade. Several weeks ago, Uganda announced plans to can hippo meat for export as a part of its effort to stimulate Uganda's economy. Lucas was intrigued by the idea. He immediately launched discussion of hippo meat on his morning radio stanza. Uganda shipped six tins of hippo meat to Lucas and he decided a banquet would be the best way to publicize Uganda's export.

Big Daddy & Team

NASHVILLE—Two's company and three's a team—no one actually ever said that but the above pic taken in Bradley's studio here is good evidence of the above fact. "Big Daddy" Burl Ives (center) is shown placing his arms around Hank Cochran (right) and spinner Audie Ashworth. Cochran wrote Ive's latest Decca noisemaker, "The Same Old Hurt" and Ashworth spins the tune on his evening air stanza on WKDA.

Mercury Handles Junior Achievement Disk

NEW YORK—Mercury Records has picked-up an album master from an off-beat source.

This album, "Session One: The Yeomen," featuring a teenage folk quartet, was entirely produced by 43 school students in Minneapolis, members of the first disk company ever formed by a Junior Achievement group, and was issued by the label last Fri. (18).

Called Hi-Top Recordings, the J-A group originally had its album pressed commercially with their own label for distribution only in Minneapolis. In the six weeks the group has been selling, they have already sold over 5,000 albums in Minneapolis.

Spearheading this sales drive is probably the largest record sales force ever assembled in one city—a total of 180 enthusiastic teenagers.

Impressed by the Hi-Toppers enthusiasm and originality in launching the first teen recording company, Mercury prexy Irving Green and executive VP Irwin Steinberg listened to the album, and decided it merited national exposure. Mercury then picked up its distribution nationally—with the exception of Minneapolis, where the Junior Achievers have exclusive distribution.

Junior Achievement is the national educational organization which sponsors on-the-job experience for high schoolers through the operation of their own group businesses. The Hi-Top company was formed by youngsters interested in the music industry and with their own fresh ideas as to how a record company should function.

The Yeomen are Don Bennet, 16; Keith Critchlow, Bob Finkenaur and Jack Otterness, all 17, who have been singing together for less than two years. With most of their performances at college hops and local coffee houses, The Yeomen last fall answered the first auditions called by Hi-Top. Their strong, driving style with folk songs won the votes of the J-A's on Hi-Top's A & R committee, and the group recorded The Yeomen at "session one." In a full-swing teen team effort, the J-A promo department then mapped out the sales program, placed ads and sought air play from Minneapolis disk jockeys.

Mercury has also entered into a counseling agreement with Hi-Top, with Irving Green, Irwin Steinberg and Lou Reizner serving as advisors to the group in all areas of record merchandising.

The youthful J-A company, whose personnel represents 17 high schools from Minneapolis, was capitalized for $575—probably one of the smallest amounts of capital that ever launched a full-fledged record company.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"JUST TURN ME LOOSE!"—George Maharis—Epic LN 24037
Although TV has produced many wax luminaries few, if any of them, have demonstrated any staying power. George Maharis is a glaring exception to the rule. His albums and singles have all developed into chart items and he seems to get better with each new session. On this Columbia outing the chanter dishes up a warm collection of sturdies in his distinctive, rich, wide-range baritone vocal style. Best listening bets here are "Little Girl," "Alright, Okay, You Win" and "I Wanna Be Loved." Blockbuster sales potential.

"ANOTHER TASTE OF HONEY"—Martin Denny—Liberty LST7277
Here is another first-rate pop-jazz blending by Martin Denny, who is still riding high on the charts with his first "Taste of Honey" LP. The almost overnight success of this LP attests to the public's interest and acceptance of pop music with a pure jazz flavor, particularly the Denny brand. This follow-up album is similarly geared and contains such choice items as "Harlem Nocturne," "Theme From Manchurian Candidate" and "Satin Doll." The disk should quickly go the same success route.

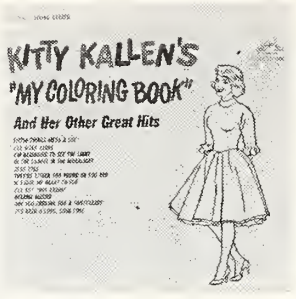
"STEVE LAWRENCE WINNERS!"—Columbia CL 1953
Steve Lawrence, who currently is riding high with his runaway best-selling single of "Go Away Little Girl," unleashes his potent vocal talents full-blast on this delightful album of evergreens. The program includes a varied cross-section of pop music with selections in the jazz, pop, blues and folk categories represented. The chanter turns in standout performances on "Cotton Fields," "Kansas City" and "All The Way." For commercial purposes, the artist's current single is included and spotlighted in the cover. LP should score heavily in the coin department.

"JOSE JIMENEZ OUR SECRET WEAPON"—Bill Dana—Kapp KL 1320
Bill Dana, who had a top-drawer coin-puller with his recent "Jose Jimenez Talks To Teenagers" LP, comes up with another laugh-filled session which seems destined to reach the charts in no time flat. This time Dana effectively satires all aspects of our defense program with an able assist from Don Hinkley. The yocks come fast and furious as Jimenez is cast as a paratrooper, the director of the C. I. A., a general, plus many more. Album could skyrocket.

"WALK RIGHT IN!"—Rooftop Singers—Vanguard VRS 9123
The Rooftop Singers, who are presently riding high with their hot single of "Walk Right In," tag this initial album after the biggie and include twelve other pleasing folk items. The group's distinctive vocal style and musical dexterity carry them in good stead as they offer "Hey, Boys," "Top Cat" and "You Don't Know." Bound to be a strong wax.

"FLY ME TO THE MOON"—Joe Harnell—Kapp KL 1318
Joe Harnell, who is currently pulling plenty of loot with his chart-riding single of "Fly Me To The Moon," cashes in on the success of the single to tag this enchanting album of pop items played in the bossa nova style. The 88'er, with a suitable backing from his ork, turns in superb readings of "Early Autumn," "Cry Me A River" and "Eso Beso." Fine fare for either terpsichorean or listening enjoyment. LP looms as a surefire chart item.

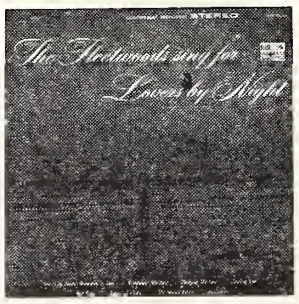
"ALL THE HITS—VOLUME 2"—Various Artists—Parkway P 7016
The first volume of wax hits by the Cameo/Parkway family of artists met with sensational response and this new outing featuring such stars as Chubby Checker, Bobby Rydell, Dee Dee Sharp, the Orlons, the Dovells and Jo Ann Campbell should easily duplicate the success of the initial package. Some top-flight tracks here are Dee Dee Sharp's "Ride," the Orlons with "Don't Hang Up" and Chubby Checker's rendition of "Limbo Rock." Eye the disk for rapid consumer acceptance.



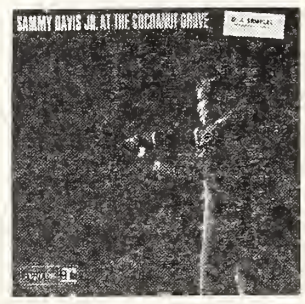
"KITTY KALLEN'S 'MY COLORING BOOK'"—RCA Victor LSP2640
Many of the "greatest hits" and "best of—" albums are not really what they are purported to be, much to the chagrin of the unwary buyer. This is not the case in this album of biggies by Kitty Kallen on Victor. The thrush reaches back almost two decades to come up with these solid, best-selling items which more than once made her the number one female vocalist in the country. The lark is currently hitting paydirt with her "My Coloring Book," which is included here along with "Little Things Mean A Lot," "I'll Walk Alone" and "I'm Beginning To See The Light." The disk has that money-in-the-bank sound.

"RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN SINGS"—MGM E 4088
Richard ("Dr. Kildare") Chamberlain's straightforward renditions of both ballads and uptempo items have earned him a significant niche in new crop of young thespian-chanters. On this bright MGM disk the songster aptly displays his wide range and versatility by rendering a highly listenable program of pop favorites. Chamberlain shines on "Hi-Lili, Hi-Lo," "All I Have To Do Is Dream" and his while-back chart-rider of "Theme From Dr. Kildare." A splendid effort.

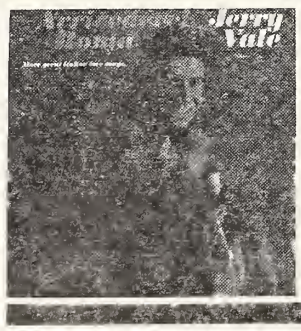
"GLORIA LYNNE AT THE LAS VEGAS THUNDERBIRD"—Everest 1208
Gloria Lynne's recent albums have proved to be big commercial successes and this new Everest outing cut live at the Thunderbird in Las Vegas, has enough built-in hit ingredients to pull loads of loot. Backed by the Herman Foster Trio, the lark displays her usual warm, intimate husky blues style on a flock of standards including "End Of A Love Affair," "So This Is Love" and "I Believe In You." Potent item for deejays.



"THE FLEETWOODS SING FOR LOVERS BY NIGHT"—Dolton BST8020
The Fleetwoods, who reaped a load of coin recently with their hit single, "Lovers By Night, Strangers By Day,' include it in this similarly tagged LP on Dolton. Although the set is geared for the teen set, plenty of adults will find real listening enjoyment in the group's professional and harmonious renditions of such goodies as "The Twelfth Of Never," "If You Were The Only Girl In The World," and "Let It Be Me." The disk could be a real noisemaker for the talented singers.



"SAMMY DAVIS JR. AT THE COCOANUT GROVE—Reprise R6063
The incomparable Sammy Davis Jr. comes up with a blockbustin' four-sided package on Reprise, cut live at the Cocoanut Grove. This is probably one of the best "cut live" LP's around, and the versatile performer pulls every trick at his disposal out of a hat that is overflowing. Comedy, imitations, dances and songs are done casually and with perfection in the Davis manner. "What Kind Of Fool Am I?" "River Stay Way From My Door" and "Rock-A-Bye Your Baby With A Dixie Melody" are only a few that cause excitement for both audience and listener. Plenty of chart potential here.



"ARRIVEDERCI, ROMA"—Jerry Vale—Columbia CL1955
Jerry Vale comes up with a strong second stanza to his "I Have But One Heart" LP, which recently saw a bit of chart activity, with this album of Italian love songs. Singing in Italian and English, the chanter's warm, rich voice carries him in good stead on "You're Breaking My Heart," "Santa Lucia," "Al Di La" and the title tune. Eight other very melodic items are included on this top-notch session on Columbia. The album could be another winner.

"OUR MAN IN LONDON"—George Melachrino—RCA Victor LPM 2608
George Melachrino has built up an impressive list of credits with his previous string-based instrumental albums, and this new package featuring English standards and American "pop" classics ranks as one of his best efforts to date. The orkster leads his crew through some delightful treatments of "A Foggy Day," Roses Of Picardy" and "Small World" with all his expected poise and verve. Spinners should come out in droves for the album.

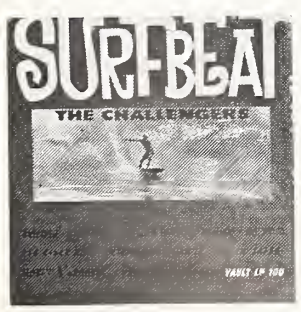
"THE VERSATILE HENRY MANCINI"—Liberty LST 7121
The multi-talented Henry Mancini showcases his abilities as an arranger-conductor on this mood-setting and melodic session on Liberty. The orkster makes good use of the magic and grandeur that keynotes much of the music of Hawaii and the islands of the Pacific as he selects some old and new island-flavored tunes and gives them organ-string treatments. Best bets here are "Bali Hai," "Return To Paradise" and "Moon of Manakoora." Disk is a pleasant late hours mood companion.

"DEAN (TEX) MARTIN COUNTRY STYLE"—Reprise R 6061
The chanter leaps on the country bandwagon to come up with some fine Martin-styled versions of a bevy of country favorites. The vet actor-songster is currently making noise with his "From The Bottom Of My Heart" single and makes a strong bid for similar success with this excellent dual-market disk. Launching the session with "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry," the crooner also includes first-rate vocal treatment of "Room Full Of Roses" and "My Heart Cries For You." LP is one of Martin's best to date.

"THE PLATTERS SING OF YOUR MOONLIGHT MEMORIES"—Mercury SR 60759
The Platters lend their best-selling vocal talents to a bag of oldies on this new Mercury session. Although the boys have been around almost a decade, their vocal stylings have a freshness and vibrant quality that makes for repeated listening enjoyment. The group is at its very best on "Shine On Harvest Moon," "Moon Over Miami" and "Full Moon and Empty Arms." The legions of Platters' fans should come out in strength for the set.

"ANITA BRYANT'S GREATEST HITS"—Columbia CL 1956
Anita Bryant has built up a solid reputation for her ability to sell a wide variety of popular music. On this bright Columbia set the lark showcases her versatility by reading an interesting group of pop and country selections. The artist's professional, sincere delivery carries her in good stead as she offers "Paper Roses," "Step" and "My Little Corner Of The World." Top-flight listening throughout.



"SURFBEAT"—Challengers—Vault LP 100
One of the biggest ten crazes on the west coast is surfing. The sport has inspired a host of new groups which play a type of hard-driving, rhythmic music associated with surfing. The Challengers are one such new California group. The group's sound combines the vitality of the Champs with the dexterity of Duane Eddy. The effect makes some fast-moving, extremely danceable readings of "Bulldog," "Miserlou" and "Surfin' Safari." Disk has good stuff in it to make its presence felt quickly.

"FOLSINGERS 'ROUND HARVARD SQUARE"—Various Artists—Veritas XTV 62202
Here's a choice item spotlighting the singing and instrumental talents of Joan Baez. The disk was cut before the lark's wide public acceptance in Boston in 1959. Although the fidelity is spotty in places, the songstress' now-famous wide-range, amazingly clear style is firmly evidenced on "On The Banks Of The Ohio" and "Black Is The Color." The package is rounded out by offerings from two other fine folksingers, Bill Wood and Ted Alevizos. Plenty of interest here.

"DRAMATIC READINGS FROM EUGENE O'NEILL"—Jason Robards, Jr.—Columbia OL 5900
Vet thespian Jason Robards, Jr. brings some memorable selections from the plays of Eugene O'Neill to life on this first-rate spoken word entry from Columbia. Robards, who has had vast experience with O'Neill, achieves an amazing dramatic pitch as he delivers excerpts from "Long Day's Journey Into Night," "A Moon For The Misbegotten," "The Hairy Ape" and "The Iceman Cometh." A stunning achievement.

"SING HALLELUJAH" — Lonnie Donegan — ABC-Paramount ABC 433
Lonnie Donegan, Britain's pop-folk singer, turns to the spirituals for this LP outing on ABC-Paramount. With several singles hits under his belt, the songster makes a bid for album success with this session of spirituals done with a folksy flavor. Accompanied by Kestrels and the Mike Sammes Singers, the singer displays a flair for spirituals as is evidenced in his treatments of "This Train," "Joshua Fit De Battle of Jericho" and "No Hiding Place."

"OUR MAN IN LATIN AMERICA"—Perez Prado—RCA Victor LSP 2610
For his latest Latin-American musical romp, Perez Prado employs a diversity of rhythms in a session geared especially for dancing. The rhumba, cha cha and bossa nova are interspersed with tracks devoted to the "bongoson," which is a dance step combining the twist with the Cuban "son." Plenty of terpsichorean fun to be had here as the orkster gives his stylized versions of "Canto Siboney," "Guadalajara" and "The Peanut Vendor."

"A MUSICAL PORTRAIT OF RAY CHARLES"—Leroy Holmes—MGM E4059
The phenomenal success of the vocal artistry of Ray Charles this past year has spread to diverse musical areas with many singers and musicians putting his material to good use. Leroy Holmes and his ork pay tribute to the chanter in this fine instrumental session of Charles' tunes. The orkster has carefully approximated the Charles "mood" in his arrangements of the tunes which include "Unchain My Heart," "Georgia On My Mind" and "Hit The Road Jack." Disk is a welcome addition to the Holmes catalog.

"I CAN DREAM, CAN'T I?"—Ralph Carmichael—Capitol ST1819
Ralph Carmichael and his orchestra come up with a tasteful and melodic session of war horses on this new LP from Capitol. The arranger-conductor employs his own updated arrangements of these tuneful items which include "You Belong To Me," "Because Of You" and "I Can Dream, Can't I?" The orkster displays sound musicianship and effective orchestration on this lush sounding package. Plenty of dancing and listening pleasure to be had here.

"SINGLETON PALMER AT THE OPERA HOUSE"—Norman NL106
Here is another spritely session of Dixieland jazz by Singleton Palmer and his Dixieland Sextet on Norman. The bass horn player displays his usual verve and artistry in this program of Dixieland favorites sparked by the sounds of the tinkling piano, the blaring trombone and a hot clarinet. Swinging bands here are "Beale St. Blues," "Royal Garden Blues" and "Washington & Lee Swing." Lots of fine entertainment to be had here.

"GOLD RUSH DAZE"—"Ragtime Bob"—Stereoddities C 1901
The rip-roaring days of the '98 gold stampede in the Yukon Territory are vividly captured by "Ragtime Bob" Darch and ensemble on this delightful, nostalgic disk from Stereoddities. The wide-open syncopation of the ragtime style dished up in a bevy of favorites including "There'll Be A Hot Time In The Old Town Tonight," "Hello My Baby" and "Here Comes My Daddy Now." Loads of family fun here.

"I JUST GOTTA KNOW"—Jimmy McCracklin—Imperial LP 9219
Jimmy McCracklin offers proof-positive of his potent r&b vocal talents on this top-notch set from Imperial. The songster has a fresh, soul-oriented wide range blues voice and a distinctive, infectious approach. With some smart orchestral backing, McCracklin turns in excellent performances on "Just Got To Know," "My Love For You" and "I Don't Care." LP should create some excitement in the r&b markets.

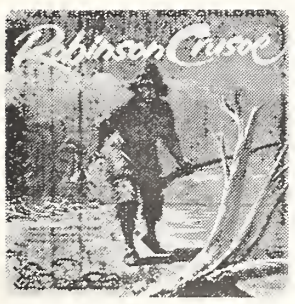
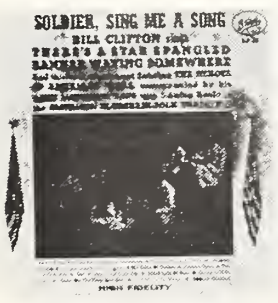
"THE GOOD LIFE"—Freddy Powers—Warner Brothers WS1488
Freddy Powers and the Powerhouse IV make their debut on Warner Brothers with this fun and melody-filled session of country and folk evergreens. The boys, three banjos and a tuba, combine to make some lively and happy music that has an undeniable infectious quality. Some of the best sides here are "Bye Bye Blackbird," "That's My Paw" and "Wait Till The Sun Shines Nellie." Recent TV exposure and this excellent disk should make a host of new friends for the group.

"TRUMPET SPECTACULAR"—Rafael Mendez—Decca DL74351
Here is a top-drawer pop-classical LP by Rafael Mendez who devotes one complete side to Haydn's "Concerto in E Flat For Trumpet and Orchestra." The trumpeters's artistry and musicianship are clearly evidenced in this complex but melodic opus by Haydn. With a full symphony orchestra conducted by Kurt Graunke, the instrumentalist also gives splendid readings of "Flirtations of a Trumpet," "Bugler's Holiday" and "Valse Suriano." An excellent instrumental disk.

"I'VE GOT A NEW HEARTACHE"—Webb Pierce—Decca DL74358
Webb Pierce, who is still clicking on the country charts with his "Sooner or Later," tags this latest LP outing after his newest single, "I've Got A New Heartache." The best-selling country chanter falls back on a bunch of standards and recent hits to round out the session as he gives winning readings of "Walk On By," "I Can't Stop Loving You" and "A Little Bitty Tear." The disk looms as a real coinmaker in the country market.



"ROBINSON CRUSOE"—Alec McCowen—United Artists UAC11015
Here is the classic tale, "Robinson Crusoe" performed by Alec McCowen and the Famous Theater Company with background music provided by the Hollywood studio Orchestra. This excellent kiddie disk rightfully boasts a classic story well told and performed by talented players with a fine orchestra to provide a touch of good music. The album is competitively priced and is a welcome addition to this top-notch children's series.

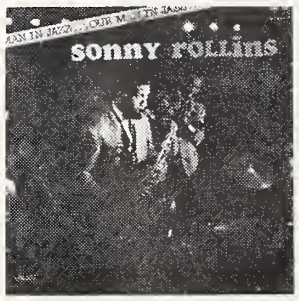


"SOLDIER, SING ME A SONG"—Bill Clifton—Starday SLP 213
Bill Clifton, who has earned many laurels for his distinctive country stylings, comes up with an interesting package of war songs on this excellent outing from Starday. Clifton has arranged and adapted all the tunes in the bluegrass style and while assisting himself on the guitar he turns standout renditions of "There's A Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere," "Battle Of Quebec" and "I Want To Go Home." Disk should attract both folk and country fans.

"THE WORLD'S GREATEST LOVE SONGS"—Alan Dale—Ford FXS715
Alan Dale sings a host of Lew Douglas-arranged operatic love songs on this LP outing on Ford label. The baritone has a warm, pleasant voice and gives each aria a feelingful treatment that compensates for the range and power inherently required for these arias. Included here are "Celeste Aida," "Che Gelida Manina" and "La Donna E Mobile." The songster's fans will surely appreciate this one.

"SUAVE VICENTICO VALDES"—Seeco SCLP 9249
Vicentico Valdes, who is considered by many of his Cuban countrymen to be the king of the Bolero, demonstrates his talent and artistry in this pulsating rhythm on this Seeco LP. With some very effective backing by Joe Cain and his orchestra, the singer delivers these Latin tunes in an authoritative manner. Included here are "Quisiera Ser Feliz," "La Noche Morena" and "Mi Dulce Amor." Latin and Afro-Cuban music buffs should appreciate this entry.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK



"OUR MAN IN JAZZ"—Sonny Rollins—RCA Victor LPM 2612
Even before his famous sabbatical Sonny Rollins was hailed throughout the jazz world as a significant force in improvisation in the modern musical idiom. The tenor saxist has now gone a step further. On this spontaneous session cut at Gotham's Village Gate, Rollins creates some impressive harmonies, rhythms and the construction of a composition without the conventions of prearranged developments. The crew swings brilliantly on "Oleo" and "Doxy." Plenty of sales potential here.

"JERU"—Gerry Mulligan—Columbia CL1932
Gerry Mulligan, who has probably won more jazz awards than any man in the business, turns to the ballads on this Columbia package which exemplifies his artistry and musicianship, both as composer and instrumentalist. Assisted by Tommy Flanagan on piano, Ben Tucker on bass, Dave Bailey on drums, and Alec Dorsey on conga drums, the baritone saxman wails effectively in "Here I'll Stay," "Get Out of Town," "Capricious" and his own "Blue Boy." A solid jazz offering.

"ON MY WAY & SHOUTIN' AGAIN"—Count Basie—Verve V 8511
Count Basie and his swingin' band have earned many laurels through the years for their fresh, distinctive jazz stylings, and this Verve session spotlighting the crew reading ten Neal Hefti originals ranks as one their best dates in recent years. Hefti has come up with an interesting batch of varied tempos and rhythmic progressions for the versatile ork. With Basie taking the piano lead, the band shines on "I'm Shoutin' Again," "The Long Night" and "Rose Bud." A superior jazz offering.

"UP AT MINTON'S"—Stanley Turrentine—Blue Note 4070
Stanley Turrentine is one of the few new-wave tenor saxists who places a great deal of attention on technical perfection. On this new Blue Note set the artist, teamed up with Grant Green on guitar, Horace Parlan on piano, George Tucker on bass and Al Harewood on drums, demonstrates his amazing ability to wail on set chromatic bases. Best listening tracks here include "But Not For Me," "Broadway" and "Later At Minton's." All of Turrentine's many fans should come out in force for the set.

"LOST IN SOUND"—Yusef Lateef—Charlie Parker PLP 814
Since the early 50's when he formed his own group, Yusef Lateef has been in the small, select group of pace-setting tenor saxists. Unlike some of his peers, Lateef has retained his originality despite commercial acceptance. On this vivid Charlie Parker LP outing the jazzman swings in his expected first-rate form on "Outside Blues," "Trudy's Delight" and "Big Foot." Disk should score in the jazz markets.

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

"VERDI ARIAS"—Birgit Nilsson—London OS 25742
The renowned soprano from the Met sings seven arias by Giuseppe Verdi on this splendid disk from London. Miss Nilsson runs the gamut of emotion and vocal range in this excellent Verdi program which also features the orchestra of Royal Opera House, Covent Garden conducted by Argeo Quadri. Her technical skills are surpassed only by the clarity and purity of her voice. The soprano includes "La Luce Langue," "Pace, Pace, Mio Dio" and "O Don Fatale." A superb opera disk.

Capitol Inks Dave Gardner

HOLLYWOOD—Dave Gardner, a strong disk comedian, has moved over to the Capitol label for exclusive diskings on the label.

Coming from RCA Victor Records, where a number of his LP's were top-sellers, Gardner's first album for Capitol, tagged "All Seriousness Aside," was cut "live" last weekend at three concert appearances in Alabama and Mississippi. Tom Morgan, the label's A&R producer, will handle Gardner's recording activities.

Born in Jackson, Tenn., he started as a drummer, added hip "scat" vocals to his specialties, and came into his own as a comic, employing cerebral humor and an outrageous Southern dialect. He gained national fame via his Victor dates and a number of appearances on the "Tonight" TV'er.

Starday's 1-Free-On-3 Offer To Consumers Only

NEW YORK—Cash Box has been notified that the Starday label's current LP program offers 1 free LP for each 3 purchased at the regular price, and does not apply to dealers and distribs, as described in a story in the Jan. 12 issue. Dealers and distribs are offered "a sufficient amount of free goods" to enable the retailer to make the 1-free-on-3-offer.

Columbia Pushes "Keeshka" Single, LP By Yankovic

NEW YORK—Columbia Records, sensing what could be one of the big novelty successes of the year, has rushed released a single and LP featuring popular polka artist Frankie Yankovic's reading of "Who Stole the Keeshka?" Polka ditty is currently making Top 100 noise via The Matys Bros. rendition on Select, a subsid of the Joy label. The Yankovic album is named after the tune.

New Label Cuts Barnes' L.A. Revue

HOLLYWOOD—"Billy Barnes L.A.," the hit revue at the Coronet Theatre in Hollywood, has an original-cast LP rendition from a new label just formed by producers George Eckstein and Bill Watters.

Label is BB Records, which has taken the top numbers from the show, which has already passed the 100 performance mark.

Album will be available at first in the Southern California area and will be on national release sometime next month. Performers include Joyce Jameson, Ken Berry, Marlyn Mason, Tom Hatten, Steve Franken and Sylvia Lewis.

"The Billy Barnes Revue," which made the Broadway scene some seasons ago, had its original cast LP on Decca Records. There are no plans to bring writer Barnes' present production to New York.

Col. Gold Disks To Philly Orch., Ormandy For "Glorious" Album

NEW YORK—The first gold records —representing sales of over $1 million and its conductor belong to The Philadelphia Orchestra and its maestro Eugene Ormandy.

The RIAA has certified the sales figure in behalf of Columbia Records' Philadelphia-Ormandy LP, "The Glorious Sound of Christmas," which the label released last Oct., thus representing a remarkable short span in which the $1 million sales mark was achieved.

As noted by Schuyler Chapin, director of Columbia's Masterworks dept., the Philadelphia Orchestra in 1962 became the first symphonic orchestra to sell over 1 million LP's within a year.

Chipmunk Enterprises Sets Merchandise Promo

HOLLYWOOD—One of the largest merchandising tieups in the TV-recording field has been set for Ross Bagdasarian's Chipmunk Enterprises, it was announced by Nick Draklich, managing director.

Cross-plugging Liberty Records' "Chipmunk" LP's and the CBS TV'er, "The Alvin Show," merchandise ranges from T shirts to coloring books, dolls and puzzles. The items will be displayed at the Annual Toy Fair in New York.

Colpix Rushes Master Purchase

NEW YORK—Colpix Records has just issued a master purchase single of the oldie, "Because of You," done-up in a teen-market treatment by The Dreamers. Deck got quick reaction in New York, says national promotion manager Bruno Sardi.

MGM Coupling "Caruso," "Showboat" Flicks For New Run

NEW YORK—As part of program to bring back to movie houses strong feature films of past years, MGM Pictures is pairing two musical flicks, "The Great Caruso, with the late Mario Lanza, and "Showboat," for release on a national basis in March.

Engagements of both films, both originally released in 1951, are to be preceded by promotional efforts on the part of MGM, RCA Victor Records, Publishers Chappell & Co. for the "Showboat" score and Robbins Music for "The Great Caruso" and Simon & Schuster book publishers in behalf of Dorothy Caruso's book about her husband Enrico Caruso.

Victor has Lanza's "Great Caruso" LP, while the MGM label has "The Showboat" soundtrack, which stars Kathryn Grayson and Howard Keel. Both diskeries will offer various distrib-dealer-DJ promotions that will tie-in with their respective LP's and the flicks. Feb. is the 90th anniversary of the birth of Caruso, a fact that will be noted in the promotions.

The flick company will tie-in its campaign under the slogans of "'Biggest Musical Presentation of Our Time" and "Two Musical Masterpieces to Lift Your Heart with Love, Melody" and "Joy."

MGM's attempt to revive its catalog of popular flicks will include non-musical films as well as song-and-dance efforts. As explained by one MGM flick exec, TV rights on the backlog of MGM productions are running out and the firm intends to select certain films for theatre-only runs.

Note Success Of 3M-Revere's Tape System In St. Louis Bow

NEW YORK—The pre-Xmas marketing debut of the automatic 3M-Revere stereo tape cartridge recorder-playback system in St. Louis was "highly successful," according to an announcement from the company.

D. H. Boyd, project manager for 3M's Revere Camera Co. subsid, noted that the $450 price tag and price of pre-recorded tape ($8.95 and $9.95) "did not develop into the major selling problem predicted by various industry sources."

The current catalog of tapes available for the system, which can play up to 15 continuous hours of taped music at the speed of 1 ⅞-ips, comes from Columbia Records, but additional sources of pre-recorded music are being lined-up.

Marketing of the system in St. Louis involved two major retail outlets—Famous-Barr department store and the Aeolian music store—and various radio-TV, magazine and newspaper plugs.

Boyd announced that the system would be available in the Minneapolis-St. Paul market beginning Feb. 1, and a similar "selective marketing program" will be used.

Boyd also reported that Revere has been involved in discussions with leading original equipment manufacturers and that several of them have expressed "a high degree of interest" in integrating a deck model of the new Revere system into their stereo console equipment.

Stacy Changes 3 Distribs

CHICAGO—Stacy Records, this city, has made three distrib changes. Now handling the firm's line are Topps Record Dist. in Miami, Fla., Music Merchants in Detroit and Cahtton Dist. in San Francisco.

Capitol Shelves Darin LP For Another Named After Hit

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol literally stopped the presses on what was to be Bobby Darin's second LP for the label and rushed into production last week a substitute package keyed to the singer's hit single, "You're the Reason I'm Living." Titled "the tune," the album will be ready for distribution by mid-February.

Shelved temporarily to make way for this package was Darin's "Earthy," scheduled for Feb. 4 release. A few copies already had been shipped to Capitol branches, but they will be held for later release.

A&R man Nick Venet, who produced the single, nabbed Darin for sessions Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday (Jan. 13-15) at the Capitol Tower. Darin was on the Coast set for his return engagement at the Flamingo in Las Vegas beginning Friday, Jan. 18.

Shorty Rogers wrote the jazzed-up arrangements of strictly country songs. In keeping with "You're the Reason I'm Living," a Darin composition which takes the swinging singer farther down the country pike than ever before, the repertoire in the upcoming LP includes tunes which are unheard outside the country field (e.g. Hank Williams' "Lonesome Whistle," Hank Cochran's "Sally Was a Good Ole Girl," and Buck Owens' "Under Your Spell Again").

Rogers used a strictly country rhythm section combined with a brassy big band horn section. Other musical strains were introduced into the down home blend with bluesy background singers.

Singles Action Takes Riverside Staffers On Trek

NEW YORK—Spurred by reported sales action on several Riverside singles, L.P. Sales prexy Herman Gimbel and veep Harold Drayson will hit the road for extensive sales meetings with local distribs who handle Riverside and five other affiliated lines distributed nationally by the firm.

Currently garnering hefty sales and airplay, says the label, are "Jive Samba" by Cannonball Adderley, "Meditation" by Charlie Byrd and "Fly Me To The Moon" by Mark Murphy.

Gimbel's itinerary will include Miami, Atlanta, New Orleans and Cleveland while Drayson will hit the West Coast covering Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Denver, Oklahoma City, Minneapolis and Chicago.

While Gimbel and Drayson stir up domestic enthusiasm, Riverside topper Bill Grauer is abroad for discussions with Philips regarding sales and promotion plans for his labels overseas in 1963.

Playback Time

Jo Jones To Produce, Perform For Capitol

NEW YORK—Jo Jones, who made-the-grade a few years with a novelty tagged "You Talk Too Much" on the Roulette label, has been retained as an artist & indie producer at Capitol Records.

Jones' initial producing effort for the diskery was a singles release of a few weeks ago featuring The Blues Busters, which the first run of label copy incorrectly attributed to Luther Dixon. Dixon's publishing firm Bix Music co-published the songs, "Tell Me Why" and "Behold," with Jones' own firm, Melder Music.

Other artists Jones will record for Capitol include Jesse Hill, The Co-Eds and Vivienne Bates. As a performer in his own right, he is set for a Capitol singles release sometime next month.

Blue Note Starts 25th Year As Leader In Jazz Field

NEW YORK—When Alfred Lion started the Blue Note operation Jan., 1939, the Depression had put the record business in bad shape, and not many tradesters gave him much hope for success in selling nothing but jazz on 12" singles.

Lion persevered and with his partner, Francis Wolff, the pair now have the fourth oldest label in the U.S. and the oldest indie as the firm enters its 25th year.

Undoubtedly, one reason for their success is their long dedication to jazz. Both are ardent jazz buffs who record what they like. It turned out that the buying public likes what they like, with the result that their Blue Note catalog is one of the fastest moving in the business.

Starting out with traditionalists like Sidney Bechet, their first big hit was "Summertime" which one of the majors refused to let Bechet do on grounds that it was too "risky." Bechet and George Lewis are the only traditionalists listed in the current catalog. Their records still sell briskly, the label reports.

Not only has Blue Note been the most exclusive jazz label, but it also has been most helpful in giving talented young musicians their first chance. The list of those whe were first given a chance on Blue Note is a veritable Who's Who of the jazz world. Art Hodes, Sidney DeParis, Edmond Hall, Ike Quebec, Thelonious Monk, Bud Powell, Tadd Dameron, Fats Navarro, Clifford Brown, Milt Jackson and Hank Mobley are some of the men who were featured during the first decade of Blue Note.

Blue Note's record in this respect is particularly striking in terms of the modern jazz men it has helped to recognition. Horace Silver, Lou Donaldson, Art Blakey, Jimmy Smith and The Three Sounds have achieved prominence during their long association with Blue Note.

More recently, they have concentrated on other highly active musicians such as Donald Byrd, Dexter Gordon, Grant Green, Lee Morgan, Sonny Clark, Freddie Hubbard, Jackie McLean, Horace Parlan, Stanley Turrentine, Herbie Hancock, and vocalists Dodo Greene and Sheila Jordan.

Although Lion and Wolff are both even tempered, soft spoken gentlemen, the hard fact is that they have struck off a formulae for aggressive leadership that is unique in such a highly competetive business. This is due no doubt to the unique personalities of the partners themselves. Lion is, before all else, a jazz enthusiast. Not only will he give new talent the benefit of his highly perceptive ear, but he will seek them out.

Francis Wolff, a boyhood friend of Lion, brings to the organization his ability as art director. Well known on his own as a photographer, he rounds out the partnership with his design ability and taste. His talents are not all in the visual arts, for, naturally, he's a rabid jazz fan too, and complements his partner's choices right down the line.

Blue Note now has a catalog of over 200 12" LP's. Besides, it has the longest line of 45 jazz singles in the business, and the label's catalog is considered one of the most atcive in the trade.

Tempwood V Inks Beavers

NASHVILLE — Popular country chanter Clyde Beavers is shown above signing a long-term recording contract with Tempwood V Records as the label's A&R director, Don Miller, looks on. Beavers first single couples "Still Loving You" and "Happy Times."

UA Inks The Wanderers

NEW YORK—United Artists Records has signed the longtime (since 1952) vocal crew The Wanderers. Last represented on MGM's Cub label, the quartet will cut their inital sides for UA within a few weeks. Besides their disk efforts, the songsters are a strong nitery attraction around the country and have done many TV appearances, including the Ed Sullivan show.

BMI Grant Supports Music Essay Contest

NEW YORK—A grant from Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI) is supporting the 1963 National Music Week Essay Contest conducted by the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Students in grades 10, 11, and 12 may participate in a contest which will award $250 worth of LP's to the writers—one from each state—of an essay on the subject "How I Broadened My Musical Horizon with Records," with an additional $250 set of records going to the school of each state winner's choice.

Deadline date for entries is March 15, 1963, and winners will be announced during National Music Week, May 5-12, 1963. Entry blanks are available from the National Federation of Music Clubs Headquarters, Suite 1215, 600 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago 5, Illinois.

National Music Week, which always begins on the first Sunday in May and continues through Mother's Day, will be celebrated for the 40th year in 1963, under the sponsorship of the National Federation of Music Clubs, a nonprofit organization dedicated to music. The 1963 theme is "Let the World Rejoice with Music."

Atlantic Issues Crewe-Produced Singles

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records is releasing singles by The Shepherd Sisters and Van Trevor through an agreement with hot indie producer Bob Crewe.

Making their Atlantic bows, The Shepherd Sisters offer "Don't Mention My Name" and "What Makes Little Girls Cry" and Van Trevor presents "I Want to Cry" and "Tuesday Girl." Trevor wrote both sides of his deck.

Arif Mardin Joins Atlantic's A&R Dept.

NEW YORK—Cleffer-arranger Arif Mardin has joined the LP dept. of Atlantic Records as an A&R assistant to Neshui Ertegun, the label's veep. Mardin, who has written arrangements for the Herb Pomeroy ork and material for Dizzy Gillespie and John Lewis, comes to Atlantic after having served on the faculty of The Berklee School of Music in Boston, where he taught composing, arranging, ensemble and coaching.

Golden Releases 6 LP's

NEW YORK—Golden Records, producers of children's records for 15 years, has announced the appointment of Larry Aranoff as sales manager, and the release of six new LP's priced at $1.98.

Ross, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs"—songs from the film, "Winnie the Pooh" with Jack Gilford, Mary Stanton and Eric Carlson, "Dream Along with Bozo" by Larry Harmon, and "The Jetsons" —songs of the TV family.

WB Buys Master

HOLLYWOOD—Warner Bros. Records has purchased the master of "Saks Fifth Ave." by Johnny Beecher on the Omega Label.

Disk, which was produced by Eddie Harris and Fred Waugh, will now be on the Warners label and distributed nationally by the label. Record first broke in San Francisco where the local distributor has reportedly sold over 5000 copies. According to WB. promotion man, Bruce Hinton, the record is now breaking out in the Los Angeles, St. Louis, and Chicago markets.

"Black Nativity" On European Trek

NEW YORK—VeeJay recording artist Prof. Alex Bradford and the Bradford Singers, stars of the musical, "Black Nativity," are appearing in the show at the Theatre Champs Elysees in Paris.

The "Black Nativity" was performed at Lincoln Center, President Kennedy's International Jazz Festival and Gian Carlo-Menotti's Festival of Two Worlds at Spoleto, Italy. After the Paris stint, the show will go on a six-month tour of the continent.

Barnum To Europe

Winning Hands

HOLLYWOOD—The two models above are helping demonstrate Capitol's current merchandising promotion built around top cards of '63. If the cards seem a little out-sized for a friendly game, they are all the better to display the new January releases. These pieces, designed by Fred Rice, are adaptable to numerous set-ups, such as the "House Of Cards" idea above.

Jazz In High Gear At Columbia

NEW YORK—Proceeding on expectations of an increasing demand for jazz product in the U.S. and abroad and, frankly, as a labor-of-love for its jazz A&R producers, Columbia Records plans to keep its jazz catalog well-stocked with classics-of-jazz reissues as well as new product.

Leading jazz critics and the trade press were informed of the label's current and soon-to-be efforts in the jazz area at an informal jazz press conference at Columbia's Studio D at 799 Seventh Ave. last week (15).

The meet was chaired by Dave Kapralik, the label's pop A&R head in the east, who was surrounded by jazz producers John Hammond, Teo Macero, Mike Berniker and Frank Driggs.

In addition, Nat Shapiro, who heads Columbia's international A&R also represented Columbia.

Kapralik prefaced the meet by noting that the success of some of Columbia's jazz attractions in the pop field, most notably Dave Brubeck and Miles Davis, had led to a further interest in jazz product, which the exec stated was as important to the label as its pop and classical efforts.

Columbia's jazz push, it was emphasized, also includes its Epic affiliate, which over the past 2½ years has instituted its own jazz series, which it was later noted deserved more intensive exploitation by the label.

Epic, noted Shapiro, was the original U.S. outlet for a number of top foreign jazz names, including Andre Hodier, Tubby Hayes and the big Bossa Nova jazzist, Brazil's Lalo Schifrin. As to the Bossa Nova, Shapiro pointed out that Epic's soundtrack LP of "Black Orpheus," which the label is re-issuing, was giving U.S. audiences a Bossa Nova sound via its original release several years ago.

It was noted that all of Columbia's A&R producers would be putting in time producing jazz product for both Columbia and Epic.

John Hammond, who has been directing Columbia's Jazz Archive series, told of further additions to the line, including packages by Billie Holiday, Ethel Waters, Jack Teagarden, Woody Herman, Leadbilly, Big Bill Broonzy and Duke Ellington. The Ellington dates, Hammound said, would comprise two releases, one taking in pre-war Ellington, including sessions on which he used pseudonyms, and dates cut after World War 2. New Jazz artists to the label, including Paul Winter, singer-guitarist Carlos Lyra, Herb Ellis and Illinois Jacquet, also figured heavily in upcoming jazz dates at Columbia, Hammond said.

Teo Macero said that the success of jazz singles had done "a lot for jazz," and he referred to such singles clicks as Dave Brubeck's "Take Five" and, currently, "Bossa Nova, U.S.A." Macero directed the performance of tracks from new Columbia jazz LP's including forthcoming issues by Dave Brubeck, a Bossa Nova date, Thelonious Monk ("Monk's Dream"), Carmen McRae, on which the stylist sings medleys of showtunes, and clarinetist Jimmy Giuffre ("Solo, Duet, Trio"). Other sets in the works feature a teaming of Andre Previn, Ray Brown and Shelley Manne and Paul Horn.

Hammond explained that Columbia rich treasure vault of years-back jazz performances largely stemmed from Columbia's purchase of the American Record Co. in 1939, a holding company of which was the Scranton Button Co., which pressed for a number of labels, including a host of jazz diskeries. As the jazz labels folded, the Scranton Button Co. obtained many of their masters. Hammond added that many of the masters did receive too much exposure, since the life of most jazz records in the Depression was only about four to six weeks.

Shapiro, in noting that jazz was an international language, said that jazz fans abroad were eager for such reissues. "There's a solid core of old collectors types in Europe," he said.

Mike Berniker, currently represented with a new Carol Sloane LP, "Live at 30th Street," has made a new Coleman Hawkins/Clark Terry LP for release shortly, and Frank Driggs, plans, as part of the Archive series, albums featuring urban blues singers of the 20's and 30's, as well as a package containing recordings by such western bands of the 30's as Don Albert's and Ernie Fields'.

After the A&R execs had their say, there was a question-and-answer period, which included a discussion of the length of today's jazz takes as compared with the shorter jazz readings of earlier days.

Label concluded the press conference with a reception at which cocktails were served. Shown in the press conference are (from left to right): Goddard Lieberson, president of Columbia, Ettore Stratta, associate jazz A&R producer, Miles Davis, Teo Macero and Dave Brubeck.

Cash Box GREAT BRITAIN

At the end of a triumphant week, Cliff Richard, Britain's Golden Boy of Show Business, found himself at the very peak of his spectacular career. The first link in the chain of successes was forged with a 'better than ever' performance in "Sunday Night At The London Palladium"—this country's top TV showcase. Next came news that his film "The Young Ones" was Britain's biggest box office success of 1962 with Cliff voted No. 1 film star of the year. Two days later his second film "Summer Holiday" opened at London's Warner Theatre. Rave reviews acclaimed it "the best British musical of all time." The only star not present at the glittering premiere, however, was Richard. Thousands of teenage fans prevented his entering the theatre.

Two numbers from the film "The Next Time" and "Bachelor Boy" are currently topping both the record and sheet music charts. Disk sales of "The Next Time" are now well over 800,000 and will certainly win him his third golden disk. The soundtrack LP of "Summer Holiday" was rush released on Jan. 18 and EMI Records report advance orders in excess of 80,000 from wholesalers alone.

Cliff and The Shadows are now touring South Africa where the film is being screened in three major cities—Johannesburg, Capetown and Durban—as well as Nairobi in Kenya. On arrival in South Africa Cliff was greeted by 12,000 fans plus 3,500 car drivers who welcomed him by simultaneously sounding their hooters. On their return home Cliff and The Shadows embark on a six-week nation wide tour to be followed by visits to Israel and a summer season at Blackpool.

Once again chart topper Frank Ifield has revived an American number for his latest waxing on Columbia. This time it is "The Wayward Wind" and promotion manager Pamela Jarvis of Lafleur Music hopes it will be three-in-a-row for Ifield at the top of the charts. Like his first hit "I Remember You," his follow-up "Lovesick Blues" is rapidly making its way up the American Top 100. Philips is also issuing a version of "The Wayward Wind" by Shirley Bassey—a disk she made several years ago before switching to EMI and the Columbia label—the same label as Ifield.

One publisher who hasn't 'got the hump' is Cyril Shane of Shapiro Bernstein publisher of the theme music from "Lawrence Of Arabia"—the film now playing to capacity at London's Odeon cinema. In addition to five American recordings—Ferrante and Teicher (United Artists); Bernie Leighton (Pye); Percy Faith (CBS); Nelson Riddle (Reprise) and Jim Hall (Pye) already on release there are three British contributions by Philip Green (Columbia); Frank Chacksfield (Decca) and Rawicz and Landauer (Philips). A soundtrack LP will be issued shortly on Pye.

For good measure, Shane also has Jimmie Rodgers current American hit "Rainbow At Midnight" released on London.

Following its catalogue deal with Phil Karl Music of America, Chappell & Co. Ltd. has formed P.K. Music and is currently working on "Loop De Loop." The original American hit by Johnny Thunder is released by EMI on Stateside, with covers by Frankie Vaughan on Philips and a new group The Dallions on Oriole. As the tune is a traditional nursery rhyme and therefore out of copyright K.P.M. Music have brought out its own rhythmic version under the title "Loo Be Loo" recorded by The Chucks on Decca. The Frankie Vaughan version is guaranteed to have nation wide publicity on January 27 when the star heads up "Sunday Night At The London Palladium" where he is currently making his pantomime debut.

Publisher Noel Rogers, guardian of the Aldon catalog in this country, is heavily involved in an Anglo-American battle for the charts. Mark Wynter, fresh from his victory over Jimmy Clanton's original American version of "Venus In Blue Jeans," returns to the charts with his follow-up "Go Away Little Girl" on Pye—this time at the expense of Steve Lawrence's CBS version now at the top of the American hit parade. A three-cornered fight is concentrated around another Aldon copyright "Up On The Roof." Again the original by The Drifters on Decca has been left behind as British contenders Kenny Lynch on H.M.V. and Julie Grant on Pye jostle for position with Lynch now in the lead. Same publisher also has Tony Orlando's "Beautiful Dreamer" as well as "Teenage Has Been" by Barry Mann—both on Stateside.

Five years after starting his career as one of Larry Parnes rock 'n' roll boys, 21 year old Duffy Power makes a notable return to disk with an entirely new rhythm and blues interpretation of "It Ain't Necessarily So" from "Porgy and Bess" published by Chappells. The flip "If I Get Lucky" is controlled by Joe Roncoroni of Mistletoe Music. Roncoroni, who also controls Marquis Music has signed Duffy Power to a long term contract.

From the Valando catalog, Chappell has four American versions of the Stateside hit "My Coloring Book"—Kitty Kallen (RCA); Sandy Stewart (Pye) Barbra Streisand (CBS) and George Chakiris (Capitol). Meantime, Fontana issued a cover version by continental star Nana Mouskouri, who arrived here to cut her first British disk. A and R Manager Jack Baverstock took the session with M.D. Johnny Keating. Greek born Nana Mouskouri who now lives in Germany plans a return visit later this month for TV dates. Plans are also under way for her to wax an LP later in the year.

Following the news that Duke Ellington has now switched to Reprise, CBS issued an album made while still with Columbia entitled "Midnight In Paris." The Duke arrived in London last week for a two-week series of concerts. He will also tele-record an hour long TV show for transmission later in the year.

A quick visit last week by David Thorne who flew in from Copenhagen on a short promotional trip. He fulfilled TV and radio dates plugging his Stateside vocal version of "The Alley Cat."

Promoter Don Arden busy preparing to welcome three American artists Brian Hyland, Tommy Roe and Little Eva, arriving at the end of the month for a four-week nation wide tour commencing February. Hyland's current American hit "I May Not Live To See Tomorrow" is issued here on HMV and several TV and radio dates have been lined up including "Thank Your Lucky Stars" on Feb. 2.

What's in a name? Ask Marty Robbins. Ask Dion. Both have releases on CBS with Ruby. Robbins looks like he'll follow "Devil Woman" onto the charts with "Ruby Ann" while Dion blots the ink on his new Columbia contract with "Ruby Baby." On the Philips label comes "Walk Right In" by The Rooftop Singers. For the same label Susan Maughan who shot into the charts with "Bobby's Girl" this month cuts her first album. Again what's in a name? Ask Susan because all twelve tracks are dedicated to boys and the title is "I Want To Be Bobby's Girl But. . . ." Meantime her latest single "Hand A Handkerchief to Helen" is published by Leeds Music.

The annual Trade Music Guild Hit Parade Ball in aid of trade personnel of publishing houses will be held at London's Empire Rooms on Feb. 8.

Rolf Harris just became the first Australian to receive a Silver Disk for British sales exceeding a quarter million. The award for his current hit "Sun Arise" was presented by Miss Australia (Tricia Reschke) during EMI's Friday Spectacular Radio Luxembourg show.

Cash Box AUSTRALIA

In many respects the record industry of Australia has really "come of age" during the past five years or so—especially in view of the staunch manner in which the industry "weathered" the last couple of years of operation in face of severe adverse economic conditions.

And yet there is one vital aspect of the trade which is causing grave concern to record companies—especially those involved in local productions. Record company executives are still bitterly disappointed at the lack of "national acceptance" of many local stars on disk.

This has been a major headache to companies recording Australian talent for a number of years. The situation showed definite signs of improvement about nine months ago but company personnel maintain that the position has again deteriorated to what it was a couple of years ago.

The bulk of local artists are from the cities of Sydney and Melbourne and many of these artists are having great difficulty in getting any worthwhile disk jockey exposure outside of their home cities. Majority DJ view on this is that the artists concerned don't spend enough time and effort on interstate personal-contact promotion and therefore do not stand as much chance of airplay as the local artist who is on the spot. Record companies are quick to reply that overseas artists—many of whom are never likely to come within a thousand miles of Australia—get consistent radio plays on records that in many cases are no better than those being locally produced. They feel that there is a handicap being an Australian artist still in Australia.

There has always been a tendency here to neglect our local talent until it has been "discovered" by overseas interests, then we (the people of Australia) are quick to claim them as our own. A perfect example of this is Joan Sutherland, the Australian singer who is now recognized as the finest operatic talent in years—yet prior to her overseas trip Miss Sutherland was not nearly as highly regarded in this country as she is today. In the pop field, another example is Frank Ifield who spent several years "battling" as an artist in Australia before he went overseas to become an international disk attraction. This is probably the main reason why Australia loses so many fine artists like Patsy Ann Noble (who found it hard to get disk acceptance outside her home city of Sydney); Rolf Harris, Diana Trask, Elaine McKenna and our latest "export," Dorothy Baker, who is now on her way to England.

When considering all points in this discussion we cannot overlook the fact that our small population limits us greatly in creating international stars from our own shores—the real fact is that we have a huge problem in creating national stars in Australia, a problem that many feel should not exist in a growing and developing country such as ours.

Perhaps the trade in other countries has been faced with a similar situation and may have solved the problem—if so we would like to hear about it. We would also warmly welcome comments, thoughts and suggestions from Australian disk jockeys, record companies and publishers. Let's face it gentlemen—we all have a vital interest in the development of the local star and we must pool our ideas and suggestions if we are to overcome the one major problem that is strangling the progress of Australian disk-talent.

Sandy Stewart is off to a good start for the New Year in Australia with her Pye label single release of "My Coloring Book," which is catching a whole flock of solid nationwide radio exposure.

After a long absence from the concert promotion field, Lee Gordon is back in business with a brief tour by Chubby Checker, who is due to give performances in Brisbane, Melbourne and Sydney. As far as can be ascertained Chubby Checker will be the only American star on the bill but he will be supported by a big batch of local talent in each city he plays. Alan Heffernan is back on deck helping Lee with the organization of the shows.

The hottest new entry on our chart of best-selling singles this week is "The Boys" by The Shadows, currently England's number one instrumental group—the flipside is "The Girls." Also on the list for the first time this issue is "The Night Has A Thousand Eyes," which looks like another smash here for Bobby Vee. Australian star Johnny Ashcroft makes the chart this week with the novelty item "The Girl Behind The Bar."

Cash Box FRANCE

People in the music biz are cracking, and novelties are being released again. Lets start off with these new titles from Aznavour "Donne Tes 16 Ans," "Trop Tard" and "Dors" also "Jolies Mome De Mon Quartier." Without a doubt no success in view with these songs. Jacques Brel doesn't forget his background. He has just grooved a series of disks in Flemish, which we would like to bring your attention in "Plat Pays" (Editions Barclay). We have already mentioned that J. J. Debout has switched over to the Barclay label, quitting Vogue, this was followed up as usual with a lawsuit, but in spite of this the artist, cut titles like "La Bas! La Bas!" and "Quand Tu T En Vas." A new twist songstress Claire Ferval has just canned "Bobbi Oh Bobbi" and "Climb." On the other hand, Bob Azzam has just canned "Le Twist Est En Baisse" (The Twist Is Fading Out). The Black Sock Group has just given us an excellent "Boing Boing." With this group lets say that they are all united and every Sunday they get together and present a gala with Elly Mitchel.

Olivier Despax, the musician, who seems to be in the limelight at present is embarking to France to make a film playing his favorite Instrument.

Lets talk about the excellent idea of Eddie Barclay which will soon be realized. A dance hall on the Champs Elysées, specially reserved for the youngsters under 18 years old will soon be opened. Capacity of the dance hall could contain about a thousand couples. No alcoholic drinks will be served. Automatic distributors of sodas, fruit juices and music by a jazz orchestra will be featured.

The bossa nova is on the decline, this being confirmed more and more in Paris, and as we have already mentioned in our columns several times, Paris talks, lives, and dances the twist in clubs like Chez Regine, Club de l'Etoile and Saint Hilaire. And between twists dance the Tamouré. All record firms are copying Vogue, and Vega by releasing disks of the Tamouré.

Charles Azanvour is taking over from Sacha Distel at the Olympia Music Hall from Jan. 17 to Feb. 13. He is giving a recital with ten new songs which is a record. Jacques Brel will succeed Charles at the Olympia but will follow Bobino. Lets terminate with Barclay by saying that Harold Nicholas and Minou Drouet will appear at the Concert Pacra.

Maurice Chevalier is leaving for New York where he will sing a song from the Semi Catalog entitled "Contre L'Amour Il N. Y. A Rien A Faire" by Rivegauche and Wallis. This was recorded with Barclay disks. At last new by Verchuren on Festival. Among the titles are "Monsieur," "Avec Mes Plus Douw Baisers" and "La Noce A Jules." Lets now say that Brigitte Bardot is time resolved to sing and her first LP has just been released by Philips. Her first recording was released by Barclay, tagged "Sidonie."

A new disk by Beart, main title "Magazine, Magazine." Yet another incident in the record biz this time it concerns Georgy Cziffra who has just quit Pathé for Philips. He recorded on Integrality compositions of Chopin for the latter firm and simply forget that he had also grooved several of these for Pathé. Hence, probably a lawsuit. Eddy Constantine has left Barclay for Philips, but changing his method, and becomes a charm singer, with a chorus.

Georges Aber has just cut on the Polydor label "Je Ris Quand J Ai Le Blues" Editions Barclay. Georges penned the French version and as a singer is gathering in a nice audience on the radio. This looks like a promising disk.

Claude Nougaro who is now a confirmed star is preparing another grooving. Bad and disagreeable news about Juliette Greco. She has renounced and cancelled her appearance at the Olympia. Her argument is that she has not sufficient good songs to face and brave the Olympia public.

On the classical side the 88'er Galina Vichnevskaia, who had a record released with Philips, will appear in Paris for a recital at the Pleyel Concert Hall in Jan. She will be accompanied by the R.T.F. Orchestra.

A guitar group that people are talking about in Paris are the Spotnicks on the President label. Mogul Boujenah mentions the fact that quite a lot of demands are coming in from juke boxes.

We met Cabat who happily announced that in 6 months Petula Clark's sales on "Chariot" reached 416,000. He confirmed that this was controlled by a bailiff, who guarantees its authenticity. Apart from this, nothing important to mention, only that Teddy Buckner has another recording session with songs of the day.

With Pathé Marconi a new grooving by Jacqueline Boyer including "Loin" and "Deux Corps Sur La Plage." Also J. C. Pascal with "Les Yeux Des Amoureux" and "Fallait Il." In the international variety a new Shadow, "Little B." On the Columbia label a new recording by the Curtis Fuller Quintet featuring Zoot Sims.

To terminate a Polish record on Pathé label the Mandoline Orchestra Iskra gives us "Prey Ognisku."

CBS Veep Adler is actually in Paris. Lets hope his presence will activate the release of this label in the French Market.

Gerd Hammerling, former right hand man to Peter Schaeffers has started his own publishing company in partnership with Peter Meisel. Gerd dropped by the Cash Box office to tell us that he recently visited Paris, Spain, and Italy where he picked up new material for immediate German production.

Radio Luxemburg reports that its first hit parade listings of 1963 show first place belonging to Freddy with his "Junge, komm bald wieder," second place goes to Will Brandes for the "Baby-Twist" and 3rd place goes to American Gus Backus for "Das kleine wünder vom grossen Glück" (The little miracle of great luck). All three artists and songs are on Polydor.

Jean Louis Dasque, the head of the French record firm "Festival," visited with music publisher and record producer Dr. Karlheinz Busse in Munich. They spoke mainly about an agreement for a handling of the "Festival" production. The very active Dr. Busse has closed several deals recently. First of all, he now has an exclusive recording arrangement with Chris Barber for Italy and Germany. The contract agreement was handled by Stephan Harpner from the Universal Edition—Vienna.

Chris will be released on the "International" label in Germany and the "Italia International" label in Italy. Betty Curtis, one of Italy's best known recording larks, recorded her first German waxing on the 10th of January in Munich for Dr. Busse's Italia label here. Dr. Busse also closed a contract between his "Musik Haus Productions" and the Jochen Brauer Sextet formerly with Ariola records. The first LP will be done this month and will be released by Metronome records. Publishing wise, Dr. Busse has taken over the rights for the Acker Bilk hit "Lonely."

Red hot Paul Siegel announces that his Teldec production of the Oederland Orchestra will be released in January by Dot Records. The titles are "The Minuteman" and "Atlantis." On February 13, Paul will fly to Hollywood from his home in Berlin to meet with Randy Wood and Jim Bailey of Dot Records to speak about future releases. So far, Paul's Oederland orchestra production has been released on "Decca" in Italy, France, Holland, Belgium, Finland, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, South America and Japan. Now the U.S. and Canada can be added to this list. Teldec has signed Swedish star Bianca to a recorded contract under Paul's A&R leadership. She makes the premiere of her Decca record on the Chris Howland Tver on January 23rd.

That's it for this week in Germany.

JAPAN

Nat King Cole makes his second visit to Japan in February, the promotor, Kyodo-kikaku Production, announced. On his way of travel to Far East countries including Hawaii and Philippines, he stays in Japan for about a month at his own wish. The performances are to be held in Tokyo and other cities from February 18 to early March, with much lower admission fees than those of his last visit, according to his plan, which shows that he earnestly wants to sing for those who could not come to listen to him during his last stay here. In the course of his tour in our country, he is also scheduled to make TV films.

Top female singer of Nippon Columbia, Chiyoko Shimakura, left Japan on January 3 to Hawaii and Los Angeles for her first musical tour abroad. She was invited by overseas Japanese and nisei group's to sing for them her hit numbers at theatres in Honolulu, Maui, Hilo and Los Angeles. After ten day's performance, she'll spend a vacation.

The Platters arrived Tokyo on December 27, with their manager Buck Ram. At their press conference held at Hanabasha, they sung some of their hits and received a hearty welcome from all of the audience. Tickets were sold out for their stage performances leaving so many fans disappointed that they have additional performances for five days in the middle of January here in Tokyo.

At the Year End Contest of NHK TV and Radio, most competitive contest as a barometer of popularity, the following foreign songs were sung by chosen artists.

Hiroshi Moriya, Nippon Columbia's hit singer, left Tokyo on January 9, with his close friend, boxer Fighting Harada, nineteen years old flyweight World Champion, who was to fight the return title match with Pone Kingpitch in Bangkok. Hiroshi was not scheduled to sing there, but cheer on the young champion.

When the first Finnish show was aired, on January 9th, the Finnish oldie "Säkkijärven Polkka"—well-known in many countries—was voted as number one in a recording with Vostok All-Stars on RCA Victor.

ITALY

Attention has been called by the persistent increase of LP sales in Italy: This increase is probably due to the fall in prices of this class of records, promoted also by a special publicity campaign conducted by RCA, EMI, DGG, and Philips for classical repertory, more than to the natural enlargement of our market. For this reason, following what is done in other countries, from this week on, we will publish also an LP chart. Since, of course, the Italian LP sales figures are not so important, at least for the moment, the LP sales chart will be printed once a month.

The article of association of the Italian Group of Record Producers has been changed. The big alteration has been the cancelling of the article which forbade the association to pass a resolution of a commercial or economical nature. As result of this abrogation, it has been unanimously decided to increase the retail price of singles, to put the industry in a condition to meet the increase of all production and general costs. It is remarkable to note that this resolution is in high contrast with the fall in prices of LP's, as reported above.

The association also decided to change its name to Associazione Fonografici Italiani (Italian Record Producers Association), keeping the same address Milan, Via Verdi 7a, President remains Trinelli, vice presidents Ornato of RCA Italiana and Bacchini of Decca Italiana, secretary Arturo Frachetti until the new elections to be held early in February.

The competition among the various publishing and record interests for coupling of the San Remo songs and the singers who must interpret them on that stage, is over. Here are the results of the hard work:

1. Amor Mon Amour My Love: Claudio Villa (Cetra); Eugenia Foligatti (RiFi)
2. Com'é Piccolo Il Cielo: Tonina Torrielli (Fonit); Gianni La Commare (Ricordi)
3. Fermate Il Mondo: Cocky Mazzetti (RiFi); Pino Donaggio (EMI)
4. Giovane Giovane: Cocky Mazzetti (RiFi); Pino Donaggio (EMI)
5. La Ballata Del Pedone: Sangiusto (Panoramic); Quartetto Radar (CGD)
6. Le Voci: Luciano Tajoli (Juke Box); Sangiusto (Panoramic)
7. Non Costa Niente: Wilma De Angelis (Philips); Johnny Dorelli (CGD)
8. Non Sapevo: Milva (Cetra); Gianni La Commare (Ricordi)
9. Occhi Neri E Cielo Blu: Claudio Villa (Cetra); Aurelio Fierro (RiFi)
10. Oggi Non Ho Tempo: Mario Abbate (Vis Radio); Quartetto Radar (CGD)
11. Perché Perché: Cocky Mazzetti (RiFi); Tony Renis (EMI)
12. Perdonarsi In Due: Tonina Torrielli (Fonit); Eugenia Foligatti (RiFi)
13. Quando Ci Si Vuol Bene: Arturo Testa (Philips); Joe Sentieri (Ricordi)
14. Ricorda: Milva (Cetra); Luciano Tajoli (Juke Box)
15. Se Passerai Di Qui: Wilma De Angelis (Philips); Flo Sandon's (Durium)
16. Sull'acqua: Sergio Bruni (EMI); Emilio Pericoli (Ricordi)
17. Tu Venisti Dal Mare: Arturo Testa (Philips); Carmen Villani (Bluebell)
18. Un Cappotto Rivoltato: Aurelio Fierro (RiFi); Sergio Bruni (EMI)
19. Uno Per Tutte: Emilio Pericoli (Ricordi); Tony Renis (EMI)
20. Vorrei Fermare Il Tempo: Flo Sandon's (Durium); Arturo Testa (Philips)

It is remarkable that our TV music contest Canzonissima ended with two songs in the first and second place ("Quando Quando Quando" and "Il Cielo In Una X Stanza") both published by Ricordi. It is an evidence of what a good year Ricordi enjoyed in 1962.

Dean Martin has cut "Senza Fine" and the record will first appear in Italy and then in the States; Caterina Valente has cut "Mi Sono Innamorato Di Te (I'm In Love With You)," a song penned by Luigi Tenco.

We had the opportunity to speak with Franz Leonardi, who brought together some friends and let us listen to a new Betty Curtis waxing "Ay Ay Che Luna (Ay Ay What A Moon)," the record which will appear on the market at the beginning of March, looks like a new good success for the songstress.

Two titles are the best hits of Edizioni Connelly here: "Chariot" and "Telstar." Mr. Abbate reported that "Chariot" got more than 20 recordings; among them Betty Curtis on CGD, Joe Sentieri on Ricordi, Frank Pourcel's on EMI Italiana and Petula Clark on Vogue currently on charts. As to "Telstar," besides the instrumental versions by The Tornados on Decca, Armando Sciascia on Vedette and others, it is expected to be waxed by Caterina Valente again on Decca. This recording will be the first sung version in Italy and will be released early in January.

There's exceptional series of visits and appearances of foreign talents on our TV screens.

This can be regarded as a first result of a new climate of cooperation between the Italian disk industry and Italian TV.

As reported last week, via special agreement between RCA and RAI TV, a first group of RCA's foreign artists will take part in the programs of "Studio Uno." Among them Odetta, coming to Italy just to be televised as star guest in the above show, who obtained one recent Saturday, good success on the show. Reaction is expected on the record market, too.

A meeting has taken place between Giannini, CGD's exec. and Sacerdoti, TV producer: as result The Hi Los, Pat Thomas, Fraternity Bros., Mel Torme, Eartha Kitt will perform on the popular TV show during the next months of February and March.

Another popular American artist, Ben E. King will be presented for the first time to the Italian public during a new TV show entitled "Musica Hotel": on this occasion, he will perform two of his best successes "Don't Play That Song" and "Stand By Me." This also is the result of an understanding between Gurtler (Atlantic's distributor) and TV execs.

Decca London has confirmed that Pat Boone's "Speedy Gonzales" (Dot) has been one of the biggest sellers during the Christmas time. In the first days of January, the sale of Speedy Gonzales on Dot reached its highest figure. Decca London people have declared that this single is his greatest hit in Italy, even bigger than "Bernardine" and "Words."

Also the latest Pat Boone's single, coupling "Amore Baciami" and "The Main Attraction" (both from the MGM movie, "The Main Attraction") is selling well. The Dot artist is now one of the most popular American singers in Italy. And Decca London have already announced for February a new Boone's release: "In The Room" coupled with "Mexican Joe." In January, the same released a new album by Pat, "Pat Boone's Golden Hits" ("Speedy Gonzales," "Johnny Will," "Words," "Alabam," "Dear John" etc.)

The "big" Decca release for January is Caterina Valente's latest single coupling two exciting songs from her second Italian TV show series "Nata Per La Musica": "Ciao" and a lovely Bossa Nova "Stanotte Come Ogni Notte."

Betty Curtis, CGD's talent, is leaving for Munich to wax her first German record: the compositions chosen for the debut of this songstress on the German market are: "Canzonetta Romantica" and "Weine Eine Kleine Träne." Betty's records are released by Italia Schallplatten. After Peppino Di Capri, whose recordings obtained strong reaction on the market appearing on the German charts, Betty is the second Italian artist coming under special distribution agreement with Italia Schallplatten. Strong publicity campaign is expected on the artist.

MEXICO

Best Bossa Nova interpreter, Joao Gilberto, has released on the Musart label his hits "Desafinado" and "O Barquinho." A Gilberto containing his most popular interpretations is expected to be released here soon.

Paul Anka is planning to do two new long plays in Spanish, in view of the great success in México of his Spanish version of "Eso Beso."

Everybody supposed that when Bill Haley came to México, he was going to perform the Bossa Nova. But the truth is that Bill did not play a Latin rhythm and preferred Mashed Potato of which he has recorded the theme, "Mashed Potatoes" and "Last Night."

Under the Tizoc label, Argentinian singer Juan Ramón has appeared with an LP of his most popular songs. At this time, his most played interpretations are "A Glass of Wine And A Steel Guitar" and "La Paloma."

Chilean singers Sonia and Miriam left town after a three month performance. Now, they are going to visit several Latin countries and after that, back again to México where they are very popular. Sonia and Miriam released in Bossa Nova the songs "Desafinado" and "Un Día Nublado," as part of a new album for RCA Victor.

On all the radio stations in México you can listen now to "Speedy In Tijuana" sung by Manolo Muñoz who may have the same success as his "Speedy Gonzales." Muñoz will return to Argentina, the country where he was so well received the first time. Manolo is in love with that country and he wants to stay there for a long time. On the same label, Musart, Angélica María recorded her Spanish versión of "Everybody Loves A Lover" and "Souvenir." Angélica is at the moment the most popular young singer we have in México and till now she has made five pictures.

Campei's representation agency announced again the future arrival in México of Ray Conniff, his chorus and orchestra and also the first performance in Mexico of Doris Day. Ray Conniff needs to record more latin rhythms. People are crazy about new Ray Conniff versions of Latin material but in the last months nothing new has appeared.

In different cities of the country are The Carrión Brothers, now as soloists, not as a group. Till now they have had great success and will continue to record at CBS Records in both ways.

For the first time, we heard a trio backed by a big orchestra. The label that decided to do this is Peerless Records, the trio are Los Soberanos and the song is "Vida," which occupied fourth place in the "First Mexican Song Festival." It sounds original and nice.

Another Mexican artist who is going to perform in foreign countries is Enríque Guzmán, who signed contract to appear in Venezuela and Puerto Rico. It is possible that before he leaves town he will record a new LP for CBS.

Everybody is surprised about the wonderful sales of the Sonora Santanera orchestra with its popular singer Sonia López. The Sonora Santanera appeared in the United States last Dec. in the cities of San José, San Francisco and Oakland. It is now in México doing theater dates.

Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin are vacationing in Acapulco and there are rumors that they are planning to open a casino in that beautiful port. Government permission is doubtful, however.

At Terrazza Cassino are the three beautiful Puerto Rican artists The Malagon Sisters, in an original show in which the big star is Gina Romand.

Young singer Mayté Gaos signed a contract with movie producer Mario Zacarías to film three pictures starting immediately. Mayté appeared on a recent "Estudio Raleigh" TV show.

ITALY (Continued)

EMI artist Bobby Vee, who recently visited Italy, to record at the TV studios in Rome his performance of the TV show "Il Giornalaccio." During his stay in Rome he waxed his first Italian recording, the Italian version of "Run To Him" under the title "Ama Chi Vuoi." The record appeared on the market with an immediate good reaction, along with Bobby's first LP containing his greatest successes.

Phonocolor, one of the youngest Italian record houses, has announced the first Italian recording of the hit "I Can't Stop Loving You" under the title "Non Finiro' D'Amarti," waxed by John Foster, a journalist who is starting a singing career.

Cash Box CANADA

Musimart Of Canada Ltd., currently wearing out pencils taking orders for two very hot items. "My Son The President," the Christopher Weeks, Fran Stacy musical satire album, and "Walk Right In," by The Rooftop Singers, currently one of the hottest hit singles in many a moon, are the items in question. They are certainly keeping the first weeks of the new year very busy around the Bleury Street, Montreal office of Musimart.

Still another comedy package has cracked wide open in the eastern Ontario, Montreal area. "The President Strikes Back," halarious package by Marc London and Company on Kapp, is getting tremendous air exposure resulting in lively sales. One of the people instrumental in the production of the "Strikes Back" set is an ex-Montrealer. Ron Clark attended McGill University some years ago, and was then a leading light in the production of the School's annual Red and White Review. The Marc London on the comedy album should not be confused with the Chateau recording artist of the same name from Montreal. When the Phonodisc people in Montreal are not busy taking orders for the "Strikes Back" LP, they are up to their ears in orders for a new single break out on Joy. "Who Stole The Keeshka" by the Matys Brothers, according to Bill Fisher, is getting the greatest reaction to a single in recent memory.

This reporter spent a pleasant hour recently with Phil Rose and Red Roberts at Compo. Phil reports that the Vaughn Meader touring show is set for two performances at Toronto's O'Keefe Center (2/17). The troup will also appear in Montreal. Colpix recording star, Vi Velasco, Diahann Carroll's understudy in the B'way production of "No Strings," will make a trip to Toronto for promo visits with the city's deejays.

George Offer at Apex Records in Toronto announces the following appointments:

Mike Worland takes over promotion for the Warner Bros., Cadence, Roulette and United Artists lines; and Jack Morrison has been appointed as a new sales representative with Apex.

Compo's New Year Restocking Plan is in effect until the end of February offering dealers attractive savings on all items in the Compo Catalog.

A new LP by the best selling French-Canadian artist, Michel Louvain was just released. It's named after his successful single of 1962, "Toi Et Moi."

A series of one nite concert stands will be undertaken throughout January and February by Warner Bros. stars Peter, Paul and Mary. The tour by the folk stars will take them to numerous western Canadian cities, including Vancouver, Calgary and Edmonton. "It's Moving" is the title of the groups latest Warners LP, and Phil Rose reports that it is indeed moving, both sound wise and sales wise. Hal Ross is making the rounds of Montreal and Ottowa platter spinners with the new P, P, and M, single, "Settle Down." First reaction from deejays to the side has been great says Hal. Also in his Warner bag or newies is a driving sound by The Routers, "Half Time" is rapidly becoming a must play item with the teen programmers.

A sleeper that is beginning to happen in a big way is an item by The Cascades. It too, is on Warners, and is entitled, "Rhythm Of The Rain." Phil Rose heard about the side on a recent weekend in New York. He returned to his Lachine office full of enthusiasm for the deck, only to find enquiries and orders piling up from branches across the country.

They're clearing the decks at Compo for an onslaught of orders for the new Allan Sherman package, "My Son The Celebrity." Based on reaction to the artist's first outing, and early reaction from the trade to this second set, Phil feels that he's got a hot set on his hands. Another comedy vein package that has great promise is a new Roulette release featuring Will Jordan and Rhoda Brown. The album is entitled "Tapped Wires" and is based on imaginary phone conversations between famous individuals.

Red Roberts pointed out during our chat that, had it not been for the unbelievable success of the two comedy sets by Vaughn Maeder and Allan Sherman, that one of his Decca packages might well have become the album of the year. He was referring to the Bert Kaempfert album, "That Happy Feeling." Red pointed out that it has long been one of Decca's strongest package items in Canada, and was still selling well. He was very interested in reported local action from the Ottawa area on one of the tracks in that particular lp. Apparently, CKOY deejay, Ted Daigle had been making a point to play the track in question—"Sunday In Madrid"—almost daily on his show, to the point where Red thought it wise to call this reaction to the attention of the powers that be at Decca H.Q., with the possibility of lifting the track as the next single, the end result. Red went on to say that the Kaempfert album was unique in that it was selling a considerable percentage of stereo sets. The ratio, reports Red, is about 60-40 in favor of mono albums. But, this represents an unusually high percentage of stereo albums. Red went on to say that the Decca and Coral division of Compo, also in the New Year restocking plan mentioned earlier, would be spotlighting seventeen new LP's for the month of January.

The recent good sales realized on the single, "Tell Him" on U.A. by The Exciters has resulted in the rush treatment being applied to the Group's new LP of the same name.

First Decca product by Johnnie Ray will be ready near the end of month. Red is expecting big things from the artist's first single on the label. It will be an oldie, "After My Laughter Came Tears" and "Look Out Chattanooga."

Canadians will soon be able to purchase the first album by talented Ottawa impressionist, Rich Little. The set is entitled, "My Fellow Canadians" and as one might gather from the album title features, among other things, Rich's impression of Prime Minister John Diefenbaker. The package will be released through the Canadian series on Capitol. Ottawa deejay and entertainer, Les Lye, will appear as a straight man for Rich on some of the material in the new package. Rich, incidently, just began a regular afternoon (1-4 PM) air stint, Monday through Saturday, on Ottawa's CFRA.

Maurice Chevalier set for Toronto's O'Keefe Center week of Jan. 21. Whitey Haines at Capitol will be busy arranging appearances with the world renouned entertainer for many of the city's deejays. The Capitol folks are distributors in Canada for Chevalier's material on the Pathe label. Current album by the artist for the firm is a set called, "Ma Pomme."

Jackie Davis opened at Toronto's Park Plaza (1/7). It'll be an eight week engagement.

The Deep River Boys are currently appearing at the King Edwards Hotel in the Ontario Capitol. They'll be there until (2/2). They are currently doing quite will, record-wise in Canada with a Capitol outing entitled, "Ashes Of Roses." The good ballad was picked up by Capitol from EMI of England, where the Deeps did the session. Another recorded-in-England break out for Capitol is the latest by Helen Shapiro, "Let's Talk About Love" is Helen's newie. Paul White informs that it has been picked to click by many Canadian spinners, and is now appearing on several station play sheets from coast to coast.

Cash Box ARGENTINA

As the summer begins in Argentina, most diskeries slow down their work while their employees and artists go on vacations or, in some cases, artists start tours of the provinces or other countries. Very few artists stay in Buenos Aires. Los Cinco Latinos are visiting provinces. Los Santos have been performing in Peru and are now in Santiago de Chile, performing on Radio Portales. These performances were scheduled for December, but an illness suffered by Alicia Santos caused a delay. Los TNT are still in Spain, recording continuously for RCA Española. Roberto Yanes has contracts in Montevideo, and travels between Buenos Aires and Uruguay. Los Tres Sudamericanos are also in Europe, and will stay there for some time more.

However, for some people this is the busiest part of the year, since Carnival is only one month ahead. Most pubberies are preparing their Carnival tunes, because a hit of this type is very interesting always. In fact, the biggest hits take place nearly always during these months, maybe because people have more time to listen to them during the holidays. "La Novia," for example, became a hit late in December, and took on real strength only in January, staying at the top of the charts till April 7. Several other big smashes were also born in January.

The Loud Jets, a good teen group coming from Mexico, have been performing at dance parties organized by Escala Musical. They have been also performing at Escala's TV'er, on Channel 13. CBS is preparing some releases by them.

"The Longest Day" seems an upcoming hit. The film's premiere has been postponed, but the promotion made around the tune is proving to be effective. There are several versions in the market: Robert Pray (Microfon), Sauro Sili (Producciones Fermata) and Los Big Ben (Philips). This one is sung in Spanish. Several other waxings are due soon.

News from Philips: "Folklore para Todos" album is selling very well. This "promotional" LP, priced at 315 pesos (regular LP's cost 520) features Los Fronterizos, Eduardo Falu, Chango Rodriguez and other artists from the folk Philips cast, which is really important. In the Bossa Nova field, Philips has put to sale "Desafinado" by Dizzy Gillespie, "Zamba de Abril" by Los Quilla Huasi and "La Changa" by Tito Alberti. The latest Polydor releases are "Serpentinas Musicales," album featuring several orchestras (Bert Kaempfert, Max Greger, Kurt Edelhagen and others) and an EP by Los Españoles, with "Tombola," the Spanish hit, as main title.

CBS is preparing the launching of a new Brazilian artist, recently inked: Reginaldo Bessa. Bessa is singer and composer, and got big promotion through an interview made to him by Carlos Medina in his highly rated "Excelsior en la Noche" radio program; the talk included several songs by Bessa. The artist's first album is due in February. Reports from CBS' press department inform that "Farolito," the latest single release by Mexican singer Cuco Sanchez, is selling very well. It is interesting to note that, although Sanchez is well known in Argentina, he has never performed here; he spent some time in Buenos Aires in 1957, shooting a film, but never appeared on radio or TV. Afterwards, he made trips that touched even Chile, but didn't come to Argentina. A Sanchez tour of Argentina, if well planned, should be a good success.

Surco is releasing a new series of kiddie records, on 45 rpm EP's. Main titles are old standards as "Peter and the Wolf," "Red Riding Hood" and others, and the recordings have been made by Alberto Closas, some time ago, and Surco's promotion chief, Maria Elena Cattonar, who seems to have an appropriate voice for these things. She appears on the labels are "Aunt Maria Elena."

Smart Publishers reports that Tony Vilar of CBS-Columbia has recorded in Spanish one of the tunes controlled by the pubbery: "Uno dei Tanti." The Spanish lyrics of the tune belong to the same Vilar.

Fermata Publishers continuing the promotion of "Fala Amor," another Bossa Nova tune that can become a success. The air play is mainly based on the recording made in Brazil by Djalma Ferreira with singer Miltinho, released some time ago by Orfeo. "Leccion de Twist," the French hit, is also a big Fermata hope. Now, it has been cut by Jackie for CBS. Besides, there is a waxing by Los Jets on the Opus (Surco) label. "Claro de Luna," another French smash, has been released by Odeon Pops in the Georges Jouvin version.

Cash Box BELGIUM

Major news from the S.A. Fonior is as follows: just arrived on the Belgian market is the new record and future hit of the English "Telstar"—ensemble, The Tornadoes: "Globetrotter." "Baby Elephant Walk," from the movie "Hatari," in a version by the American orchestra of Lawrence Welk, is gradually catching on.

"Je Danse Avec" is the second report in French by the trio Los Machucambos. This Latin-American ensemble is to perform at the Ancienne Belgique (Old Belgium) in Brussels from February 9 to 21. "The Tube," the first record of this new dance, has suddenly made its appearance on the Belgian market in an interpretation by Cherie Lee and The Lee Boys. Let us hope it doesn't become another flop, as was the Tamouré. The twist is not easy to follow.

The main Belgian show-news is undoubtedly the presence in Belgium of the famous Belgian-born singer Jacques Brel, back in Brussels to record four Flemish songs for Barclay at the Decca studios. These four songs are translations of four well-known original French Brelchansons. Records were made under the artistic direction of Ludo Langlois and Maassen. The latter is the producer of Dureco-Holland. The Dutch translations are by the well-known Dutch songwriter Van Altena. The public-relations-service of Fonior had invited several journalists for these recording sessions. Press, radio and TV were told to be there by 8 p.m., but by the time guests arrived at the studio the recordings had already been made.

Fortunately, a cameraman of Flemish television, who had come to shoot some film for the record program "Leuke Plaatjes, Goede Maatjes" (Good Records, Good Friends), arranged and presented by Frans Romeyns, managed to talk Jacques Brel into "doing it once again" (without music) and photographers thus were able to get a few pictures. It seems that Jacques Brel was somewhat frightened at the prospect of having to sing in the presence of Flemish journalists and though quite an old hand at recording, he was said to suffer from stagefright. He was worried the journalists might frown at his pronunciation of Flemish. Well, Jacques Brel shouldn't have worried about it.

As for Ardmore and Beechwood: there is at the present time a Dutch version of "Sherry," performed by The Fouryo's (Decca) as well as another Dutch version of "Big Girls Don't Cry" (Doe Niet Zo Saai) interpreted by The Tonics (Decca). From Toshiba Music, Japan, rights for Benelux were obtained for "Toku E Yukitai." The Netherlands granted rights for "Bell Amore," recorded by Bruno Martino (Imperial). From the Netherlands, rights were received for the titles "Janus Is Gepakt (Janus Is Caught) and "Zet Je Neus Op" (Put Your Nose On), in Belgium and Luxemburg (Imperial), recorded by the duet Koos Huisman.

A new address for Belindamusic: henceforth all correspondence is to be mailed to: "Belindamusic, Boulevard Anspach, 25, Brussels I (Bourse).

Francis Linel, who made quite a name for himself in Belgium by his recording of "Les Millions d'Arlequin," was guest star at the Martini Bar in Brussels. The reception was organized during his "tour de chant" at the Ancienne Belgique in Brussels.

Another artist performing at this establishment is Francoise Hardy, whose fame is spreading in Belgium as a result of her song "Tous Les Garçons Et Les Filles."

The best selling record of the recently formed firm Marshall Music is "Caravane" by the quartet The Jokers. This version can certainly be called quite clever. An ensemble with quite a number of fans in Belgium, The Jokers are expected to produce soon another record.

"Do You Love Me," in a performance by the American sextet The Contours, is being distributed in Belgium by Ronnex, under the original trade mark Oriole-American. This number is enjoying a growing popularity both in Flanders and Wallonia.

Sobedi has news in two sections: news of national and news of international importance.

International interest:

"Zero Zero" has been recorded by Rubito Dallas on Newtone. The flip side is called "Plus One" and was penned by the team Beck, Malinda. The masters were already sold to Italy and many other demands from other foreign countries are expected soon. As usual, Rubito's version was on the market very quickly and reactions to this recording are satisfying. After a few months, the popularity of Rubito Dallas has grown internationally and he books very good sales in different foreign countries. He had indeed already done a good job with "Desafinado," "Moliendo Café" and "Brigitte Bardot."

The flip sides of these recordings are always well chosen and are usually better than the flip sides of the original versions. (This is maybe the reason why he has such a success everywhere.) Indeed, the people who buy his recordings acquire not only a good "side" but they have a good record. And this is important concerning the sales.

Local interest:

Willy Lustenhouwer (who sings in dialect of Bruges) recorded a new LP for Olympia which has been called "Uilenspiegeleieren." This LP can be called the best in his career. The musical arrangements were done by R. Beck and the sound is very good. There were already many demands for the release of a single with a title taken from this LP. The title of this number: "Madeleine" and many people in show and record business have forecast success for this number. A French and a German version of this number are planned and demands came from certain other artists to record this number and to put it on their repertoire. "Madeleine" could become the hit of the upcoming Carnival.

Still on Olympia, Eddy Roos recorded "De Witte Muis (The White Mouse) and "Blijft Van Mijn Katteke" (Keep Away From My Cat). The sales are very satisfying for the area of Antwerp, and now demands come in from other parts of the country, which is a good sign.

The news by Siemens is: best sellers are "Kleine Blauwe Zwaluw" by Bob Benny, "All Alone Am I" by Brenda Lee, "Youpa Y Tamouré" by Daniel Gérard and "De Muur" by Luc Van Hoesselt. Oscar Denayer remains always on the top and is the surest Polydor leader. DGG subscription with Beethoven's 9 Symphonies directed by Herbert von Karaján and the Berliner Philharmoniker has been growing up to an unusual big success. All sales predictions have been surpassed.

Polygram Belgium reports that Brook Benton's "Hotel Happiness" (Mercury) will soon be on top of Belgium's hit parade. Still high on the charts is Johnny Hallyday's "l'Idole Des Jeunes" and young Belgian singer Robert Cogoi is still holding his position with "Si Un Jour" and "Pardonnez-moi Seigneur" (Philips). French teenager Lucky Blondo has a best seller with "Sheila." Claude Francois made the version of "Girls, Girls, Girls," named it "Belles, Belles, Belles" and hit the top with it (Fontana). Henri Salvador again has a best seller.

Cash Box HOLLAND

Leo Boudewijns of L.C. Phonogram made special mention of a new LP in Philips' "Modern Music Series." The record contains selected works by two Dutch composers of international fame: Willem Pijper and Henk Badings. In all Dutch performances by members of The Hague Philharmonic (van Otterloo) and The Concertgebouw Orchestra (Van Beinum) with pianist Hans Henkemans and violinists Herman Krebbers and Theo Olof, the LP presents Pijper's Piano Concerto, 6 Epigrams and 6 Adagios, and Badings' Concerto for two violins and Orchestra.

A new find in Holland's musical life is 15 years old Leo Meyer, a boy-soprano with religious repertoire. Leo does many broadcast-performances and is the soloist in many church-concerts. However, offers for concerts-tours abroad had to be turned down by Leo's parents because of the boy's studies. Philips has taken Meyer under contract, and his extraordinarily beautiful voice can be heard on an EP with 'Laudate Dominum', accompanied by Choir and organ.

Perhaps the most attention-drawing item in the Dutch Popularity Polls of 1962 was the very high position conquered by singer Johnny Lion and his rock-ensemble The Jumping Jewels. Completely unheard of last year, the Jumping Jewels started 1963 with No. 1 positions in the Polls of all three leading teen monthlies in this country. Singer Johnny Lion became No. 1 and two times No. 2. In the popular weekly "Wereldkroniek" (to be compared with America's Saturday Evening Post) the popularity poll featured both Lion and his Jewels ensemble as No. 1. The Jumping Jewels and Johnny Lion record exclusively.

Back from a 5 weeks tour through Malaya is Anneke Grönloh on Schiphol Airport, Amsterdam, at Jan. 3rd. Two days later the Dutch Swing College landed, the famous Dutch band that accompanied Anneke on her extensive tour. Anneke, happy, healthy and full of excitement despite the biting cold in Holland after the heat of midwinter Orient, was greeted by Phonogram's director J. Th van der Meer, publicity chief Rolf ten Kate many other Phonogram officials and a squadron of newspapermen and photographers. The 20 years old Dutch-Indonesian beauty told the press of her successful performances, her meetings with persons of royal blood, the tremendous success of her song "O Malaysia" and the fact that she created a sort of Anneke Grönloh-fashion in hairdo and dressing. Anneke's latest success-recording is an EP with the Dutch Swing College on Philips.

Italian Carlo, the 16 year old boy from the Parma Conservatory who happened to travel to Holland and was discovered by Dutch Decca, continues his successful recording with "Pelecenella Twist" and "Pinne," both sung in Italian. Talented, handsome, Carlo, fond of modern rhythms and show-business, has conquered the Dutch teen market by storm and could certainly turn out as an international star in the coming year.

Bovema's Columbia-topsinger Helen Shapiro will soon appear in one of Rudi Carrell's regular TV-shows. A definite date has not been fixed at presstime.

One of the TV-highlights on last Saturday was the Judy Garland-Show, featuring also Bevoma's Capitol-artists Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin.

Bovema's Imperial-label scored a huge success with its EP-release of Jewish liturgical songs by cantor Hans Bloemendal. Also top hits in the Imperial-repertoire are Imca Marina's "Soerabaja" and Fats Domino's latest single "Teenage Love."

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"YOU MADE IT EASY" (2:07) [Moss Rose BMI—Anderson]
"STILL" (2:45) [Moss Rose BMI—Anderson]
BILL ANDERSON (Decca 31458)

Bill Anderson, who had a big pop-country chart-rider last time out with "Mama Sang A Song," has a good chance of duplicating that success with this bright outing tagged "You Made It Easy." The songster renders the self-penned chorus-backed affair about a traditional tale of heartbreak with his expected authoritative style. On "Still" Anderson dishes up a real slow-moving lament with some feelingful lyrics. Merits a close look.

"THE YELLOW BANDANA" (2:25)
[Aldon BMI—Gorgon, Karliski, Kolber]
"HOW MUCH I MUST HAVE LOVED YOU" (2:44)
[Cedarwood BMI—Dill]
FARON YOUNG (Mercury 72085)

Faron Young, who is still going strong with his Capitol stand of "Down By The River," opens his potent vocal guns full-blast on this ultra-commercial Mercury bow tagged "The Yellow Bandana." The tune is a tender, easy goin' chorus-backed tale of love with a warm south-of-the-border flavor. The undercut, "How Much I Must Have Loved You," is a top-flight, tradition-oriented, slow-shufflin' lament.

"YOU HURT ME" (2:32) [Moss Rose BMI—Graves]
"MY REASON FOR LIVING" (2:12) [Central Songs BMI—Husky, Cox]
FERLIN HUSKY (Capitol 4908)

Ferlin Husky, who is still scoring with "It Was You," comes up with a first-rate follow-up stanza with this Capitol outing. The top side here, "You Hurt Me," is a tender, slow-moving popish lament with a moving mid-deack recitation. Side has a good chance to score in the pop markets. On the flip, "My Reason For Living," the chanter offers a happy-go-lucky chorus-backed uptempo ditty. Eye it.

"WHAT'S WRONG WITH ME" (2:41) [Pamper BMI—Howard]
"ONE IN EVERY CROWD" (2:26) [Moss Rose BMI—Anderson]
CHARLIE WALKER (Columbia 42669)

The vet Columbia hit-maker should pick plenty of loot with either end of this new Columbia coupling. One side, "What's Wrong With Me," is a rousing, bluegrass-styled tear-jerker sold by Walker with all of his expected poise. The other end, "One In Every Crowd," is a pleasing easy-on-the-ears chorus-backed ballad with an extremely spinnable ballad. Either side here can make it big.

"THE WRONG SIDE OF TOWN" (2:53) [Jack BMI—Unterwood]
"DON'T CALL ME FROM A HONKY TONK" (2:28)
[Pamper BMI—Howard]
JOHNNY & JONI MOSBY (Columbia 42668)

The twosome have racked quite a few hits in the past year and this new release labeled "The Wrong Side Of Town" shows every indication of developing in chart item in no time flat. On the tune Johnny tells the plaintive tale of a rich guy who loves a poor gal that he can't marry while Jonie effectively offers her side of the story. "Don't Call Me From A Honky Tonk" is top-flight, catchy tear-jerker with some impressive piano work.

"LET'S TRY AGAIN" (2:12) [Glad BMI—Pressley, Price]
"SHE'S LONESOME AGAIN" (2:00) [Glad BMI—Jones, Riddle]
GEORGE RIDDLE (United Artists 535)

Georgie Riddle could finally break through to the front ranks of country stardom with this destined-for-success UA outing called "Let's Try Again." The songster's wide-range vocal talents carry him in good stead on the tune which is a fine, fast-moving, chorus-backed heart-tugger. A top-drawer piece of merchandise. Riddle renders "She's Lonesome Again," a tender, feelingful ballad, on the flip.

REBEL (Sigma 051)

(B+) "WILTED ROSES" (2:06) [Jamac BMI—McWain, Newlin, Keeling, Aycock] Rebel could jump into the national limelight with this tender, slow-moving bluegrass flavored lament. Side boasts first-rate ork-chorus backing.

(B) "NO MORE TEARS" (2:01) [Suffolk BMI—Keeling] Easy-goin' popish tear-jerker with a danceable, teen-oriented beat.

ADAM LEE (Fidelity 4059)

(B+) "STAIRWAY OF LOVE" (2:05) [Stone & Cook BMI—Lee] Adam Lee should attract plenty of attention with this first-class chorus-backed country traditional. The songster sells the song with the authority of a long-successful pro.

(B) "CRUEL, CRUEL WORLD" (2:55) [Stone & Cook BMI—Lee] More fine country sounds. This one's a pleasing tear-jerker with some real pretty lyrics.

Despite a nineteen degree temperature, a chilly novelty for sunny San Antonio, KBER's promotion of the January 12th Grand Ole Opry show resulted in a capacity house of 5500 admissions at the Municipal Auditorium. During the performance, A. V. Bamford, manager of the station was presented onstage an award from members of the cast in appreciation of his work and contribution to country music and entertainment during the past fifteen years. The plaque was engraved with the name of participating artists on the show, including Webb Pierce, Minnie Pearl, Ray Price, Carl Smith, Stonewall Jackson, Claude King, George Jones, Red Sovine and Billy Deaton.

Jack Roberts of Seattle, Washington has Hank Thompson and his Brazos Valley Boys set for a sixteen day tour of one-nighters starting January 25th and concluding on February 9th. The tour will take Hank and his orchestra through California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

J. Hall Smith and Jimmy Key send along word of the appointment of Haze Jones to the position of administrator with Curtis Artist's Productions. Jones will be active in all phases of the agency business. Additional business in the United States and overseas has made it necessary to bring Jones into the company, states Key and Smith, who said that 1962 was by far the greatest year, volumewise, CPA has ever enjoyed.

Doc Whiting, prexy of Capa Records, took time out during the recent holidays to marry his gal Friday, Anne Johns. Both are busy promoting the newest Capa release, "You Broke My Heart" b/w "I Cry" by Jackie O'Neal, a new country artist.

Smokey Warren, formerly cutting for Roulette, is now recording for Flamingo with his latest release tagged "Ball Of Fire" and "I Dreamed Of An Old Love." Deejays can obtain copies by writing to the chanter at 116 Princeton Road, Linden, N. J.

George Jones recently joined Pappy Daily in Nashville to cut a new album for United Artists. The songster caught a virus over the holidays, but managed to fulfill his personal appearance schedule before flying to the Music City for the record session.

Country music vet, Autry Inman, has just signed a contract with Sims Records. The label has already cut him and are rushing out the initial release tagged "The Volunteer." An album session is planned within the next sixty days.

A. schedule which will take them throughout the southeast. During the tour Smith will promote two new albums, "Arthur 'Guitar Boogie' Goes To Town" on Starday and "Arthur Smith's Guitar With Voices" on ABC-Paramount.

Johnny Cash and the Tennessee Three, already accustomed to achieving "firsts" in their field, once again accomplished a unique and exhaustive first. On New Year's Eve Johnny became the first headliner to ever play three cities (each many miles apart) in one evening. There was such an overwhelming demand for his services that it seemed the only solution was to play more than one city. A plane was hired and with careful planning, all three dates were made on time and turned out to be a whopping success. Places played were: Indio, California—Date Festival Building; San Bernardino, California—Swing Auditorium; Los Angeles—Great Western Exhibit Hall.

Jim Nesbitt, who spins the country sounds on WYMB-Manning, South Carolina has started a new program called "For Deejays Only." Only songs written or sung by spinners will be played on the program. All jocks are invited to send Jim their records.

Larry Daniels, program director of KUZZ-Bakersfield, California, writes in news that everyone at the outlet is prepping for their third annual Grand Ole Oprey show at the Bakersfield Civic Auditorium with two shows: at 7:00 PM and 9:30 PM. The stars scheduled to appear are Ray Price and his Cherokee Cowboys, Claude King and his band, George Jones, Webb Pierce, Carl Smith, Stonewall Jackson, Minnie Pearl, Red Sovine and Billy Deaton.

Mike Oatman, program director of KHEY-El Paso, sends along word that Wynn Stewart recently guested on his Lone Star Jubilee program. Mike reports that the mail response was terrific.

Less Service, More Sell

We have attended showings of various new types of equipment during these past few weeks and the one thing in common with each introduction was the emphasis on ease of servicing the machine. All of which adds up to the fact that when you're selling equipment—or buying it—a machine is much like a woman. If she's ugly you just can't give her away but the beauty with no brains doesn't last much longer. The juke box of today is probably one of the finest looking income-earning devices ever turned out by man. But without the necessary insides, no one will make much money with it.

At the manufacturing level the electronic engineers have just about reached the epitome of fine sound from a juke box. The advent of stereo amplification and good speakers helped bring about musical sound that was available only from expensive home equipment. Single-unit servicing now enables servicemen to remove the entire sections of a machine replacing them with new units while the worn out parts are repaired thereby cutting down on costly idle hours. Transistors are replacing tubes and while snap-in cartridges and needles haven't replaced the need for a screwdriver as yet, this tool is used less now than ever before.

Front of machine servicing is another innovation which enables a serviceman to perform his chores speedily and without too much distraction. Swing-out sections, revised power source requirements and lightweight mechanisms all make for a quick and highly efficient service call. Actually, a lot of the service is performed at the factory or in the distributor shop sometimes before the machine is even placed on location. Plug-in relays for instance require no more than a switch of parts already packaged and can be performed by servicemen who may not have the benefit of the technical education and years of experience formerly necessary.

The patron who does not hear the song selected today is a rare one indeed. More positive selection now brings about quick and accurate music, a weakness in machines several years ago which only magnified other shortcomings present in yesteryear's machine.

Today, the public has been geared to expect only the finest performance, and this definitely results in greater collections. New programming techniques for the 7-inch disks and title strip replacement result of an in-and-out speed of service which has actually helped the operator compete in this day and age of higher costs and the usual problems on location.

About the only major problem common in today's juke box is the use of slugs and even in this area, the combined anti-slug legislation as passed last year and the new coin mechanisms are pointing this problem in the direction of ancient history.

There is no doubt that the factory today has placed the juke box operator in the position of a music merchant, with less time and money spent on service thereby permitting more time and investment on merchandising and promotion, the means of gaining greater income from the location.

Milwaukee Ops Re-Elect Sam Hastings

Stecher, Jacomet, Re-Elected Association Officers Meeting Covers Form 1099, Aids New Phono Intro

MILWAUKEE — The ever-growing Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators' Association convened last Monday evening, January 14, in the Ambassador Hotel, in this city, for its annual meeting, highlighted by an election of officers for the 1963 term. And, to conduct other business of vital interest to all members of the organization.

The meeting was chaired by Sam Hastings, of Hastings Distributing Company in Milwaukee, president of the association, who was unanimously returned to the office of president along with the other past officers and the board of directors. Which, incidentally, was expanded with the addition of another director.

Other officers re-elected for another term of office were: James (Jim) Stecher (vice president), of Novelty Service Company, Milwaukee; and Jerome "Red" Jacomet (secretary-treasurer), Red's Novelty Company, Milwaukee. Re-elected directors are Arnold Jost, Arnold's Company, Milwaukee; Robert Puccio, P & P Distributing Company, Milwaukee; and Irv Beck, Mitchell Novelty Company, also in Milwaukee. The newest member of the board of directors is Wisconsin coinvet Doug Opitz, of Wisconsin Novelty Company.

Promptly after the installation of officers for the 1963 term there was a lively discussion on the Internal Revenue Service new Form 1099 Proposal. However, this subject was temporarily shelved until such time that more clarification is available to the Milwaukee Coin Machine Operator's Assn.

The meeting was then officially adjourned by President Hastings, according to proper procedures, and all of the members moved to another large room in the Ambassador Hotel where Harry Jacobs, Jr., president and owner of United, Inc., distributors in Wisconsin and Upper Michigan, conducted a Service School Clinic on the new Wurlitzer Model 2700 coin-operated automatic phonograph for the benefit of the music operators and their service personnel.

Non-members of the association were also invited, along with their service and collection personnel by Jacobs and his vice president, Ronald J. Kopp.

Prior to the business part of the service school session ample, delectable refreshments were served to the guests by United, Inc.

Hastings declared that because of the wonderful reception this Wurlitzer service school clinic enjoyed from the operators the association will contact the other manufacturers of coin-operated automatic phonographs to schedule similar service school clinics during the subsequent monthly meetings of the association. This will cover the period from February on through April of 1963.

Operators from throughout the entire Wisconsin area, he stated, will be invited to attend these service clinics with their service personnel. These sessions will be planned by local distributors in conjunction with the manufacturers of phonograph lines.

Thus far, he concluded, local distributors are showing considerable interest in this program.

Meetings of the Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators' Association are conducted on the second Monday of every month, at the Ambassador Hotel in this city, unless a national holiday or any other important circumstance should cause the rescheduling of another day.

John Chandler, MOV Leader, Dead

RICHMOND—The coin machine industry lost another leader last week when John D. Chandler, past president and director of the Music Operators of America passed away. The well-known coin machine association leader died on January 10 in his home.

Chandler, one of the pioneers who organized MOV worked diligently through the years toward the success the association enjoys today. It is one of the most efficient and tightly knit trade associations in this industry.

Although Chandler was not an operator, he did spend many years in the music business. Chandler headed the committees down through the years which formed what is today a solid Public Relations organization. He also participated in donations and charity work around the State, always forming a drive to care for the needy for which member operators received deserved publicity via television, radio and the news press.

Members of the Music Operators of America felt that the loss of Chandler was a great one for MOV. "There are many great men, but none so great that he can take up where John D. Chandler left off," was the way the MOV members asked that the Chandler epitaph read.

JOHN CHANDLER

Avron Gensburg To Europe

CHICAGO—Avron Gensburg, Chicago Dynamic Industries, Inc., left the US on Friday, January 11, for an extended tour of Europe. Included in the ChiCoin exec's itinerary are London, Antwerp, Frankfort, Hamburg, Paris, Milan and Sweden. Gensburg will call on coin machine firms while on the Continent.

A.T.E. Exhibits Sold Out, Interest At All-Time High As London Coin Show Preps For Big Jan. 29 Opening

J. SINGLETON
Secretary-General Mgr.

LONDON—The excitement that is part of every trade show began to take form here this week as A.T.E. exhibitors held tight to their reservations in the face of heavy demand for more space from present exhibitors and the unlucky few who were caught out in the cold this year. Actually, exhibit space was sold out as early as December for the forthcoming Amusement Trades Exhibition but due to cancellations and revisions one or two stands did pop up for lucky exhibitors-in-waiting.

The January 29-31 coin show has built in strength with each passing year and since 1959 when fruits were admitted, the action has been hot and heavy. This 19th Annual A.T.E. appears to be no exception as hotel reservations have been received from as many as twelve countries to date.

The United States will have its share of industry representatives on hand although the only manufacturer from the USA had to bow out at the last minute when the current dock strike which has tied up the coast of the USA strangled both the nation's ports and Urban Industries, manufacturers of kiddie movie machines. Nat Bailen, ad director of Urban, advised Cash Box that the dock strike halted all exhibit plans and the cancellation had to be put through. Air shipment costs are high in comparison to the shipping costs on water. Bailen expected to attend with Bernard Berman and continue in Europe after the Jan. 31 closing. However, the Americans will probably make it here during February.

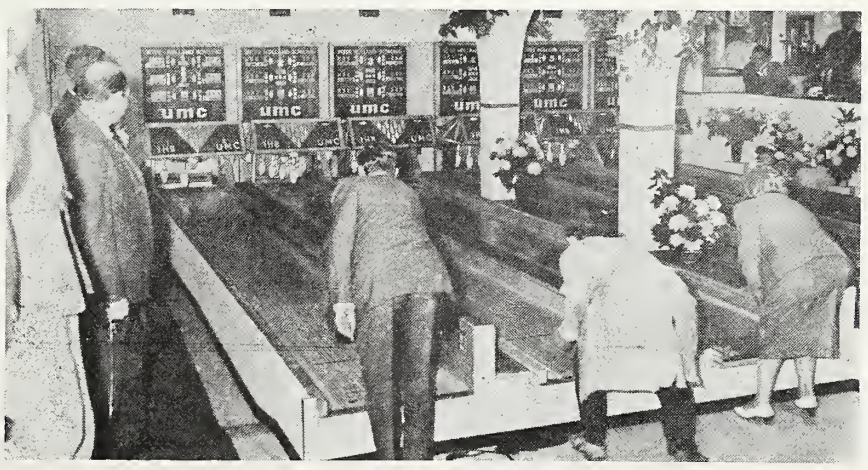
Sixty-eight exhibitors were once again signed for the space taken last year. The New Royal Horticultural Hall is again the site of the show. Most manufacturers will be represented by local distributors. Some surprises were in store for the expected 3000 visitors who attend each year. Germany expects to unveil a new juke box as do other firms here.

Wurlitzer was also stymied by the strike in the USA. The new 'Model 2700' has been announced in the trade press and the trade eagerly awaits the arrival of the machine with the 'Golden Bar' which plays the Ten Top Tunes but officials at the North Tonawanda plant were unable to guarantee a 'Model 2700' by Jan. 29 opening.

Cash Box will of course be on hand to cover the show as it does each year with a staff operating out of Stand 138. Pictorial and news coverage of the trade show will appear in the next immediate issues for the international markets.

J. Singleton, Secretary-General Manager of the Amusement Trades Exhibition, promised every exhibitor and visitor a top-flight show during an interview last week in London. "We will pack the Hall with equipment and people, the two main ingredients for a successful trade show," stated the British trade association leader.

United Bowlers Gain In European Markets



CHICAGO—The ever growing popularity of United Manufacturing Company's coin-operated bowling games on the Continent is evidenced here, as bowlers compete avidly in bowling matches on United equipment, in the Saint Germain Des Pres Bowling Club, in Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

Bolinga S. A., of Geneva, Switzerland, handles exclusive distribution in Europe, Africa, and the vast Middle East area for United Manufacturing Company, which is based in Chicago.

Arnold Silverman Joins Amco As V.P. Genl. Mgr.

Former Seeburg Regional Rep Sales Head Of West Coast Firm

LOS ANGELES—Don Ross, president of Amco Music and Vending Company, announced this week the appointment of Arnold Silverman as vice president and general manager of Amco. Silverman joins Amco after serving for the past three years as Regional Director for the West Coast for Seeburg. Silverman replaces Dan Donahue who has resigned from Amco, and will be announcing plans at a later date.

In his new capacity Silverman has made three appointments at Amco. Dick Wright joins the Vending Division, Howard Lax has been named Controller, and Nate Duncan has been appointed office manager. Amco is holding open house at their new quarters on January 27 from noon to 7 P.M.

Amco distributes the Seeburg Music and Vending Lines, Chicago Coin, Fischer, Irving Kaye, American Shuffleboard and O. Gottlieb & Co.

Silverman is the son of Joe Silverman, business manager of the Amusement Machine Association of Philadelphia and well known coin machine figure.

Amco Music & Vending Company was formed last year when Bill Happel of Badger Sales sold out to the Gellman Manufacturing Corporation, a publicly owned manufacturing firm. The Badger name was dropped and Amco was formed. New quarters were constructed later in the year and the present modern single level plant is one of the most attractive distributorships in the country.

COINMEN CIRCLE GLOBE TO ATTEND 18th ANNUAL A.T.E. 68 EXHIBITORS EMPHASIZE QUALITY; SALES HIT PEAK

LONDON—The 18th Annual Amusement Trades Exhibition, highlight of the European Coin Machine year, took place this week at London's New Royal Horticultural Hall. Once again it proved an unqualified success bringing credit to the organizers and exhibitors alike and prestige to the British coin machine industry in general. As well as the usual tension which precedes a show of this kind exhibitors this year faced the hazards of a one-day unofficial strike by London's Underground workers. Remembering the chaos brought about by a similar strike on the eve of the 1960 Show it was feared that exhibitors would be unable to get their equipment to the hall in time. However, despite the fact that, with no trains operating, Monday brought about the most disastrous traffic blocks in living memory everything was in place when the doors opened at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, January 30th. Had the strike been staged on the Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday of the show attendance would have been seriously affected. At the time of writing no figures are available but the organizers are confident that the final count will be well up to standard.

Once again coin men circled the globe to attend the convention and meet their counterparts from the U.K. and view the latest British, American and Continental equipment. The list of visitors reads like a United Nations Who's Who with representatives from America, Canada, Germany, France, Holland, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland and Scandinavia. Throughout the three days manufacturers, distributors and operators thronged the main aisles of the hall visiting, viewing and valuing the wide range of equipment to be seen on the stands of the 68 exhibitors. With much new material in all categories on show for the first time prospective buyers took their time before placing orders and sales did not reach their peak until the second day. Undoubtedly, the emphasis this year was on quality rather than quantity and 1962 will go down as a vintage year particularly in the field of arcade equipment. This was nowhere more apparent than on the stands where fruit machines were the major attraction. Particularly large orders were reported by the leading manufacturers specially for the old play fruits with 2-12 pay outs permissible in arcades.

Phonos Less Evident

Phonographs, although less in evidence than usual, were well represented by the A.M.I. Continental 2, the new Wurlitzer 2600, the Rock-Ola Princess and the Symplay Symphonie 200D. Many new and improved kiddie rides were to be seen and no less than 14 swag merchants were to be found around the hall.

It was a pleasure to meet once again Mr. Adickes, European Distributor for Rock Ola who expressed his pleasure at attending yet another A.T.E. He reports that Rock Ola's export of phonographs to the U.K. and the continent, particularly Germany, have experienced an exceptional gain in turnover over the previous years, despite the general shrinkage in this field. Mr. Adickes regrets, for well understood reasons, that at this year's A.T.E. interest in fruit machines overshadowed phonographs. In the phonograph field Rock Ola plan to introduce not only the new Empress model but also a new concept in the console line suitable for higher class hotels, holiday camps etc. Adickes was also in this country to introduce the new sensational Rock Ola Rebel coffee and tea vending machine. He reports that a few of the leading vending people are interested in this machine and he hopes to announce the name of the firm which will handle it for the U.K. in the very near future. In conclusion Mr. Adickes wished to express his pleasure at meeting again many of his friends and customers from all over the world.

Another distinguished visitor was Herr Lars K. Skriver, President of the German Arcade Owners Association. He told Cash Box that he was most impressed with the high standard of exhibits and before returning to Germany bought a considerable amount of British equipment for his Penny Arcade and Tivoli Arcade in Hamburg's Reperbahn.

Worldwide Representation

Other visitors from Germany included Mr. H. J. Glawe, leading operator and arcade owner of Hamburg, Mr. Erich Schneider G.m.b.H & Co of Hamburg, Dr. Foelkel Deutsche Warlitzer of Hamburg, Mr. Forster of Automatenbau Forster of Bavaria, Herr Ernst Bergmann of Th. Bergmann, Herr Egon Echopp Sales Director of the same company and Herr Schmidt of Franken Automaten.

From Switzerland came Mr. Hans Scheidegger Overseas Manager for Wurlitzer, and Mr. Paul Hunger Director of Automatic Canteen (Gt Britain) Ltd.

The Belgium contingent was headed by Mr. Chortier of Brouver Music Company and Mr. Raymond Van Hoen Acker and Mr. Gresel Marcel.

Dutch representatives were Madame Brengelmans Director of Hobea and Mr. R. J. Bourterse General Manager. Also from Holland came Mr. H. F. Sleeum of OVAC.

Scandinavian visitors included Mr. Alfred Jorgensen of Jorgensen Bros.

The many American visitors included Mr. Dave Shuman of Atlas Distributors of Baltimore, Mr. Sam Stern President of Williams Manufacturing Corp of America, Mr. Suren D, Fesjian President of Mondial Commercial Corp. of New York, Mr. Leonard Haines World Export representative for Jennings and Keeney, and

REVIEW OF EXHIBITS

PHONOGRAPHIC EQUIPMENT LTD. One of the largest and most attractive stands at the Exhibition was that of Phonographic Equipment Ltd. and the stand was divided into three sections phonographs, games and fruit machines. Pride of place in the phonograph section was given to the brand new Wurlitzer 2600 100 and 200 selection stereo models with intermix 33 1/3 and 45 r.p.m. Atop this very attractive machine is the Top Ten Tunes panel which also includes provision for personalizing the site. Largest crowds were to be found in Phonograph's fruit machine section where the full range of Sega 6d light-ups including the Diamond Star were a big attraction. The Copper Sega described as "the outstanding 1d play machine of all time for price and quality" literally hit the jackpot as far as sales were concerned. Also on show the complete new Mills range of 1d, 3d and 6d machines in new styled cabinets together with the Mills Bell-O-Matic and Sega 777. A large range of reconditioned 1d and 6d machines completely checked in the company's engineering works were also on show.

MAR-MATIC SALES LTD. Another important stond near the entrance of the hall was that of Mar-Matic Sales Ltd. exclusive representatives in the U.K. for Jennings and Keeney fruit machines. On show here for the first time was the new Jennings 6d play Governor Tic-Tac-Toe and Big 18. In addition to being entirely new products they have many new features including ball bearing clock fully guaranteed for five years and alumite self lubricating bearings.

Jennings Show Stealer Was New Comet

The show stealer of the Jennings products was undoubtedly the new 1d Comet—completely reliable 1d machine which represents a great achievement on the part of Jennings engineers. Also to be found were two new Keeney lines Startime combining all the attractive features of the most popular bingo together with those of the pin table; and Two Gun Fun enabling players to compete with each other in speed on the draw and accuracy in shooting.

RUFFLER & WALKER LTD. Once again the Ruffler & Walker stand dominated the center aisle of the hall. Here were to be found the latest Jennings fruit machines, Rock-Ola phonographs including the Princess described by Gordon Walker as "the hit of the show and of particular interest to showmen where space is the problem." The machine, though small and compact has a 100 selection. Walker also reports considerable interest in Gottlieb and Williams pin tables. Many of these are now being operated on 6d play with increased profit and returns for the operator. Particular interest was shown in Gottlieb's Big Casino and Williams Skill Ball. Another feature of the stand was the new flasher machine Calypso which has 10 player positions giving a total of 50 slots. This gives the same incentive as having 50 1d play fruit machines. Another big item was the Williams Voice-O-Graph coin operated recording studio of small dimensions for which R & W are sole importers. Walker reports that the guns still remain among the most popular arcade equipment especially the Midway Rifle Gallery and Midway de luxe Shooting Gallery.

COIN LTD. established their new Challenge MK 1 1d play fruit machine for which large orders were taken. Special features of the Challenge which is manufactured by their own subsidiary company Modermatics are the all-British bent coin rejection mechanism plus the low and highly competitive price of £157. 10. 0. complete with light up unit.

KRAFT AUTOMATICS LTD. Father and son team of Mark and Derek Kraft reported big sales on the second day of the exhibition. Particularly prominent on the stand was Krafts own manufactured five slot 6-player auto fruit with fruit card flasher giving pay outs of 2-12. Other attractions were their own manufactured electric wall machines and floor standing consoles.

AMI Shows Continental II

AUTOMATIC MUSIC INC. The AMI division of the Automatic Canteen Company (Great Britain) Ltd. had a small stand in the entrance hall featuring the AMI Continental II phonograph. The company highlighted their own exhibition at the nearby St. Ermins Hotel, which attracted many visitors, with a school of instruction in the maintenance of the AMI product. On Wednesday there was a meeting for the AMI team of distributors followed by a dinner.

LAREN FOR MUSIC. Prominently displayed were two of the AMI Continental II phonographs together with several fruit machines of the Bell Fruit Corporation, including 6d Tic-Tac-Toe and their special 1d play table model.

United Shuffle And Bowler Make Good Operator Combo

CHICAGO—Three particular points of interest were stressed by C. B. (Bill) DeSelm, executive vice president and director of sales for United Manufacturing Company, this city, in discussing the firm's new "Cypress" big ball bowling alley and "Sparky" (puck-type) shuffle alley bowler last week.

At the very top of this three-point equipment evaluation was "Earning Power", which he said, is what the nation's operators will "most certainly enjoy" when they place either or both of these two amusement games in locations anywhere.

He further stressed the exquisite, durable cabinetry as a prime reason for a realization of high resale value. Which, he said, is a must for games operators.

Furthermore, he declared the exceptionally fine design (externally as well as internally) will, in most cases, assure continuous play—and ease of servicing equipment.

"And with all of these plus factors, common these days in all United ball bowlers and puck shuffle alleys, there is (in 'Cypress' and 'Sparky') seven very exciting ways to score and play," DeSelm said.

The prime scoring feature is 'Line-Up Scores'. And, there are six other exciting bowling games: Such as, 'Flash' scores, 'Special', 'Advance', bowling. Another plus in both amusement games is the players' choice of 'Bonus', 'All Spares', and 'Regulation' 'Easy Strike' or 'Normal Strike'.

"Most games operators are very familiar with all seven of these United scoring and playing games," he continued, "and they know that they're all big money makers in locations."

Both amusement games are equipped very tastefully with high gloss, durable chrome rails at both sides of the alley. Another fact DeSelm spelled out is the ease of servicing, and that trouble-free operation is practically assured because of the mechanical excellence in "Cypress" and "Sparky".

One to six can play for 10¢ each per game. A two for 25¢ coin mechanism is available (optional to the operator).

"Cypress" coin-operated bowling alley is available in 13 foot and 16 foot standard lengths. There are, however, four foot and eight foot sections available to increase the length of the alley as specified for particular locations. Also featured is effective fluorescent lighting in the back-box.

"Sparky" puck-type shuffle alley bowler is available in the standard 8½ foot long, and 2½ foot wide alley. It boasts a very beautiful design to attract maximum play in locations.

"The two games make a good combination for operators," concluded the United exec.

Coinmen down Virginia way were shocked when they heard of the death of John Chandler, Manager of the Music Operators of Virginia. John was in constant contact with us here in our NYC office and whenever anything happened that had to do with the business he was right there on the phone or in the morning mail. As we look back now we recall many of the obituaries received from Chandler who always had a kind word to add at the bottom of every notice of the passing of another coinman. The MOV had their own epitaph for Chandler which was written across the bottom of the notice we received It read: There are many great men, but none so great that can take up where John D. Chandler left off. May this be his epitaph. To which we can only add, Amen.

Harold Kaufman, Musical Distributors, was assisted by A. D. Palmer on Tuesday and Wednesday when the newly appointed Wurlitzer distrib premiered the new 'Model 2700', an all-week long event. Operators liked the looks of the machine and their servicemen liked the inside features. These plus the Golden Bar and the Ten Top Tunes, what more can one ask? quoth Kaufman. Wurlitzer's Hank Peteet called on Virginia, Philly and NYC Wurlitzer distribs during Wurlitzer Week; 'A.D.' was in Virginia when word of Chandler's death cast a pall over the Diamond premiere; Sales chief Bob Bear visited New Orleans, Florida, Atlanta, Philly and NYC during the hectic premiere week. And so another new Wurlitzer has been introduced. The Harold Kaufman crew expects big things from the new '2700'.

Al Kerner in Peninsula General Hospital for surgery. . . . Nat Bensky recovering from an ulcer attack after a short stay in the hospital. The Westchester op planned to stay home for a week to rest up for the route. . . . Seymour and Rose Pollak off to Miami Beach for 11 days of sunshine (they hope!). . . . Carl Pavesi in to Runyon's for a part or two and a kind word of advice. "I always take business as it comes and never expect anything that's too good to be true. As far as business is concerned, my answer is 'Business is just fine.'"

Jack Wilson and Tom Greco joined in Albany by John Bilotta as upstate coinmen converged on Albany legislators re the current pool table mixup. . . . Nash Gordon makes the rounds of Tenth Avenue distribbs checking on trends and new innovations, all part of an association exec's duties.

Abe Lipsky beating the dock strike shipping So. America via truck to Miami and then onto the Latins via air. . . . Son Bert in to give Abe a hand with shipments on games and music. . . . Ted 'Champ' Seidel, on the Avenue showing off an unusual photo of former prizefighters all posed in the one pic. The only 'Champ' missing, is the 'Champ' himself, Ted. . . . Willie Aaronson in a hurry to get a few parts, get back to the route, and then onto a new idea which has been burning in Willie's head for too long.

The 'Senator' hit town last week with his lovely Frances, the 'First Lady of UJA' among other titles bestowed upon her, and together the twosome pranced up coinrow to meet Molly and Barney Sugerman and after some conversation, the foursome make their way toward Manhattan's smart east side, the Pen and Pencil Steak House and then on to "So This Was Burlesque" a hit Broadway show-stopper. And the ladies never looked lovelier, we might add.

Before leaving the Runyon showrooms we notice an addition to the office decor, and above Nate's desk is a large size photo of son Andy, who will be two years old in February. Andy smiles away over his Dad's busy pencil and the finance man wends his way through a maze of pen and paper chores, the necessary details of running a large scale business such as Runyon.

Irv (Kempy) Kemper calls in from Monticello and he advises Morris Rood, Keeper-of-the-phone, that Ray Gilleaudeau, local op, joined Irv earlier in the day as the two talked business. Ben Golden was the lucky recipient of luncheon with Irv who happened upon the Catskill op at about eatin' time. On to other Mountain stops and then home to Fairlawn is about the way Kempy's work-week continued . . . . Myron Sugerman hot on the export trail, with big plans for the A. T. E. Convention and the UK coinmen. Runyon has been hit, as has everyone in the export business, by the dock strike, which showed no signs of ending as we went to press with this column.

John Bilotta calls us from Tenth Avenue, then from Long Island City, and advises that he left Syracuse ("sold a good sized order of Wurlitzers"), went on to Newark ("just in time to put together a nice deal on Wurlitzers"), and then on to Albany ("where I helped Bob Catlin sell a shipment of Wurlitzers"). The man from upstate never stops. "We're concentrating on programming the tunes of the 1930's and 1940's for our Music of the Week feature and its paving off," says stout John.

Maury Sykes calls from his Mar-Matic office in Baltimore to advise that Jim Cherry has been hired to do an overseas job on the Keeney and Jennings lines, calling on European distribs. Cherry left Continental and is heading into his 25th year in the business. Next week: The Common Market.

Pennsylvania ops are getting together to fight the $250 tax stamp IRS ruling. Details will be published later after the group has established enough voluntary contributors for the legal fees involved in this huge project. Contact Billy Witsen at Scott Crosse in Philly if you want in . . . . Jack Palmer in from Antwerp, after forming his own Belgian firm, Belintraco, is looking to buy equipment for resale through his foreign outlets. He'll stay in Philly one more week after you read this.

Americans used an all-time high of 47.1 billion tin cans last year. And who says they aren't buying 6-packs for the house? . . . . Arnold Silverman, former Seeburg rep, will stay in L. A. as manager of the Amco outlet there. Dan Donahue is leaving . . . . Try the new Bally ride 'Bucky' on display at your Bally distributors. It's really a great ride for kids . . . .

Larry Galente, Intl. Mutocope, advises he has a 3-col. Snack Bar vending machine that's just the thing for juke box ops. If it's what he says it is, Mutoscope could sell them by the boatload. Snacks make money in bars, just as we've been told before . . . .

Irv Holzman in Florida, and then on to Chicago . . . . Whitey Druckman on the street. Haven't seen Whitey for a year . . . . Mike Munves talks us into ending the day on a pleasant note—two fingers of light scotch . . . . Norman Berkowitz, Deperri, handled an opening for Thermowave (they make ovens for restaurants and food vending ops) and got the story into four major national magazines and hit the TV waves in a colorful CBS newsbreak. Who says you can't make news during the newspaper strike? ! . . . .

Al Simon has that gleam in his eye again. Could be Europe this time . . . . Murray Kaye and Joe Fishman go over the details of a long list of equipment as Fishman prepares to call on some operator friends in conjunction with his new spot at Atlantic . . . .

Sid Greenfield and Allie Goldberg work into the wee hours preparing the new place for the week long showing and the ops kept coming from Monday thru Friday . . . . Talk with Jackie Hearn of LaSalle via phone and the guy with seven kids never seemed more chipper. Maybe he leaves early and comes home late.(!) . . . . And another week ends and what do you have to show for it? (Don't get excited: you get another week to try again every seven days.)

Chicago Chatter

The big news last week (and we hope it changes soon) was the intense cold weather and heavy snowfall in many parts of the country which stymied a multitude of operators in their travel from location to location for service and collections. Good news, of course, is the convening of some 3,000 European operators from January 29 thru 31 for the 19th Annual Amusement Trades Exhibition, in the Horticultural Hall, in London, England. While there don't forget to pick up your copy of Cash Box at the conveniently located Cash Box exhibit!

Some more big news was made at Chicago Dynamic Industries where a new "All Star" Baseball coin-operated amusement game was released to the coin machine trade last week. Sam Wolberg, Sam Gensburg and Mort Secore were very lavish in their praise of this competitive two-player game. Shipments, we're told, are already on their way to ChiCoin's distributors. An aside: I won't play Sam Wolberg on this new game anymore! He 'walloped' me!

The news is certainly great at D. Gottlieb & Co., where Nate Gottlieb reports exceptional sales figures on Gottlieb's "Rack-A-Ball" amusement pinball game. Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg couldn't be any busier than they are these days. Meanwhile Dave and Dorothy Gottlieb are dreamily basking on the sands of dear ol' Miami Beach (we can dream, can't we—but we still know it's c-o-l-d here!)

There was a steady stream of operators in to the recently refurbished showrooms of First Coin Machine Exchange, where Joe Kline, Sam Wolberg, Fred Kline, Cliff Meuller, Mary Gray and Joyce Larson were on hand to greet visitors for the gala week-long showing at First Coin of Wurlitzer's new "Model 2700" coin-operated automatic phonograph. Wurlitzer brass on hand also included district sales manager Bert Davidson and regional field engineer C. B. Ross. Plenty of refreshments were prepared for the guests.

Seeburg's Stan Jarocki reports that Tom Herrick is visiting the eastern part of the country, hitting such areas as Philadelphia and Baltimore. We wish a speedy, complete recovery to Al Cook, assistant to Ted Burrows in the Parts Dept. at Seeburg Corp. Al entered the hospital this week for surgery on his ear.

A very busy plant indeed is Rock-Ola Mfg. where production is very heavy on "Rhapsody" and "Capri" coin-operated phonos and Rock-Ola "IVI" coffee vending machines. Frank Doyle reports he is enjoying terrific sales on the "IVI" line. Edward G. Doris, executive vice president, is on a whirlwind business tour, expected back shortly, according to George Hincker . . . Patrick L. O'Malley, Automatic Canteen president, reported last week that sales and operating income reached an all time high of $223,977,771 for the fiscal year ending September 29, 1962, compared with corresponding 1961 figures of $190,948,918.

Several of the top execs at Rowe AC Services returned from business trips last week. Among those present were Jack Harper, Fred Pollak, Dean McMurdie and Tom Sams.

A visitor in town last week was popular exporter Maury Sykes, of Mar-Matic in Baltimore. Maury visited with J. H. Keeney president Roy McGinnis, vice prexy Dick Tennes, and Clayton Nemeroff. Also Louis Urban and Eddie Matthews, at Jennings & Co. Jim Cherry was named European rep. of the firm just before Sykes left town. . . . It's always a pleasure to bump into operator veteran Frank Padula, one of the big mainstays in this area.

Bill DeSelm is absolutely thrilled over the terrific acceptance United Mfg. is enjoying with United's "Cypress" big ball bowler and "Sparky" puck shuffle bowling alley.

Sam Stern, president of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp., is smiling broadly these days. The reason, of course, is that Williams sold more of its current two-player pinball amusement game, "Tom Tom," than any other two-player in the company's history. Jack Mittel says Williams is now on its third production run. Art Weinand is now on a swing through the southwestern part of the country. (We hope he's picking all the warm spots to swing through!)

Now that Nate Feinstein and Irv Ovitz are well settled in their new offices at World Wide Distributors they're much happier. Nate is running this big operation as though he's been there all his life. His fine relationship with operators throughout this area is very helpful at this time. Nate says he's very happy to be back with Seeburg's phonos and vending machines, with which he has had so much experience.

It's always nice to chat with Sam Hastings, veteran Wisconsin operator, and head of Hastings Distribs. Sam is also prexy of the Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators' Assn. As usual, the liveliest, most humorous guy we saw in Milwaukee was Jerome "Red" Jacomet, another association officer, who was on hand at Harry Jacobs showing of the new Wurlitzer phono with his beautiful frau, as were Mr. & Mrs. Jim Stecher. . . . While talking with Sam Hastings we also chatted with his valuable business associate—his son, Jack Hastings. Who, Sam says, he couldn't do without at Hastings Distribs. Young Jack was on hand with his pretty, young wife.

The news is, as usual, excellent at Atlas Music Co., where Eddie Ginsburg and Harold Schwartz are busy as blazes making deliveries to local operators of Rowe AMI phonos and Rowe vending machines.

One of the most active places we visited all last week was Empire Coin Machine Exchange. Owner Gil Kitt and sales chief Joe Robbins keep the midnight oil burning these days to keep up with demand of music and amusement equipment for operators here. Bill Milner keeps the city desk well occupied while Jack Burns and Bill Herbord are on the road for Empire Coin.

We're delighted to report that Clayton Nemeroff, of J. H. Keeney & Co., is back in his office after his recent discharge from Columbus Hospital. The nasty weather is keeping prexy Roy McGinnis indoors.

Canteen Reports All-Time High $223 Million

Depreciation Recomputed On New Rates Vs. Straight-Line

CHICAGO—Automatic Canteen Company of America reported that sales and operating income reached an all-time high of $223,977,771 for the fiscal year ending September 29, 1962, compared with corresponding 1961 figures of $190,948,918.

Consolidated net earnings after taxes for fiscal 1962 were $632,627, or 9 cents per share on 6,773,915 shares outstanding. The earnings reflect year-end adjustments and, in addition, depreciation for 1962 of $12.9 million as compared to $6.3 million depreciation for 1961, an increase of $6.6 million. Depreciation for 1962 has been recomputed on the basis of Guideline Procedures, Investment Credit and Double Declining Balance rates on many of the company's assets, compared to the straight-line rates previously used.

In fiscal 1961, Automatic Canteen reported operating net income of 41 cents per share, not including 35 cents a share resulting from a non-recurring profit on the sale of a 50 percent interest in the Commonwealth Savings and Loan Association, North Hollywood, Calif.

PATRICK L. O'MALLEY

Patrick L. O'Malley, Automatic Canteen President, said the "earnings for the first quarter 1963 are not available at present, but sales for the first quarter ending December 22 increased 12 percent over the like period last year."

Dept. Of Commerce Publishes Report On Vending Industry

"Machines Are A Necessity Rather Than A Convenience"

CHICAGO—More than 20,000 persons are employed by vending operating companies at a payroll of over $75,000,000, according to data just published by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Louis J. Risman, president of the National Automatic Merchandising Association, announced last week.

(The data are based on the 1958 U. S. Census, a year when total estimated U. S. vended sales were nearly 30 per cent lower than in 1962.)

The NAMA staff assisted the U. S. Department of Commerce in compiling industry background material for the report, Risman said.

This is the first time such a report has been compiled and published about the vending industry, Department officials told NAMA. They said their decision to compile the data is based on the growing importance and expansion of the American vending industry.

Prepared by the Business and Defense Services Administration, the report credits vending's services during World War II as one factor which led to post-war expansion of the industry.

The report states that "vending machines play an important role in the American distribution system. They have become a necessity rather than a convenience."

It adds that "it has made substantial, though immeasurable, savings in time, capital outlay and money for many firms in all lines of economic activity."

Besides employment and sales statistics on a regional and state basis for vending operating companies, the report also covers vending machine manufacturing data, based on the 1958 Census and reviews the international growth of the industry.

TRIMOUNT SERV SCHOOL FOR OPS COVERS ROWE AC COFFEE MACHINE

Partial view of 70 operator servicemen who attended recent service school staged by Trimount Automatic Sales Corp., Boston, to help operators learn more about Rowe AC coffee machines. Session was part of a series of continuing service school courses sponsored by Trimount under the direction of Al Panuzzo, Rowe Field Service Engineer, with assistance of Trimount staff members.

Interstate Appoints Williams In Michigan

CHICAGO—Donald C. Williams has been appointed Assistant to the Vice President for the Michigan Area, and General Manager, Interstate Vending Company of Michigan, it was announced by Interstate President Ronald Wolff.

In this position, Williams will assume full responsibility for the Interstate branch operations in the Detroit area.

Prior to joining Interstate, Williams was Sales Representative, Detroit District Sales, United States Steel Corporation.

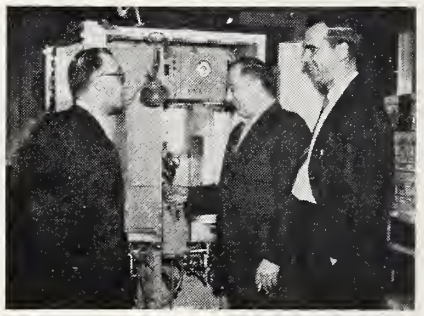
From 1953 to 1956 he served as Supply Officer with the United States Navy, and held the rating of Lieutenant, JG, upon separation.

He holds a bachelor of Arts Degree from Hamilton College and a Master in Business Administration Degree from Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

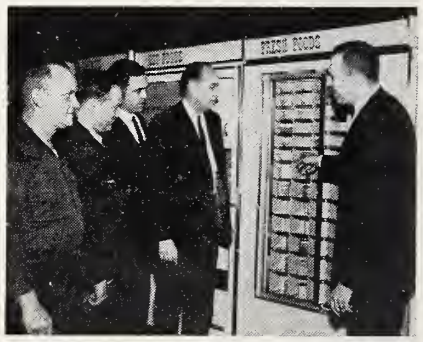
Williams will be headquartered at Interstate Vending Company of Michigan branch offices at 5812 Tireman, Detroit.

The Detroit vending firm is a division of Interstate Vending Company, a Chicago-based national company. It is one of the largest operators of vending equipment in the country with over 66 branches and almost 4,000 employees in 29 states.

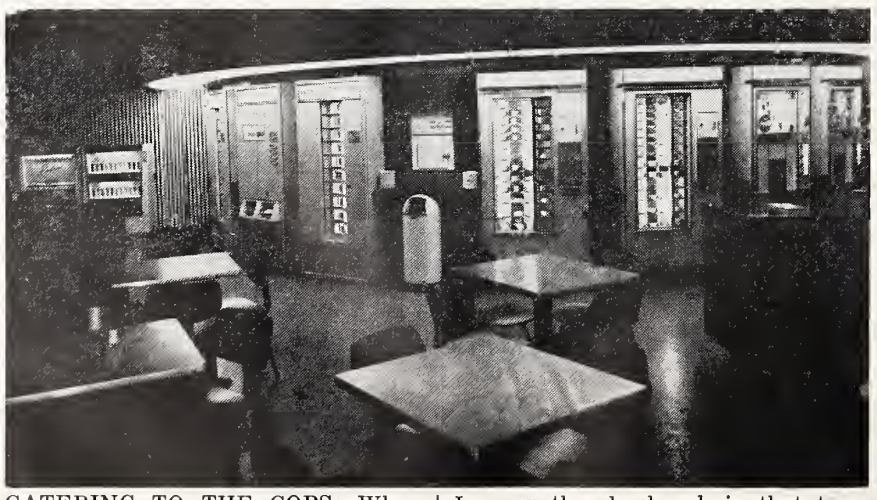
Interstate is a public company, now doing business at an annual rate of over $70 million dollars. The firm, which primarily operates manual and automatic food services for industry and institutions, recently opened the nation's largest public automatic restaurant, The Brass Rail Automatic Restaurant, in Chicago's Wrigley Building.



During Trimount's operator service school, Al Panuzzo (left), Rowe AC Field Service Engineer, and Arthur Frates (right), went over details of Rowe Batch Brew coffee machine with George Kilsey, President of Chuck Wagon Caterers. Trimount, Boston Branch of Rowe AC Services, plans to continue service school sessions throughout 1963 as part of their continuing program to assist operators in the area.



Although sessions concentrated on Rowe AC coffee vendors, Trimount Automatic Sales Corp. took opportunity to display entire new Rowe AC line to visiting operator personnel. Here, C. Marshall Caras (right), Assistant Manager, demonstrates Rowe All-Purpose Merchandiser to Norman Vernon (center) of Boston, and others.



CATERING TO THE COPS: When the local Police Department in Philadelphia needed help in solving its feeding problems, the constabulary turned to Horn & Hardart, the automatic restaurant which got its start in the City of Brotherly Love many years ago. One look at the Department at 8th and Race Street and the H&H people turned to David Rosen Inc., another landmark in that town and a firm in the business of installing vendors. The results are pictured above, showing off a smart circular installation of Celebrity vendors as manufactured by Rowe AC Services, for which Dave Rosen is a leading distributor. "We do not expect to be faced with a slug problem," stated a Rosen subordinate.

New R-M Post Office

WARMINSTER, PA.—Rudd-Melikian, Inc. now has a new post office address, it was announced here this week.

"The Warminster, Pa. post office, which is one mile North of the plant, is now serving the Company's postal needs," reports Joseph C. Bahr, Treasurer. "Previously, since we moved into our modern facility at 300 Jacksonville Road in 1955, postal services had been furnished by the Hatboro, Pa. office located one mile South even though we were never actually located in that Borough. But now with the rapid industrial development in the surrounding area, and the continuing growth of our Company, postal authorities have had to make this change.

"Only the post office address has been moved, not Rudd-Melikian," Bahr emphasized. "We are still developing and manufacturing automatic vending equipment, roasting coffees, processing teas, and producing other foods and beverages for the vending and institutional trades in our 104,000 square foot plant at the same location.

Frigid Ops Give '2700' Warm Reception At Milwaukee United Show

MILWAUKEE — Despite very cold weather and a heavy snowfall Harry Jacobs, Jr. and his staff from United, Incorporated in this city, enjoyed a nice turnout of Wisconsin music operators for a gala showing of the 1963 Wurlitzer models 2700 and 2710 coin-operated phonographs, at the Kaiser Knickerbocker Hotel in Milwaukee, last Saturday, January 12.

Ronald J. Kopp, vice president of United, Inc., and head of United Sound, Inc., opened the meeting in the Dynasty Room. Where the Wurlitzer theme was a horse race presentation, with the Wurlitzer "horse" climaxing the radio narration of the race as the winner.

Kopp introduced Harry Jacobs, Jr., president of United, Inc., who officially greeted and welcomed the visiting operators.

C. B. Ross, Midwestern regional engineer for Wurlitzer, demonstrated the model 2700 phono and its uniquely modern features, and color effect possibilities, and then explained the continuing excellent acceptance of Wurlitzer's "Top Ten Tunes" feature, offering the top ten tunes in the phono for 50¢.

Bert Davidson, district sales manager for Wurlitzer Company, was also on hand to greet the visiting operators.

A new feature in the 1963 Wurlitzer line of phonographs is the "50-10" wallbox. Which, Ross said, is currently in heavy production in the No. Tonawanda, New York factory. "This," he said, "is a Wurlitzer exclusive which offers the 'Top Ten Tunes' from the remote wallbox at the tables in the location."

Jacobs emphasized the very attractive low cost for an installation of the Wurlitzer 1963 line of phonographs in locations. Thus making it possible for operators to earn extra profits.

AMI SCHOOL (HIGHWAY) HOUSE: Johnny Hotz, R. F. Jones' service engineer, pictured above, was in grand style last month when local Tucson, Arizona ops attended his service school. Lecture took place at The Highway House, local oasis and site of a Rowe-AMI phono.

ChiCoin Intros 2-Plyr. 'All-Star' Baseball

CHICAGO—Chicago Coin Machine Company has released a new amusement game which Sam Wolberg, head of Chicago Dynamic Indutsries, Incorporated, happily considers one of the most exciting "play makers" ever introduced by ChiCoin to the coin markets throughout this country, and for distribution on the European Continent.

The coin-operated amusement game—called "All Star" Baseball—is a two-player, action baseball type machine designed for exciting competitive play on the playfield, and on the animated light-box.

SAMUEL WOLBERG

The light-box has an effectively laid out baseball diamond, on which base runners light up when a hit is made, running around the bases, racking up runs scored which register for "1st player" and "2nd player" on the upper right and upper left of the backglass, respectively.

At the bottom of the backglass the words "Single", "Double", and "Triple" are spelled out on, both, the right and left sides. At the center the words "Home Run" are indicated.

Wolberg explained an exciting feature on "All Star" Baseball, whereby, when the player lights up the whole line-up, seven boxes of the aforementioned hits, by hitting all the targets ("Single", "Double", "Triple" and "Home Run") on the playfield, one of the "outs" cancels out, giving the player extra balls to play the game. He also earns five extra runs for his score.

The balls are ejected from a "pitcher's mound" (center hole) at the very center of the beautifully illustrated playfield. The player controls the ball ejection and the swinging of the bat (located at the bottom of the playfield) by pressing two large, stainless steel buttons on the formica front panel of the cabinet.

The targets on the playfield are motor driven. Other scoring features include: Three extra runs are scored if the player hits three extra targets on each side. There is also an extra score earned whenever a "Home Run" is hit.

Wolberg and Sam Gensburg are both very lavish in their praise of the action contained in "All Star" Baseball. And, in the strikingly beautiful appearance of the cabinet.

There is all stainless steel trim and hardward. The side rails are of full-size stainless steel for greater durability. The legs, as well, are stainless steel, as is the one-piece cash box.

Mort Secore, sales director for Chicago Dynamic Industries, Inc., stated that the single or twin coin chutes are available to the game operators at their request (optional).

Shipments are already being made this week to Chicago Coin's distributors everywhere. And, "All Star" Baseball amusement game is now in full production in the Chicago Coin factory on the northwest side of this city.

Joe Brilliant Back On Coin Machine Scene With Vendor

ROYAL OAK, MICH.—Joe Brilliant, veteran coin machine figure, who announced retirement in 1957, has returned to the coin machine business via the vending route.

Brilliant assumed a partnership in Majo-Matics Sales Company last month. The firm distributes Majo-Matic vendors, coin-operated merchandise machines offering potato chips and snacks.

According to Brilliant, the machine is now in production.

Majo-Matics is located at 2300 N. Woodward in Royal Oak. Brilliant owned and operated the Brilliant Music Company for thirty years up until 1957 when the coinman devoted all of his time to interests outside of the industry. In his words, he has re-entered the business with a product that has "trade acceptance and is a profitable item for operators."

NEW DOME DISPLAY

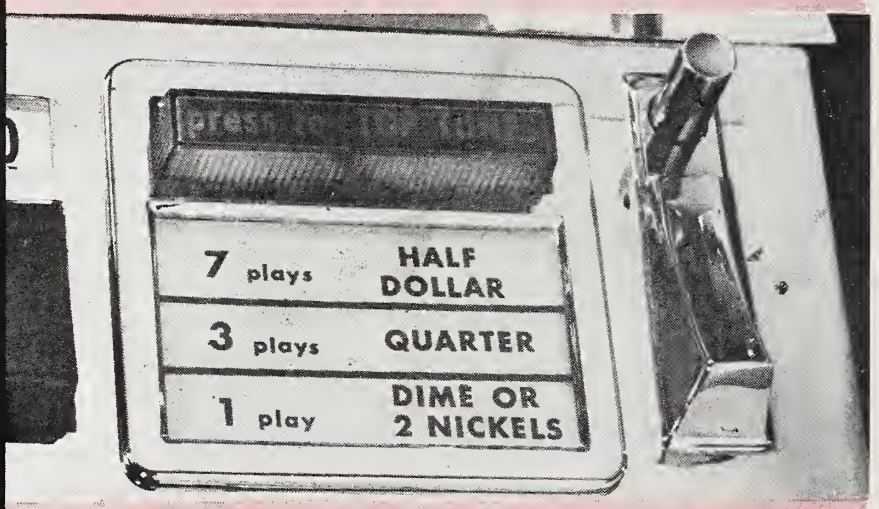
Here is a colorful and compelling invitation to play the 2700. It can be used for location personalization — to feature album cover in conjunction with Music of the Week or Ten Top Tunes. Limitless color combinations.

HIGH SPEED TITLE STRIP CHANGING

With dome raised, entire hinged program unit drops to a vertical position. V-shape of each section makes title strips easily accessible — saves service time. Tone arm adjustment and needle changing are high speed operations, too.

WURLITZER PROMOTION PANEL — A REAL EXTRA PLAY PRODUCER

Softly glowing, fired-on, edge lighted letters indicate the presence of Wurlitzer Stereo Music, promotes play. Panel releases downward for access to switch banks and fluorescent tube or grille color shield.



GOLDEN SELECTOR BAR FOR TEN TOP TUNES FEATURE

To the greatest play stimulating feature ever Wurlitzer has added even more appeal. Deposit a half-dollar, the Golden Bar glowingly displays the message "Press For Top Tunes." Pressing the bar extinguishes the light, starts the Top Tunes playing.

Every Wurlitzer 2700 Feature is Money in the Bank for You

The new Wurlitzer 2700 is alive with new features — each in its own way contributing to greater earning power or lowered service costs. See and hear the 2700 at your Wurlitzer Distributors. Check all the new features yourself. Compare what you hear and what you see and you'll quickly agree . . .
